Harry Johnston made a visit home last week.

It is said that Spains biggest army consists of creditors.

Miss Elva Beard of Portland was visiting her sister Mrs. Frank Irvin one day this week.

James and Charles Dickens are down from Dufer for a short stay, probably two weeks.

The flowering mills now run day and night. Lon and Charles Young are on the night shift.

Otto Martin and Henry Myer have returned from Alaska. Fred Morris is still at Fort Wrangle.

A. L. Richardson will sell at public auction at his home 5 miles southeast of Scio on Tuesday the 3rd day of May 1898, horses, machinery, cows and everything commonly used on small farms. Bill Nye, a thoroughbred runing colt will also be sold.

Mr. J. R. Stewartson, a former Albany drayman and butcher, now of the Upper Santiam, was in the city today on his way home from a trip to Elk City, where he had a visit with Mr. L. W. Deyoe, who was somewhat laid up from one of his boyish tricks.

We Need Money.

Having several bills coming due April 1st we are obliged to ask all who are owing us on account or note, to settle their bills or as much of them as possible by that time.

Your efforts to aid us just now will be duly appreciated.

The Albany Steam Laundry does as fine work as any first-class laundry on the coast and their prices are all right.—Ed Cyrus, Agt.

Quite a number of young men in this community may have to go with the militia, if ordered out. Among whom are Ed Cyrus, John Goins, and C. S. Harnish now of Albany. Orlanda Neelands of the same place and Arther Gamber who has been attending school at Eugene this winter. May luck go with them.

Stop That Cough Take warning—It may lead to Consumption. A 25c bottle of Shiloh,s Cure may save your life. Sold by Peery & Peery.

Mrs. J. W. Pugh, wife of republican nominee for Sheriff died suddenly at her home in Shedd Saturday night. She was taken with a violent coughing spell from which she was unable to recover. She had not been ill. The deceased was a woman highly respected and besides a husband and children leaves many to mourn her death.

Old Uncle Simon Peter Cartwright Fleener 76 years of age, left for Alaska last Monday. He leaves a comfortable home and pleasant surroundings to try his luck in the gold fields. A farewell dinner was given him at his home near this city last Sunday. The old gentle man has been a miner off and on al; his life, and catched the Alask fever hard.

The Junior Base Ball club gave an entertainment and supper at the opera house Saturday evening from which they realized a neat little sum to be applied toward equipping the club with the instruments of base ball warfare.—Brownsville Times. Why not cross bats with the Scio team. Our boys can't play a bit but have a faculty of treating visitors nicely and otherwise making things pleasent for them.

A bicycle path between Corvallis and Albany, it is expected, is to be one of the conveniences of the near future. The Benton County Road Club has held two interesting meetings. Forty or fifty leading and influential wheelmen have identified themselves with the organization. It takes $1 for a man or a boy over 16 to become a member and half a dollar for ladies of any age and boys under 16 to join. Each member has to pay a fee of 10 cents a month for dues.

The Prison Mirror, published in the Minnesota penitentiary, says: "Why is it that up to the present time, we have never had an editor sojourn in our midst? Other professions have been well represented; of preachers we have had enough to furnish subsistance to an African chief for a year; doctors in sufficient number to depopulate a state; and enough lawyers to establish a fair sized colony in hades, but editors—not one."—Democrat. We believe this to be just a happenstance in that particular prison. If it is applicable to all prisons, however, we think it accounted for by the lack of spirit shown by any thing, man or beast, who is ill fed. Feed an editor up till he is stout and gets confidence in himself and there will be more of their class in prison than anywhere else.

Who's Munkers? Why he is the chap that assisted a Scio preacher into a horse trough and then helped to roll him in the mud. His Pa went to the legislature but he didn't legislate. If he is elected sheriff the people want to know whether he will quell such mobs as he has hitherto belonged to, or whether he will permit all kinds of hoodlumism to run riot. Speak up Mr Munkers the people of Linn county want a law abiding man for sheriff.—Lebanon Criterian. We don't know anything about the horse trough affair at all. But we want the Criterian to understand that the present candidate for sheriff and the man who went to the legislature are not father and son. And also that if Mr Munker did not legislate, the same can be said of more than one republican who was there at the same time. Mr. Munkers denies being connected with the horse trough incident. At any rate it is small campaign material.

THE WAR BEGUN.

The Fleet Starts for Havana.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Gen. Woodford was given his passport at 11:30 and notified the United States that diplomatic relations with severed and that this is declaration of war.

The ultimatum was formally rejected by Spain.

The president and cabinet have decided that no formal declaration of war is necessary.

The fleet is moving on Havana and an engagement is expected to-night.

Telegraphic reports are that Port Tampa is gaily decorated. Stirring speeches and loyalty found on all arriving trains and boats.

Shot With a Pistol

An accident happened last Saturday, at the home of Marion Alexander near this city, that came near sending one boy out of this world very suddenly, and will serve as an everlasting reminder to let old pistols alone. Earnest Waltrip owns an old rusty thirty-two caliber revolver. He and Otto Alexander procured some catridges during the absence of Mr Alexander, and went out to practice at pistol shooting The gun would not revolve easily, and they were monkeying with it, young Waltrip holding the pistol and young Alexander trying to turn the cylinder holding onto the barrel. It revolved. Alexander was shot through and through. The ball entered between the second and third ribs, coming out at his back. It is thought he may be shot through a small portion of his right lung and direct through the liver. Alexander was helped to the house, a few hundred yards, and Dr. Brown of this city was called and dressed the wound.

Later—The above was the best version obtained for about four days after the accident. But the Waltrip boy's version of the matter is that the pistol was a cap and ball gun, and that young Alexander was holding the pistol himself and turning the cylinder, the hammer being raised at the time. Young Alexander is getting along nicely and will soon be on his feet again.

Friday—Young Alexander is getting along nicely and is probably not shot as bad as first supposed. It is said the rabbit the boys aimed to kill at the beginning "made his exit," during the smoke and confusion, when the pistol revolved.

Shiloh Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by PEERY & PEERY

Fitzhugh Lee and Harry Scott are both great men and patriotic. Which is the more patriotic? Fitzhugh Lee and the president keep true touch and time in this affair with Spain and Cuba. Scott has got it in for the administration, and thinks the president jumbled affairs. If Scott would look back, he would find himself in the same position as the man who sighted at a cow across the field to plow the first furrow by and the cow fed along as the man plowed toward her. We guess Scott is rattled on account of trouble in the home camp, and especially since the administration failed to seat Corbett.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Gents:—From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advance Consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable Remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from Consumption. Sold by PEERY & PEERY.

Ramp and Son Home.

Mr B F Ramp and son Rolla returned last Saturday night from Skagway, coming back by way of Seattle, after an absence of three or four months. Mr. Ramp had lost twenty-one pounds in flesh, but was well. He also reached home with about $25 less than when he left here, so he had experience to pay for his trip. While at Skagway and Dyea he did all manner of work and made one trip to the top of Chilcoot pass, but it is expensive to live and work is unsteady. Most of the other Albany men will return, very few with anything to show for their experience. Perhaps only one will go on to Dawson. Mr. G. C. Moon had decided to make the trip. W E Kelley will return home as soon as his purse is big enough. Mr. Ramp reports the stories about epidemic of deaths as absolutely untrue. The number was not large and then mostly from careless exposure The weather had been bad only in the big storms, and they are sometimes terrific. The Chilcoot horror had caused great excitement there, but it will not stop travel to the Klondike.

The Lakeview Examiner says it has received information, unauthenticated, however, that Billy Meikle, who drove the stage between Bidwell and Lake City, was dragged to death in a runaway. The information was given out by the driver of the Plush-Bidwell line, who reported that while driving from Bidwell to Lake City the horses Meikle was driving ran away thowing him down in front of the stage and he was dragged to death. Meikle was well known in Lakeview.

"Jiggs" Parrott, that manly ball tosser, who was born and raised at Portland and made such a record, is dead. He died in Phoenix Arizona of consumption. He was a cheerful player, always conducting himself gentlemanly on the diamond and a great favorite. "Jiggs" was always expected to do something brilliant in every game, and rarely dispointed his admirers.

In Albany about 3 o'clock Friday morning, a Doctor was called to the residence of Adrian Comley to dress a gunshot wound inflicted in Mr. Comley's leg. It was found to be a flesh wound in the thigh produced by a weapon of small caliber, and was not serious.

There are conflicting theories as to how the shooting occured. One is that he was passing along the street with a wheelbarrow, on which is a bicycle tire, and that the tire exploded, the compressed air forcing a pellet into his leg. Another is that he was passing a woodpile with his wheelbarrow and that the owner mistook him for some one trying to purloin the wood, and took a shot at him. Comley says the way it happened was this. He heard burglars trying to break into his house and he got up and got a pistol, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball entering his leg. But the Albany Herald says the police think he is romancing about the burglary, and the truth of it will come out sooner or later.

The first man owning a pneumatic tire wheelbarrow in Scio, would be looked upon with suspicion, especially if his chariacter was none of the best.

Two Vancouver Indians were picked up on the Columbia river bar Sunday by the tug Relief. They were hunters from the British sealing schooner Doris, and had left their vessel while hunting. They were outside for three days in a canoe, which they managed with great dexterity. The Astoria News says they will return to their homes on the City of Topeka.

The largest wild beast bounty payment ever made in any state is now being made at Helena, Mont. It amounts to $50,696, and represents the balance due on the state,s payment in the skins of 16,698 wolves and coyotes killed in 1897.

Frank Crabtree, union nominee for county clerk, spent Wednesday night in Lebanon. Mr. Crabtree was born in this county in 1850, being one of the oldest native Oregonians that we know of. With the exception of one year spent in California he has resided in Linn county during the entire forty-eight years of his life, and most of the time he has lived on the home place where he was raised. He has a very large acquaintance in the county, and will be one of the best runners on the union ticket. He is another man on our ticket who has been a student in the State Agricultural College, and while attending there was a classmate of Hon. J. K. Weatherford and Hon. R. M. Veatch. Mr. Crabtree is well qualified to discharge the duties of county clerk, to which he will undoubtedly be elected in June.—Lebanon Express—Advance.

BORN—To the wife of Alex Williams, Tuesday April 19, 1898, a boy.

Married.

NEIS—SCHLOSSER—At the home of the bride's parents, in this city at 10:30 A. M., on Monday. April 18 1898, by Rev. D. V. Poling, Mr. Kola Neis and Miss Mary Schlosser.

The groom is a member of the well known firm of hop dealers Faber & Neis. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schlosser. The happy couple left on the noon train for a trip to the sound. They will have the best wishes of many friends.—Herald

At the home of Mrs. Ann E. Worrel, April 20th, by Rev. Mckillop, George W. Phillips, of Scio, and Annie M. Worrel, of Albany Oregon. At 8 P. M. the marriage took place in the parlors of the bride's mother. An arch of flowers was beautifully prepared under which the couple stood during the ceremony. They entered accompanied by Mr. Sam Worrel and Miss Bessie Burknart, while Miss Livingston played the wedding march. After the marriage lunch was served of cake in great abundance and coffee and chocolate, etc. Many beautiful and select presents were given the bride. At 9:15 P. M. the newly married couple left for the Southern Pacific depot, accompanied by many friends and the well wishes of all.—Herald.
