The Sign, published by the school for deaf mutes, is again being printed. It is published during the school year, and is a welcome visitor to our table.

The worst job done by the legislature was the payment of the members of the legislative hold-up of two years ago. Such action can only tend to promote lawlessness.—Roseburg Review.

The general appropriation bill will be perused "with interest," if its items and totals do not make taxpayers sick from hope of the deferred, it will be because they have become "immune" through repeated attacks of this kind upon their substance in the name of services rendered.—Oregonian.

Sugar beets grown near Ashland, Jackson county, during the last season on analysis shown 18.05 per cent of sugar. The yield has been about 23 tons to the acre. This is a fine showing. The La Grande factory has already begun the shipment of sugar. The indications are that Oregon will become in the near future a great producer.

The Methodist organization has gained 1,000,000 members during the past fourteen years; the church has built 6500 new houses of worship; the property accumulation for that time is placed at $48,000,000, and a gain of 865,000 scholars has been made in the Sunday schools. It is estimated that their church and school property is worth $100,000,000.

Reference has been made for a good many years to the Oregon moss ticks, on account of the alleged sleepy character of the people, a fact not justified by observation. Be that as it may, this week we unloaded twenty one bales of our moss on California, who will now have to share with us the title. We have some more in our foot hills for nurserymen wanting the finest thing in the world for shipping fruit trees.

Possibly there may be a hitch and a big one in the peace negotiations now slowly progressing in Paris. It would not be Spanish-like to settle differences without more or less demonstrations of bluff. Their case is a hopeless one, and they, the commissioners, may be able to see it, if so, they realize that there is nothing to be lost by quibbling, while there may be something gained by such a course. After a reasonable discussion on all points not otherwise agreed upon, the American commissioners would do well and right to lay down final propositions for settlement and close discussion. This is the only way the work of the commission will end.

The Salem Sentinel, a republican paper prints a list of the clerks employed at the late session of the legislature, together with the amount each received per day. The total is $206 per day for clerk hire. Regarding the useless expenders of the people's money The Sentinel says:

Tax payers may well draw a sigh of relief that the special session is over—for it has been grossly extravagant in its expenditures. And the people may sigh again, but the second time it will be a sigh of pain. In January the spendthrifts are to convene for forty days in regular session. Their reckless waste of money during the twenty days is a rebuke to the party whose members are in the majority.

The clerkship abuse is called to the attention of the struggling farmer who has marketed his wheat at the per bushel.

No bills whatever were referred to any one of eighteen committees, most of which employed clerks.

McCourt, as chairman on internal improvements, to which no bill was referred, had one clerk. Lewis had two on secretary of state office, and McCulloch four on enrolled bills.

One bill each was referred to eight committees, each having from one to three clerks. Twobills each went to four committees loaded down with clerks. Two committees considered four bills each, while one had five.

Mary Andersons Little Boy

Mary Anderson, who is now Mrs. de Navarro, and lives in England, has allowed herself her new English home and her two-year-old baby to be photographed for the first time for publication. Some twenty pictures have been made, and the best of these will appear in an early issue of The Ladies Home Journal. The baby's pictures, of course, the central one of interest.

OF GENERAL INTEREST

Fifty-five war-ships for the United States government are under contract, and twenty are nearing completion.

These Spanish vessels have adopted the American flag under which to sail in trafficking among the Philippine islands.

The Spanish government is employing twenty-one vessels in transporting troops from Cuba and Puerto Rico to Spain.

The Catholic people of Salem are talking of erecting a monument to Rev. J. S. White, their former pastor, who died in July.

Two San Francisco bankers have sailed for Honolulu, there to establish the First National Bank of Hawaii, with a capital of $1,000,000.

The Korean Minister of Justice has been dismissed for permitting the savage mutilation of the bodies of executed men and women.

The War Department has discovered a system of frauds where by enlisted soldiers are weakly discharged by means of forged appeals.

The debt of Douglas county, as shown by the report of the officials, is $104,300.84. One year ago it was $126,104.44, a reduction of $21,793.60.

One of the apple orchards of South Oregon has this season paid $100 an acre clear, and this is only the second year of bearing of the trees.

It is estimated in Madrid that the campaigns in Cuba and the Philippines have cost Spain a total of $1,000,000,000 pesetas, or about $600,000,000.

A mountain peak has been found in Alaska which is declared to be 29,000 feet high, the highest elevation in the world. It has been named "Bullshat."

Mrs. George, alleged murderer of George B. Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley, at Canton, O., was held by the grand jury on a charge of murder in the first degree, without bail.

Gold and silver ore worth about $100,000 has been found in a cave near Leadville Colo., where it was secreted by thieves, who perished a little at a time, from mines in the vicinity.

Judge E. D. Stratford, editor of the Plaindealer has been appointed a commissioner to go to Alaska to assist in adjusting the old Russian land claims. He will leave soon to assume his duties.

A Salem paper says the new 6 per cent rate will not apply to loans made by the school land commissioners. That a special law in existence fixes the rate at 5 per cent, and that it will obtain in this case.

The incapacity and really dangerous character of a legislature is disclosed when such elicits as Wright for $30,000, Mullens for $10,000, attorney fee, and Hall's for $6000 attorney fee can be lobbied through.—Capitol Journal.

The government has decided to carry Christmas presents to the troops in Manila free of cost, and the amount is limited to 1000 tons. All packages must be delivered in San Francisco early in November and should be addressed in care of the quartermaster general.

Linn county ranked third in the value of net assessments of the thirty counties of the state, in 1895, and taking the presidential vote of each county in Oregon in 1896, and dividing the net amount of assessment of 1895 by that vote, Linn county has sixth place, with 4,831 voters and $1,585 to each voter.

A county in Illinois comes proudly to the front with a grandmother 25 years of age. She was married when only eleven years old; her daughter married when she was twelve and is a mother. A guard will be stationed around the cradle of the infant grandchild to prevent her eloping as it is rumored that several enterprising yearlings are already mated on her.

At the chemical laboratory at O. A. C. during the week Prof. Fulton has been making elaborate tests of the granite from the quarry in the Cascades, which is likely to be used in the construction of the new Meacham hall. The test embodied conditions equivalent respectively to extremely hot, extremely cold and very damp weather, and the results so far as they had proceeded Monday were highly satisfactory.—Corvallis Times.

Last Thursday evening Virgil Averill was knocked down and robbed of $20.50 at his home in Brownsville. He was alone at home and had just stepped out on the porch when he was confronted by a strange man who assaulted and robbed him. A blow on the back of the head rendered him unconscious, in which condition he remained until daylight. His family was waked and did not return until about an hour after the assault.

Diversified and intensified agriculture in the central Willamette valley are now "up to" the railroads, whose managers cannot provide enough cars to haul away the products without a serious blockade. They will no doubt look to the matter in the future. But they must remember that there is rapid growth in these lines. Thousands of new fruit trees are coming into bearing every year, and the amount of fruit on the young trees is annually increasing.—Dallas Observer.

In the S. F. Examiner of Sunday October 15, appeared a picture of the large sarcophagus monument erected at Silver Lake, Oregon, by relatives and friends, in the memory of those who lost their lives in the fire at Silver Lake, December 24, 1894. The picture gives plainly the name carved on two sides. A short history of the terrible holocaust accompanies the article. The monument weighs 10 tons and sits on a base of natives stone from the mountains of Lake county. The monument proper is constructed of Vermont marble and was hauled on wagons from Eugene to Silver Lake.

"A Swindler," is the name that appears over the office door of a struggling lawyer in the city of Stratford, Ont. A friend of the unfortunate suggested the advisability of his writing out his first name in full, thinking that Arthur Andrew Swindler, as the case might be, would sound better and look better than the significant "A. Swindler."

When the lawyer with tears in his eyes whispered to him that his name was Adam, the friend understood and was silent.

Nearly half of the world's coffee crop comes from the United States.

We consume almost twelve pounds per annum for every one of our population, and spend on an average nearly $60,000,000 a year for coffee.

Two thirds of the world's supply of coffee comes from Brazil, which places an export duty of 11 per cent on the fragrant berry. The finest coffee in the world is grown in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines, and under the status of an American enterprise these countries will, within a few years, be able to supply the world with coffee. What this means to the coffee consumer he can clearly understand.

A suit in attachment has been filed in department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court and as a result the entire stove foundry plant at the state prison is in charge of the sheriff. The attachment grows out of three actions brought by the state of Oregon against the Lowenberg Co. for the recovery of rent money convict hire, and to enforce the payment of the purchase price of the plant. The complaint shows that in 1892 the state sold to the defendant corporation the foundry plant for $25,000, on which only $500 was ever paid. This is the same plant that the state bought from Lowenberg for $20,000 that before it sold it sold it back to him for $25,000.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. Simons, more familiarly known as "Grandma" Simons, who lives three miles south of Lebanon celebrated her 104th birthday. She is probably the oldest person in the state. Some of her children say she is 107 years of age, but her son, D. Simons, with whom she lives, says he is quite sure that she is only 104, basing his statement on the fact that she told him when she was younger and her mind was clearer. She is in good health. She has not been sick for several years. She lies in bed all the time, and is lifted into bed to have her bed made up. She remembers all of her friends, and is always pleased to have them call on and converse with her.

Colliers Weekly.

A double-page picture and the frontispiece, with the Indian troubles as subjects and no less a person than Frederic Remonding as the artist, make a strong feature in the issue of Collier's Weekly for October 22. The first page is the strong and powerful likeness of the Bear Island Chippewa who was rescued by his tribe from the United States. "The Cause of the trouble?" The larger picture is entitled "The Fight on Bear Island," showing most graphically the scene where Pillager and his men are attacking Company E. Herd of 8. Infantry, River-ville, Major M. C. Wilkinson commanding. A small portrait of the latter, who was killed, also appears on the page.

"The Part Played by Women in China's Struggle for Liberty" is an interesting article, with appropriate illustrations, and two pages are given up to the great annual festivals of "The Veiled Prophet" and "The Mountain and Plain" at St. Louis and Denver. Edgar Saltus's Note Book contains the usual supply of paragraphs that sparkle and hold the reader's interest. Walter Camp has a good deal to say about football, some good pictures from the University of Pennsylvania Eleven, "The Woman's Golf Championship at Ardley Casino" is also a prominent feature. The funeral of the Austrian Empress, fiction, "Our Larger Navy," and the London letter help to make up this well-rounded number.

Mrs. Ballington Booths Experiences.

Mrs. Ballington Booth, of "The American Volunteers," is writing out her experiences in American prisons, and in the slums of New York, for The Ladies Home Journal. Mrs. Booth has perhaps come closer to the lives and confidences of the men and women in prisons, and to know the poor better than any woman living. She will not only tell what she has seen, but she will point out what her experience has shown her to be the most effective way in dealing with the people of the prisons and the slums.

Dr. Cole moved into his new dwelling on Saturday last. The Dr. has built a large and commodious home with good rooms, and everything about it shows that he has spared neither time or expense in fitting it up.—Grass Valley Journal.

CHESS

THE SANTIAM NEWS Chess column, will be devoted to games and end games, the chess editor believing that chess players on the Pacific coast, like chess players elsewhere, are interested in practical opening and brilliant end games, and most enjoy a lively game.

It shall be the purpose of this column, to give chess news, and addresses of players, and to encourage tournaments, as fast as we can. Biographical notices will appear. Any chess book in print can be obtained from the Chess Editor and at the lowest price.

We solicit exchanges with editors having chess columns.

All communications should be addressed to S. A. DeVANEY, Thomas Ore.

The preliminary round will consist of two games each with each player, the two winners then play a number of games for first honors.

One great leak has at last been stopped. One final opposition on the people has ceased to exist. The railway commission is no more. It received its death blow on Thursday last. Henceforth the gentlemen who have been fleecing a fat living from the public treasury must turn their attention some other way to make a living.—Oregon Independent
