SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Linn County:

M. W. Miller, Plaintiff,
vs.
Ida M. Miller, Defendant.

To Ida M. Miller, the above-named defendant:

IN the Name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled Court now on file with the Clerk of said Court by the first day of the next regular term of this Court to be begun and held at the City of Albany, Linn County, Oregon, on the 29th day of June, 1899.

You are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in his complaint filed herein, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for the care, custody and control of the minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: John Riley Miller, Lola Pearl Miller, John F. M. Miller, and Grace L. Miller, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and proper.

This summons is published by order of the Honorable R. P. Boise, made on the 24 day of April, 1899, at the City of Albany, Linn County, Oregon.

WEATHERFORD & WYATT,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

There will be an excursion from Portland to Albany Sunday next, and it is said that about 3000 people will take a trip up the valley on this occasion. A rate of $1 for the round trip has been made and about 30 cars will be needed to carry the people. It will be a big day for Albany.

The coroner's jury declared that it was the neglect of the Southern Pacific that caused the wreck that resulted in the loss of the life of Engineer McCalley.

A Bad Wreck

The S. P. fast freight going south was wrecked in the Cow Creek canyon south of Roseburg last Saturday and Engineer McCalley was killed. There were two boys on a car of lumber and one of them was instantly killed. Engineer McCalley was one of the best engineers on the road, having been at the throttle on the Southern Pacific since 1884, beginning his railroad work as a bridge carpenter. He was about 38 years of age and unmarried. He was born and raised at Lebanon, Oregon, and leaves a father and mother, one brother, Engineer R. A. McCalley, of Portland, three sisters, two married residing in Los Angles, Calif-rnia, and the other the wife of Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon. He was chief engineer of Roseburg lodge No. 476, B. of L. E., and a member of Laurel lodge No. 13, A. F. & A. M., Roseburg, and Roseburg Lodge No. 325, B. P. O. E.

The remains were taken to Lebanon Sunday, by a special train, and were accompanied by the Superintendent Fields and other officials of the road, besides a large number of employees and members of Roseburg and Albany Elks and Masons the funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

Death of Mrs. Pitchford.

Mrs. D. T. Pitchford died at Comstock, Douglas county, Thursday, May 11, 1899, aged about 55 years. Mrs. Pitchford had been a resident of Linn county for the past fifteen years, and was one whom it was a pleasure to know. She raised a family of six children, all but two of whom are grown. Besides the children she leaves an aged husband to mourn her death. Mrs. Pitchford had been in ill health for several years, and was almost a constant sufferer. About two months ago she was taken to Comstock, where some of her children resides, in the hope of improving her health, but she did not improve, and death relieved her suffering last Thursday. The remains were brought to this city last Friday and the funeral services were held at Providence Sunday.

Decoration day at Providence Church.

To all parties who have friends and relatives buried at Providence church:

You are hereby cordially invited to be present on May 31, decoration day, to help dress up the cemetery and put the yard and graves in respectable order again. There were 22 buried there this last year, and the yard is getting about filled up, and some steps toward enlarging the yard must be taken; so all are cordially invited to be present to dress up the graves of loveved ones, and discuss what shall be done in the future for burial ground.

Yours Truly.
Mrs. BECCA LEE.
Providence, Ore., May 15, 1899.

Wait For Him

About June 20th C. C. Lee will have 100 head of draft and saddle horses which he will sell at public sale on four month's time, at his farm six and one-half miles southeast of Scio. Wait for him if you want good horses.

All prospects point to big time in Scio next Monday, that being the day set for the horserace. The track will be put in good shape and a good race is anticipated.

A lodge of the Bohemian Fraternal Association was organized in this city last week with 15 charter members Dr. A. G. Prill has been appointed medical examiner.

Joseph Johnston has joined the list of cyclists, of this place, and rides a Hartford wheel. Henry Myer also indulges in a little scorching these days, he having purchased a Columbia.

Marshal Young sold a horse Wednesday, which had been taken up several days ago. It was bid in by T. J. Munkers for $15, which was just about the cost of keeping and making the sale.

We notice by the Prineville paper that Dr. Hyde contemplates locating in that city. Dr. Hyde has many friends in this section who wish him every success, wherever he may cast his lot.

The L. E. Blain Clothing Co., of Albany, have an ad. in this issue of THE NEWS. If you anticipate purchasing clothing in Albany, don't fail to call on these people. They will treat you right.

S. I. Shore is just now having his hands full of unfortunate luck. Mrs. Shore has been quite dangerously ill for the past couple of weeks, and on Friday last Mr. Shore was taken down with erysipelas.

Mrs. Addie King left yesterday for her home in Grass Valley, after several weeks visit with relatives in this city. Byron Gill accompanied her to Grass Valley, where he will visit for a few weeks.

Mrs. S. I. Shore, who has been quite ill for the past couple of weeks is still in a critical condition, but the chances for her recovery are now a little better, which fact her many friends are pleased to note.

The Holmes & St Clair Minstrel company gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the city hall Wednesday night to a good house. The entertainment consisted of songs, dances and instrumental music.

In another colum will be found an advertisement of the Commercial hotel. Mr. Beard has gained the reputation of keeping a strictly first-class house, and the traveling public are respectfully invited to give this house a trial.

In mentioning the names of those who assisted in furnishing music for the Modern Woodman ball last week we unintentionally committed the name of Joseph Johnston. It was of those cases which often happens and for which no one is to blame.

Frank Nemchick and Miss Lula Turner were married at Albany Wednesday, May 17. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Turner, who live about three miles south of Scio. The happy couple have the best wishes of many friends.

The Roseburg and Coos Bay railroad is having a familiar experience going a few miles at a time, with annual rumors that it is to be pushed. Eventually it will reach Roseburg, and will be a good thing for the town, as railroads are whether big or little.

A letter received by T. J. Munkers from his daughter who is attending college at McMinnville, announced the illness of Miss Monia Daniel, who is also a student at the same school. Miss Monia's many friends in Scio will anxiously await news of her recovery.

L. L. Calavan this week sold to W. Wheeler, of Lebanon, 58 head of cattle. Included in the sale was a lease until October next, on the large pasture which Mr. Calavan has used for some time past. The cattle were a choice herd and brought a good figure.

New cases commenced in the circuit court this week are, May & Senders vs E. C. London, et al; Martha I. Schooling vs J. O. Drinkard; Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing Co. vs R. W. Nickols; Robert Andrews vs W. R. Garrett; Schuttle & Holtz vs Gibson Myers.

E. H. Kizer, a Brownsville farmer, has filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in the United States court, and desires to be released from his debts, which he is unable to pay. His liabilities amount to $1589.55 and his assets to $815, of which property to the value of $600 is claimed as exempt.

Spaudling & Co., the logging men have started a logging camp near Lyons and will cut hemlock logs for the Oregon City paper mills. They have heretofore used balm and white fir, but now will use hemlock also. They took a large donkey engine up the road recently and will use it in their camp.

The Sisters of Mercy at Cedar Mill have sued the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville to recover $1700 on a fire loss sustained last fall by reason of their school building having burned. The Sisters have repeatedly offered proof of loss but the company, so the complaint alleges, denies liability.—Oregonian.

T. S. Coffey, Scio's popular harness maker, is just now fitting up a set of team harness for Joseph Young which will be just about the finest outfit in the country. It is made from leather especially ordered for this particular harness, and will be all hand-made. When he gets it completed don't fail to see it.

Oregon's fame and Oregon's glory lie in her young men. The war record of this state is at the top. Oregon was the first to respond and her second regiment was the first to land on Manilla shore. The brave lads are still at it and winning glory day after day. All honor to our noble band and a tender memory for the dead and wounded.—Gervais Star.

J. W. Gaines and O. F. Sexton, who live at Larwood, have each made glad the hearts of their saddle horses by purchasing one of those handsome and durable saddles which T. S. Coffey is offering at astonishingly low prices. You can't afford to make your horses back sore with an old pack saddle when you can get a fine up-to-date saddle for so little money.

T. J. Claxton has been awarded the contract for building the new warehouse for Johnson & Phillips. The building will be about the same size as the old one, but will be built more substantial, and the foundation will be of stone instead of cement blocks. Work will be commenced as soon as the weather will permit, and it will be completed in time for use during the coming harvest.

We printed a quantity of posters this week for Messrs Wilson & Shelton, who are arranging to start out with a "Spanish American War" entertainment. These gentlemen have purchased a fine steriopticon and have in all about 100 fine views, which they will present in connection with a lecture explaining the victories and hardships of the Spanish-American War. They will aim to visit all outlaying sections and country school districts, and we wish for them all kinds of success.

Wm. Brenner has become an expert bicycle rider, and ha mastered the simple art in just about 15 minutes time Thinking that one was not strictly in the swim now days unless he could "ride a bike," he asked permission to try Pete McDonalds, famous wheel, "Kilrain," and after tearing up the gravel in the street in numerous places with his face and fording several deep mud holes he at last conquered the beast and now he is able to lead the machine to the hospital when he gets a tire punctured just like a regular bicycle rider.

The C. & E. train from the front was derailed near Lyons Monday evening, and three cars loaded with wood and ties left the track. The passenger coach also left the track and the passengers and mail were taken to Albany on a flat car. Conductor McErlane was pretty badly shaken up and Brakeman Fowler was compelled to jump from one of the wrecked cars. The occupants of the coach were somewhat shaken up but were very glad to escape so luckily, as an advance of six feet more would have plunged the passenger car into the ravine.

All sorts of rumors are current in regard to the Monroe colony. First we hear the $10,000 in cash paid down and then the same is cotradicted. A dispatch from Monroe stated that all negotiations were off, while a later report says the sale is still pending and will be made as soon as a little misunderstanding between the interested parties adjusted. From reliable parties we learn that the money has not been paid yet but the statement was made that it would be in a few days as an extention of the time had been granted. Mr. Wallace still has unbounded faith in the enterprise and says the deal is bound to go.—Junction City Times.

The Woodmen of the World of our state are showing their patriotism in no uncertain way. A movement is on foot among them to erect a monument to the brave Oregon boys who enlisted for the late war, many of whom are still in the service. The plan is to give a series of monster entertainments in Portland from May 30th to June 2nd, inclusive, the entire proceeds of which will be applied to this fund. Let all go; not only because the parades, music and other attractions will amply repay for going but each will thus be able to contribute something in behalf of the fund. Low rate special excursion trains will be run from all principal towns in the valley, and reduced rates will be given where special trains do not stop.

Teachers Passed

Only nine of the twenty four applicants for teachers certificates passed at the recent examination. The following certificates were issued: State—Mrs. W. J. Steel. J. E. Tyree and Mrs. Callie Bigbe.
