The Dallas Observer has been enlarged to a six column sheet, and somewhat improved in appearance.

Linn county will soon have a court house which her tax payers can justly feel proud of. It will be a fine structure.

Rear Admiral Watson is a gallant old sea fighter, and it is likely he is, for in succeeding Dewey at Manila he will go up against what is just about the star vessel of the century.

Some of the neighboring towns are taking a cleaning up streak, and if Scio don't look out she will be at the tail end of the procession. Better get at it and make the old Berg shine.

Explaining his proposed retirement from business, Mr. Carnegie says that he believes in "developing a dignified old age after 60." Most anybody can be dignified—on a hundred millions.

So it is the Earl of Suffolk and Berkshire who is now to be furnished with a rich and lovely American bride. There seems to be no decrease of activity in this branch of our export trade.

All Scio needs now to make it the best town in the valley is better fire protection, cleaner streets and alleys and good roads leading into town. We can have all if we put our shoulder to the wheel and push.

Because a Californian, while traveling East, suddenly jumped from the moving train in Nebraska and started to run back, he is suspected of being insane. The mere fact of a sudden determination to dodge the cyclone belt should not necessarily brand a man as a lunatic.

About a week ago we heard a good deal of talk about a new fire company, but it seems like it was all talk and no work. It is absolutely necessary that Scio should be provided with better means for fighting fire. It is no use to wait until the town burns down and then talk about it, but get in and work the matter up right now.

Andrew Carnegie offered to give a quarter of a million to a British educational project, and straight away a London paper took him savagely to task as to how he made his money. Mr. Carnegie should not be discouraged, however. There are a lot of people who will take anything he may offer and not ask any embarrassing questions.

The editorial association of Portland is making arrangements to present the editors who will come to the meeting of the National Editorial Association in Portland, with the finest souvenir ever gotten out in the northwest, something that will speak for the state of Oregon in glowing terms, displaying the resources of the entire state, not merely Portland alone. It will also be sent to all the papers of the United States.

Living in the country is almost without cost, for with a little turning around a man makes the refuse worth as much as that which he eats. We enjoy the melon, and the rinds fatten the pig; we garner the wheat for bread and the straw used for winter bedding brings a fabulous interest; calves and sheep pick their way, we hardly know now; the cuts the pigs and chickens take the skim milk, for which we have no other possible use.

A traveling yeast man was fined $5 in Corvallis this week for distributing bills, a right enjoyed only by a man having a license.

Claud Branton Executed.

Claud Branton, who murdered John Linn in the foot hills of Lane county, about a year ago, one of the most brutal murderers reported was hanged at Eugene last Friday forenoon.

Branton retired the night before at 11 o'clock in good spirits, sleeping well and arising at his usual hour, but refusing to take breakfast.

Revs Hand-aker and Patterson called early and remained with him until his death. His mother and sister were permitted to see him for a moment at 10:30. At 10:45 he bade his fellow prisoners good bye and was taken by Sheriff Withers and his deputies to the gallows, where about sixty men were awaiting the execution. In response to the usual question if he had anything to say he said very little, bidding his friends good bye and advising all to lead a Christian life. Sheriff Withers touched the trap at 10:50 and the condemned man fell five feet and the neck breaking. He was taken down in fifteen minutes and his body turned over to his mother.

There were rumors of threats to kill the sheriff if he carried out the execution, but there was nothing serious in it.

Our consul general at Cape Town, Africa, states that the largest consignment of butter in one vessel (some 700 tons) which ever left Australia, recently sailed in the Australia for England. The India had also on board 450 tons, so that in one week Melbourne has earned the credit of sending out the largest shipment of fresh butter which ever left any port in the world. Including a small consignment from Cape Town, the shipment comprised 54,000 boxes of butter. The value of the butter and some 20,000 rabbits on board for England, was $675,443. The shipment of over 1,100 tons, or nearly 2,500,000 pounds, of fresh butter from a single port at one time indicates an enormous butter industry and one which evidently improved methods obtain.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Roseville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack, lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles. Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, lacerations and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Peery & Peery.

A well posted fruit grower who has been over parts of Linn and adjoining counties, says there will not be a bushel of prunes this year in the Willamette valley. This may be putting it too strong, but owners of prunes orchards who, up to a week ago, thought the crop would not be badly damaged, says that during the past few days it has developed that the fruit is not forming on the trees but is turning yellow and dropping off as a result of the unusual freezing weather of the late winter. Other fruit it is said is not badly damaged.—Herald.

The first hold-up on the Columbia Southern Ry. occurred on the line here last week, about two miles from town, the robber this time being a big red steer, that took his position right in the middle of the track. The whistle blew, the red steer held his ground until the train came to a dead stop, when he quietly snuffed of the engine and stepped off the track.—Mora Leader.

The Car is reported to have ordered all Jews to leave St. Petersburg. This seems rather a discredit to the Jews for Nicholas to make of his great powers, even though it may be rather wearing to run against his creditors every time he goes out for a walk.

A Chicago lad of 20 has just married a woman of 55. Many and many are the ladies of that age who are although charming—but the average man ought to be contented with one mother.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after given him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore South Burgettstown, Pa. For sale by Peery & Peery.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberlain's Colic Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.—P. E. Grisham, Gaars Mills, La. For sale by Peery & Peery.
