PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Flo Smith is visiting her sister near Ale this week.

Allen Chamberlin, of Albany, was in Scio yesterday morning.

J. W. Conpton, was over at the county seat the first of this week.

Hub Bryant of Albany was on our streets a couple of days this week.

Miss May Curl, of Albany, is visiting friends in this city this week.

Walter Worrell, of Albany, was in Scio over Sunday, visiting his sister Mrs. G. W. Phillips.

Miss Maud Rundlett, of Salem, who was a Scio visitor last week, returned to her home last Saturday.

Mrs. Orpha Henningson, of Oregon City came up Tuesday evening for a visit with her mother Mrs. Houston.

Mrs. T. S. Coffey, who has been visiting relatives in Dallas for the past month, returned home Sunday.

Messrs Joe Wesley, Sam Landers and James Barnes left Scio Monday for a month's trip to Fish Lake and Belknap soda springs.

Mr. Brown, representing Clinton E. Warden, of San Francisco, was interviewing some of our business men Monday evening.

Lewis Dinginger and Miss Hesse Burkhardt, "wheeled" over from Albany Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. G. W. Phillips.

T. L. Dugger, of Albany, was in Scio Tuesday on his way up the Santiam. Tom has many friends in this section who are always glad to see him.

Albert Cole, who has been at Grass Valley for several weeks past, returned home Friday. He reports harvesting in full blast in that section.

Miss Pearl and Alta Hobson, of Stayton, passed through Scio Saturday on their way to visit friends near Albany. They returned home the first of the week.

Miss Rose Wisner, of South Dakota and Miss Anna Mespell, of Scio, scholarships in the Chicago industrial training school, are spending a few days in the city.—Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coffey, of Salem, who have been in Scio for a few weeks past, returned home Sunday.
While here Mr. Coffey was employed in his brothers' shop.

Miss Mae Myers, came up from Portland Wednesday evening for a visit with relatives here. She has been employed as nurse in the Portland hospital for a year past.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Taylor, of Albany, visited friends in this city over Sunday. Mr. Taylor has been engaged for some time past in raising the Magnolia mill in Albany, and is this week at Shedd's, moving a large barn.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Carl arrived Wednesday from Brownsville, and will remain, with us about ten days.
The doctor is a first class workman in his line, and he has relieved a good many heads of their trouble, some molars since his arrival.

Jacob Houser formerly a student of the Mineral Spring college, at Sodaville, was in Scio Monday on his way to Sodaville where he again enters the college and like the classical course the coming year. He was a graduate of the normal department in '97.

Last week we should have mentioned the return of Miss Ella Cary, who has been visiting in the East for the past two months. Miss Cary visited several states while away, and spent several days visiting the Omaha exposition. She returned home on Monday of last week.

J. N. Morris, returned from Portland Wednesday, coming by way of Albany. He brought home a new "White" bicycle, and as Joe is always up-to-date in everything he will no doubt make use of it driving hogs. We should like to see a good sized "wind splitter" setting a two minute pace for Joe down the lane toward West Sts.

Backache cured and no loss by using Dawson's family herb tea.

Terrible Accident

Loren Edwards, a young man about 20 years of age, was the victim of a terrible accident Monday morning near Junction City.

He has been working as engineer with his father's threshing outfit, Monday morning while working about the engine cleaning some parts of it, a piece of buck which he was using caught in the piston rod and drew his fingers in. Quick as a flash the two inner fingers on his right hand were pulled out at the knuckles, and the ligaments were pulled out from the elbow, and were nearly a foot long.

Although a terrible accident, the wounds were dressed by Dr. Lee and the young man went back to work after his work. It will no doubt be a painful wound for some time, and will leave him with a badly crippled hand.—Engene Register.

Calavan Bros., loaded today at Marron, 300 head of one, two and three year old steers, which were shipped to the Eastern markets.
These gentlemen are handling a good many head of cattle these days, this being the second shipment this month.

Child, who will open the fall term about the middle of September.

August 12, 1898, will have a double significance in American history.
It was the day that the peace protocol was signed and also the day the American flag went up over Hawaii.

It is rumored that Scio will have a grocery store in the near future.
This together with a new furniture store, will add not a little to the business interests of our thriving little city.

Rev. L. R. Bond, of Woodburn, will hold services at Mt. Pleasant school house at 11 a. m. and at the M. E. church in Scio at 7:30 p. m., Sunday, August 28th. All are cordially invited.

The commercial hotel in Medford, Jackson county, was burned Saturday evening, causing a loss of $52,000, with only $10,000 insurance. The building had but recently been refitted and newly furnished.

The Marquis of Huntly of England, should move to the United States.
He has run through a fortune through dissipation and has gone into bankruptcy with $5,000 assets and $700,000 liabilities.

Cascade Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will hold its regular meeting Monday evening, August 23. Those who have not been initiated and received their policies should be sure and attend.

Herbert Applegate, one of the Oregon recruits for Co "B," who has been a San Francisco for several weeks, died at the Presidio hospital last Thursday. He enlisted at Ashland, where his parents reside.

The steam engine which they are using to pull freight wagons between The Dalles and Silver Lake reached Eight-Mile Sunday evening having been four days making eight miles of the 290 while it has to go.

Messrs S. M. Daniel and R. E.
Hibler are this week changing store rooms. Mr Hibler has had adjustable shelving put in the building he is to occupy, and the work of replacing the goods is going on at a rapid rate.

Mrs. Jane Savage died in Salem November 20, 1876, but the petition for appointing an administrator was not filed until Friday. She left $1000 worth of property in Marion county. J. F. Savage, of Brownsville, is one of the heirs.

Peter H. Hatch of Salem has been stricken with paralysis. Mr. Hatch is a pioneer of 1842 and is now 88 years of age. He came here on a whaling expedition. Mr. Hatch was one of the jurors in the famous Whitman massacre trial.

For just a few minutes last Saturday night drops of rain about the size of a goose egg fell with uncon-mon swiftness in these parts. The shower only lasted a short time, and did no material damage and greatly purified the atmosphere.

The Oregonian gives prominence to the fact that Lee Fones of Salem, was the first American soldier to die at Cavite, he being in the 2d Oregon Volunteers, by publishing his picture. It makes a readable item and will go into history.

Harry Houghton, 29 years of age, was found dead in his bed in the Churchill house in Oakland at 11 o'clock Monday morning. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart trouble. His mother and other relatives live in Chicago.

The steam wood saw which is ably operated by Messrs Morris, Myer and Butcher, has been quite busy this week. It is a pretty good idea to the shed before the fall rains, and many are just now doing that very thing.

Landlord Morrow of the Hotel Scio, has been hauling lumber this week from Mankers, and now has carpenters engaged making improvements about the hotel. Aside from some needed improvements about the house he will erect a smoke house.

Considerable wheat has been received at the mill in this city, and that taken in is of a superior quality.
Not much, if any, is changing hands owing to the dullness in the market and the low price. Oats are also coming in and are commanding a fairly good price.

Messrs Fred Smith and Ed Daily, are this week engaged in painting the new farm residence of Mr. "Chas" Richardson near Jordan. These gentlemen have been doing quite a bit of work in this city during the past few weeks, all of which is fully up to the standard of first class artists.

News has reached Mrs. G. F.
Harold of Kingston of an accident to her husband who is away with his threshing outfit near Dayton, Wash.
Mr. Harold fell from a loaded wagon and was caught under a wheel inflicting injuries to his leg and ankle that requires careful nursing.—Stayton Mail.

The war tax is liable to effect some of the hop tickets, which were used last year, and may cause some growers to have new tickets printed. If your hop ticket reads "Good for 100" it is an order for money and needs a 2 stamp, but if it simply reads "Good for one box of hops" and no price stated, it does not need a stamp.

The C. & E. railroad has just put into effect a summer excursion rate from points East of Albany to Yaquina and return, good for 15 days from date of sale, for $3.50. This rate will be in effect until September 30, and those who desire to visit the bay from this section for a weeks outing can do so for the small sum of $3.50.

Hop raisers are rustling for pickers and have a hard time to find them. It is probable they will have to pay as high as 50 cts per box.
The hop yards in this vicinity are said to be free from insect, and are a good yield. The contractors are offering 9 and 10 cts per lb, but few of our growers have sold.—Jefferson Review.

There is music going down Riley Shelton's way. While at Corvallis a couple of weeks ago he purchased a piano and has the same properly installed in his home. Riley says he is practicing now for the purpose of giving Vird Johnson a serenade.
He says the time for practice is short but thinks he will be able to surprise him interested for a time at least.

Linn and Marion counties are figuring on building a bridge across the Santiam at Mill City. W. H.
Odell, of Salem, has been appointed by the Marion county court and Frank Miller, of Albany, by the Linn county court as surveyors of the viewers—they to name a third man, and upon their report will depend the advisability of building the bridge.

The rates of admission to the Oregon Industrial Exposition are going to be kept within reach of all. Considering the vast amount of amusement and instruction afforded, the price is very low, being only 25 cents for single admission, and 50 cts for coupon tickets, good for 5 admissions; $1.50 for coupon tickets good for 15 admissions; children under 12 years of age 10 cents.

Mr. Fred Dawson, the druggist, who has been having lots of fun at his outfit at Cascade Springs, was delayed two days in coming home in hunting up his wheel and getting it together. They do say the most fun he had was in goose hunting—with rocks for weapons—in which he captured several "wild" geese, exulting by bringing them into camp. It was subsequently found that a widow woman's flock was short just the number he killed.—Herald.

It is a notable fact that many good items are lost to this paper each week by the modesty of people, who hesitate to tell us matters concerning themselves. The right way to do is to stop the newspaper man on the street or at any other place you meet him—in the day time—and tell him you have been away or have friends or relatives visiting you, or anything you may know that would make a good item. If you have done anything man keep that to yourself, for there are others who make it their business to do that.

S. L. Shore went to Portland Monday evening, via Albany, in honor of Miss Maud Rundlett, of Salem.
There were three tables, and a score of sixteen games was played. A.
M. Young and H. L. Sumner were the champions of the evening, and A. J. Johnson and Miss Alice Titus finished with the lowest score.
During the evening several selections of very excellent music were rendered by C. N. Young on a manna-lin, accompanied by A. M. Young and H. L. Sumner with guitars. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those who composed the party were, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. Phelps, Miss Maud Rundlett, Mona Daniel Alice Titus, Nettie Hull, Mamie and Aida Young and Messrs C. V. Johnson, H.
L. Sumner, Geo. W. Phillips, C. N.
Young and Clarence Young.

day, for Melburn where they intend to take up claims.

A fire was discovered in A. F.
Gooch's saw-mill Sunday, but luckily extinguished before any serious damage was done. How the fire started has not been ascertained.

It seems as if our friends was not quite satisfied with our items last week, he did not approve of our style, and has ventured to give us a lift. The following is a "sample" item of his production: The S. P.
Co. unloaded a cripple lady at Shel-burn Monday with a wooden leg and lots of freight.
