June Ladies' Home Journal.

The June Ladies' Home Journal reaches the top notch of excellence in both its pictorial and literary features. It opens with a large drawing of Longfellow's "Evangelist," and gives a group of pictures showing some "Fetes of College Girls." An interesting description is given of "The Circle Girl of New Orleans," and "Housekeeping on an Ocean Steamship" is graphically portrayed. "How a Young Man Can Work His Way Through College" has a practical value for every poor boy ambitious for higher education, and "Telling the Character from Handwriting" is interesting and entertaining. Bishop, priest, rabbi and minister contribute to a symposium on "What is the Good of Going to Church?" and the Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis, D. D., discusses "Pains that Polish Perfection."

G. B. Swinehart, formerly of Elgin, was one of the lucky ones in the Klondike the past season. In a private letter received last week, he states that he made $23,000 in cash on the Yukon last year, with prospects of making much more. Among other ventures, he is publishing the Midnight Sun, the pioneer newspaper of Dawson City.

Professor Nathorst expedition has finally sailed in search of Andree. It will now be order to begin preparing another to go in search of Nathorst.

Our apologies are due C. N. Young for a very annoying typographical error which appeared in a personal mention of him last week.

A loan New York woman master of a fake advertisement by sending 50 cents to learn how to get fat. They told her to buy it of the butcher.

The Oregon state grange met at Portland last week. There was a large number of delegates present and quite an interesting meeting was held.

J. B. Smith has been elected representative to the A. O. U. W. grand lodge, from the lodge in this city. A. G. Prill was elected alternate.

What an elephant has Tacoma on her hands Monday her city treasurer sent to New York city $74,000 to pay interest on light, water and bridge bonds.

The horse race between Bell and Pat Murray was run Saturday, but as it was not run according to the rules agreed upon the judges declared it no race.

There is no kick coming at the work done by the Salem Steam Laundry. You can send your laundry every Monday by taking it to the express office.

The building recently purchased by T. S. Coffey was this week moved over near the Goins building, and will be put in first-class shape for an up-to-date business shop.

H. S. Johnston & Co. have recently added several new machines to their sash and door factory, which better facilitate them for doing all kinds of work in their line.

S. I. Shore was laid up again the latter part of last week and part of this week with inflammatory rheumatism. He was quite ill for a few days, but is now much improved.

Pete McDonald had the lucky number and drew the rifle which the Salem newspaper men are deciding to give to the grand jury.

Such is the spirit in Salem that it was impossible to organize a press association to arrange for a reception to the national editorial association. Salem newspaper men are decidedly at odds.

George Smelser, of Grass Valley, was taken to the insane asylum at Salem last week. This is the third time that he has been committed to the institution. He once resided near this city.

The northbound S. P. train last Saturday killed three cows belonging to Mr. Gilkey, who lives southwest of Scio. They were fine animals, and Mr. Gilkey feels their loss quite keenly.

Mrs. Maggie Brandenburg and Frankie and Earl Phelps, all three members of THE NEWS' household, were laid up with the measles the first of the week, but are now about fully recovered.

A meeting of the hose company was held Tuesday evening, but no business was transacted, and the meeting was postponed until Monday next, that being the date for the regular monthly meeting.

The conductors excursion goes to Salem Sunday, June 11. It is expected 3000 people will visit Salem that day. Governor Geer has assured the committee that all public buildings will be open on that day.

Dewey will return to America and he will receive a royal welcome, and the Salem Steam Laundry will still continue to do first class work at moderate prices. Take your laundry to the express office every Monday.

Sampson the strong man we read about, was the first man to advertise. He took two columns to demonstrate his strength, when seven hundred people tumbled on to his scene and he brought the house down.

The citizens of Eugene have subscribed the $1000 asked as a bonus to get the excellent mill moved from Lebanon to Eugene. However, the mill will not be moved until the wood on hand is used up, which will take about eighteen months.—Lebanon E-A.

Mr. and Mrs. January, of Lane county, were married in the month of October several years ago, he deserted her in April of last year and in May of this year the wife has begun a suit for divorce which will be granted in June. The other months are to be heard from.

A recent dispatch from New York says: Oregon is soon to have a state automobile company, the same as those formed today in trenton for seventeen states. It will introduce and control horseless carriages, cabs and trucks in first-class, and very secure, consolidate and operate all street car lines.

While at Jordan last week J. W. Britain did quite a lot of work in the photo line, notwithstanding the inclement weather. His work is proving highly satisfactory, and it is his intention to return to Jordan in a short time. In the mean time he will be at his studio in this city. See new adv. in another column.

There was quite a crowd in town last Saturday to witness the horse race, and some of those who come remained a little too long. Their presence late in the evening was plainly noticed by the noise they made in some reckless horseback riding—which resulted in the destruction of a good bit of sidewalk on the south side. The presence of the marshal in that locality about that time might have enriched the city treasury a few bills.

Thirty-five men of Peoria, Ill., have formed a club, and each member is pledged to marry a widow. Fines, penalties and expulsions are provided for a violation of the rules. There is no age limit on the widow, and where a member marries a widow, with children he is given a portion of the fund accumulated through fines.

A. W. Hagey now has on hand about as complete a stock of bicycle sundries as one will find in a town of Scio's population. There are now over fifty wheels in this city, and they represent all sizes and makes, hence it requires quite an assortment of sundries in order to be prepared to do repairing on any of them.

The jury at Dallas last Saturday evening brought in a verdict of guilty against W. G. Magers, who was on trial for the second time for the murder of King Sirk. He will probably hang this time. He has been under sentence for several months, but the supreme court ordered a new trial, which, like the first, resulted in his conviction.

The state band tournament at Albany next Monday and Tuesday, promises to be one of the most popular events of the season. There will be 200 uniformed musicians in attendance. There will be two balloon ascensions, bicycle races and concerts. On Tuesday evening there will be a grand band concert and ball. All lovers of fine music should attend.

A fine lot of less than two nor more than fifty dollars is the penalty under the laws of Oregon to sell, barter, trade, give, or in any way furnish a minor tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, or any compounds in which tobacco forms a component part. A fine of not less than one nor more than ten dollars is imposed upon any minor found using tobacco in any of the above forms.

The following story comes from Jackson county, and is said to be from life: "A traveler came across a man in the hills who was engaged in digging a ditch. Upon being asked what he was doing the digger replied: 'I am digging an aggravating ditch to carry water to irrigate enough land to consume enough potatoes to produce the family through the winter.'"

In many Oregon towns old mose-covered buildings are being replaced by new and modern structures, and thus is Oregon emerging from the old rut of careless, easy going ways to keep up with the procession. Our natural resources, sure crops, and vigorous people are exciting much comment all over the world, and the tide of immigration pouring in is the natural result.

A Chicago man has invented a process for making india rubber out of sugar cane. The process is said to be superior to indian rubber. One result of this invention will be the cheapening of indian rubber about 25 per cent.

Dr. (9) H. C. Cooley, who was arrested and found guilty of practicing medicine without a license from the state, and who was sentenced by Judge Bailey to 25 days in the county jail, has served out his sentence and returned to Holley with the intention of again engaging in the practice of medicine. The next time Cooley appears before the court he will doubtless get a much longer term in jail.—Bassettville Times.

While Decoration day was not observed in this city by the regulation exercises many of our people observed the day and paid tribute to those departed relatives and friends by handsomely decorating their graves with beautiful flowers. Decoration day is one of the most meritorious of all the national holidays, and should be observed from ocean to ocean by all who cherish the memory of those brave men and women who have fought life's battle and gone to the far beyond.

Tuesday evening as Dora Mestel, a girl about 12 years old, who lives with her mother, near Thomas, was going to a neighbors who was accounted by a man who had been working in the neighborhood for a few days, and threatened to assault her. She succeeded in getting over the fence and escaping. Had she been captured he would have been severely dealt with.

J. L. Miller died in this city Tuesday morning at the advanced age of 96 years. For the past two years he had made his home at Scio hotel, and during the time it was necessary to keep a nurse with him constantly. He came to Scio in 1865, and has since made his home here. His wife died in 1877. He leaves three sons and one daughter, besides a sister, who lives in Douglas county, to mourn his death. The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday, the services being conducted by W. W. Richelson, and the remains were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery.

The man who collected $150 on a forged note, in Eugene a few days ago, has been arrested in Portland. He is now in the city penitentiary, as the proof against him is complete. The man has several aliases, Day Griffith Hammel. He was born in Folk county, and was a barkeeper in Portland at one time. He was traveling by bicycle through the valley. He admits having passed the note, but claims he did not forge the name; that he acted under the direction of an accomplice. He had $25 in cash, a gold watch and a bicycle, which he requested to be turned over to the bank, to partially reimburse the loss.

Wait For Him.

About June 20th C. C. Lee will have 100 head of draft and saddle horses which he will sell at public sale on four month's time, at his farm six and one-half miles south-east of Scio. Wait for him if you want good horses.

Notice

I have left all my accounts with the Bank of Scio for collecting and all those indebted to me will please call there and settle at once.

Dr. E. O. HYDE.

Scio Or., May 23, 1899.

Will Land at Portland.

Secretary Alger has received a cablegram from General Olla in response to his inquiry, announcing that a majority of the Oregon regiment of volunteers at Manila have decided to return by steamer directly to Portland. The Washington regiment decided to come first to San Francisco.

The fathers, mothers and friends of the volunteers will rejoice at the above news. For days they have, through the volunteer reception committee, insisted that the boys be sent direct to Portland. Saturday it was decided that the reception committee should appeal to President McKinley, fearing that the boys might, in the light of the cablegram sent them, vote to land at San Francisco.

This news will settle the matter. It also insures President McKinley's visit to Portland, as he has announced already that he desired to receive the Oregon volunteers in person when they landed.

We have read of a fellow in Illinois who swallowed a two-foot rule and died by inches; of a fellow in Klondike who swallowed a ther-mometer and died by degrees; of a fellow in Arkansas who swallowed a pistol and went off easy; of a fellow in Texas who swallowed an old "rag" and died laughing; of a fellow in Kansas who swallowed too much whiskey and died in good spirits; but a town in Eastern Oregon beats them all. An undertaker over there took a package of diamond dyes and died a coughin'.

A Washington dispatch says it is understood that the house republican caucus committee appointed to frame a scheme of currency reform has agreed upon a measure along the following lines. The redemption of all obligations of the government in gold on demand Greenbacks, when once redeemed for gold, to be retained only for gold. Permitting national banks to issue notes to the paper value of their government deposit in the treasury, instead of 90 per cent, as at present. Permitting the minimum capacity of national banks to be $25,000 instead of $50,000, as at present.

It is said that the Chinese propose to drive the Germans from Shan Tung. Unfortunately for the Celestials, proposing and doing are not exactly synonymous terms.
