If the last notice of the plots were divided and allotted in equal shares to each of its human residents, it would be found that each would get twenty-three and one half acres, but much of it would not be worth having.

The old tark Helen W. Amy, which left San Francisco Sunday for Alaska, (her bottom up about 10 miles outside of the golden Gate,) with a crew of 19 men and 47 Klondikers have met watery graves. The passengers were mostly from the East.

The recent last medalions values of the famous DeMoss family will again be heard this season. They opened the season last Saturday night at Wasco with one of their comedy, and "Sweet Oregon" will again be in the land.

The bank of Nickerson at Nickerson, Kan., was robbed Sunday Mch. 20. Five men did the job and it required but five hours to blow open the safe. Citizens who were passing the building were held up and bound to go inside where they were kept until the safe was blown open and the money secured. A last $3000 was taken.

The delinquent tax list of Linn County published over two months ago, but up to this date no bill for the payment of its publication has been presented to the county, at least no disbursement has yet been made through the county court pursuant to such a bill. The taxpayers are beginning to wonder about the time of the law and when it is to be filled.—Brownsville Times.

REPORT ON THE WAY.

Morris Is Bringing The Report to Washington.

Miami, Fla., Mch. 22.—Lieutenant Commander Morris, of the "Maine" court of inquiry, with the historic party, arrived here this morning from Key West. Lieutenant John Hood, Lieutenant C. W. Jungen, Asstt. Engineer F. A. Bonce, Cadets Bronson and Boyd, Asstt. Engineer Morris, and Benn. A few minutes later they left, by rail, for Washington.

Morris was very reticent, but when your correspondent said: "It looks like war," he replied, "It surely does."

Others of the party in answer to the same question were more emphatic in their replies, one saying: "I cannot see how it can be averted."

Another said that there would be war. When asked when the report would be made, the reply was "As soon as we reach Washington. No more delays." A strong impression left was that the board's report will be that the Maine was blown up by a mine or a torpedo.

A Mail and Express special from W. S. Quigley, its Key West correspondent, gives an entertaining proof that the Maine board will report that the explosion was not accidental. In an interview he had with Judge-Advocate Morris, he told him that he would secure Dr. Havens baby. Morris said: „Don't do it, Quigley! Havens will be a material witness when the findings of the court are known. It is as much as your life is worth to go there!"

Fort Jefferson is known in the War Department as Dry Tortugas. It is 68 miles west from Key West, and is regarded as a strategic important area in case of war with Spain. The navy gardens once that island and extended to 1846. In 1846 the fort was loaned to the Treasury Department as a quarantine station, to be returned when needed. It is now being utilized for war. The military authorities agree it will be most valuable in men of collision. It would be indispensable as a base of supplies as a means of protection in connection with other fortifications in the vicinity. It is now being made a base of naval supplies and a defensive point with the utmost dispatch. Spain is a wily and treacherous foe and Uncle Sam keeps with one eye open and will not be caught napping.

England is to put $30,000,000 into new warships. Russia has decided to expend $6,000,000 rubles in the same way. Germany has followed suit in naval armament. America's $50,000,000 navy go largely into a navy on the Spanish war scare. But it begins to look like the good nations had some effective thought in reference to naval power. The Chinese partition is the greatest event of the world's history. How it will eventually end is a vast problem. Wanted,or may come luckly.—Portland Chronicle.

A steadied skirmish line of torpedoes is projected from Willets Point across the channel to Fort Schuyler, in the harbor at New York City. The torpedoes will be anchored at close approaches that it may be made impossible for a hostile vessel to cross the line without being blown up. The torpedoes will be connected with electric wires and in make ducky care that their plans cannot be frustrated the engineers have arranged to have batteries located at each end of the line so that in case an apparatus was used by the enemy to sever the connected wires and break their circuit the torpedoes still could be exploded from either end of the line. The channel is already pondered from Willets Point more to the center of the channel by the submarine mines. Each group of the mines consists of 32 torpedoes, 16 together containing 120 pounds of giant powder.

The new postal cars are being constructed are said to be handsome proof. The platforms are to be closed in, and sides, the doors opening only from the inside. A series of fans and holes protected

TWO VOICES.

A Southern Volunteer.

Yes, sir, I fought with Stonewall,
And fared the fight with Lee;
But if this here Union goes to war,
I didn't enlist in from Stuartsan
As to gallop'd to the sea;
But if this here Union goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I was with 'em at Manassas—
The balls flugs to flugs;
I heard the Yankees' coattle
Round Stonewall Jackson's way.
And many a time this sword of mine,
Has blazed the route for Lee;
But if this old nation goes to war,
Make one more gun for me!

I'm not so full of fightin',
Nor half so full of fun,
As I was back in the sixties
When I doubted my old gun!
It may be that my hair is white—
Sich things, you know, must be,
But if this old Uncle's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

I hain't forgot my rants'—
Nor low, in sixty-two,
Our Secessonists, with bottle shouts,
I forgot the how to blue;
And I say: I fought with Stonewall,
And blazed the way for Lee;
But if this old Uncle's in for war,
Make one more gun for me!

—Atlanta Constitution.

His Northern Brother.

Just make it two, old fellow,
I want to stand once more
Beneath the old flag with you
As in the days of yore.
Our fathers stood together
And fought on land and sea
The battle fierce that makes us
A nation of the free.

I wrapped you down at Vicksburg,
You licked me at Bull Run;
On many a field we struggled,
When neither victory won.
You were the gray of Scotland,
I was the Northern Hue;
Like men we did our duty
When screaming bullets flew.

Four years we fought like devils,
But when the war was done
Your hand met mine in friendly clasp,
Our two hearts beat as one.
And know, when danger threatens,
No North, no South, we'll know,
Ours more we stand together
To fight the common foe.

My head, like yours, is frosty—
Old age is creeping on,
Life's sun is lower sinking,
My day will soon be gone.
But if our country's honor
Needs once again her best,
Up, rusty, to old fellow—
He get another gun.
