SIGNS OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Rawlins of Utah, today introduced a joint resolution in the senate recognizing the independence of Cuba and declaring war against Spain. Senator Forsaker has offered in the senate a resolution recognizing Cuba's independence. Forsaker spoke of the delays caused by the De Lome incident and the Maine incident, but declared the Cuban question would come up whatever was done with the Maine.

Elye introduced a resolution reciting conditions in Cuba and directing the president in his discretion to take steps to drive the Spanish naval and military forces from the island. The resolutions went to the committee on foreign relations.

Pekin, March 29.—The Chinese garrisons were withdrawn today from Port Arthur and Tilen-Wan. The Russian standard and Russian flag were hoisted at both places.

Washington, March 29.—Senators and others who talked with the president last evening and today say a proposition for an armistice in Cuba came from Spain, and while it is being considered by the president he insisted that any proposed armistice must be coupled with other conditions which Spain has not shown a disposition to accept and perhaps will not accept. It is stated by senator that matters will be brought to a head with in a very short time.

The great warships Kentucky and Kearsage were launched at Newport News March 24. Their length is 368 feet, breadth of beam 72 feet 6 inches, and draught is 23 feet 6 inches. Their bunkers will hold 1,210 tons of coal and speed will be 16 knots per hour. Contract price was $2,350,000.

The Sunday Oregonian says: The reports that have been received concerning Captain John Parker, of Albia, have been remarkable in number and variety. On the heels of "positive proof" that he died in the hospital at Dawson City comes the assurance that he is well and with the Holmes brothers. This last report came in a letter from William Sanderson, at Skagway, who said he had received his information from some one who had just come from Dawson. In fact, so far as known, no definite news has been received.

The body of Margaret O'Rourke, who had evidently been murdered was found in a lodging house Friday. A hammer was found in the room with which the woman had been beaten to death. She was about 45 years old.—Seattle Post.

A distressing accident happened in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon. A crowd of men were discussing politics. While R. K. Kahl was talking, holding a small penknife in his hand, Geo. Neuber, one of the party, tripped him just a joke. He threw out his hand to balance himself and the blade of the knife in his hand entered the back of Pat Donegan, Jr., inflicting a wound in close range to the left lung. The injured man will recover.

A German Jew, calling himself "Professor Bernard" and claiming to be a hypnotist, is now making a tour through Oregon. He is a man of medium height, wearing a black felt hat, dark glasses and rather shabby looking dark clothes. He left Oregon City Sunday night for Salem, where he expects to practice his profession. His intentions may be all right, but his general appearance is somewhat suspicious. He left here in debt to everyone he had any dealings with.—Oregon City Enterprise.
