

We sold lots of goods last year and we are going to sell more this year and at a lower price. Cotton goods were never cheaper in the United States than they are today. We have a large stock on hand. Note the following prices:

Medium Prints, 5c per yard
 Standard Prints, 4c " "
 Extra Prints, 3c " "
 (Over 2800 yards on sale)
 Fruit of Loom muslin, 5c
 Cabot W muslin, 4c
 Cabot A muslin, 3c
 L.L. muslin, 2c
 "Viegans," best flannel in the market, 3c

S. E. Young and Son
 ALBANY, OREGON

T. J. WILSON,
 Attorney at Law and Notary Public
 Seio, Oregon.

The "FAIR"
 ALBANY, ORE.
REMOVAL SALE!!
 In two weeks we will move to our permanent location two doors east of P.O. We are selling on the cut and slash order.
J. J. WEIWER

NO FRIEND TO THE RACE.

Some of the Colonel's Characteristic Considered objectionable.

I was riding out from Memphis to Col. Jackson's plantation when I met an old darky on the highway, who was hobnobbing along with painful effort. As I wasn't quite sure about my road I asked him if he knew the colored's place. "Kurnel Jackson's plantation?" he repeated. "Yes, sah, I know dat place right well. Yo' keep right on to de next corner an' then turn to de right an' go a mile."
 "Do you know the colored?" I asked. "Kurnel Jackson? Yes, sah. I know de kurnel like a book. He is de best friend of de colored man."
 "Hi! Who says dat?"
 "Why, I've heard quite a number of people say so."
 "Yo' has, eh? Jist said he was a great friend of de colored race, did dey? Well, sah, if Kurnel Jackson was a great friend of de colored I don't know it!"
 "Perhaps you never wanted anything of him?" I suggested.
 "White man!" exclaimed the old man as he lifted up his hands, "do yo' observe de lameness?"
 "Yes, you are very lame."
 "An' how did I get dis lameness?"
 "I don't know."
 "Let me tell yo', sah. Two weeks ago I went down to Kurnel Jackson's plantation to see my darter, who works for him. I started to cross home 'bout 11 o'clock at night, an' while I was walking I was suddenly cotched in a bar-trap. I was held in dat trap two hours, an' dat counts for my lameness. Dat's de sort of man de kurnel am—puttin' out bar-traps to cotch cull'd folks by de legs."
 "Was that bar-trap in front of de colored's meat-house?" I asked.
 "Yes, sah—right by de doah," replied the old man.
 "Then it was set to protect his meat against thieves, wasn't it?"
 "Yes, sah, reckon it was. But was I arter his bacon? No, sah! I was jist gwine to open de doah an' look in an' see how much meat de kurnel had on han' for de winter."
 "And you explained matters to the colored when he came out to let you out of the trap?"
 "I did, sah. Arter I'd holloed an' holloed an' was mos' dead de kurnel cum down an' sot me free, an' what hurt my feelin's de mos' was what he said to me. Arter I'd explained to him all 'bout it he hit me seven times wid his cane an' said dat if he ever cotched me tryin' to abduct his meat-house agin he'd distinguish me wid such impetuosity dat I'd neber see another wuld day. Dat de sort o' man Kurnel Jackson am, sah—dat's de sort of a fren' he am to de cull'd people 'round yere."—Detroit Free Press.

Pat's Years Burgeons.
 Burglars are the great terror of Mrs. Pat's life at Craigy-mock castle, and she has had all her window shutters fitted with electric bells, which start ringing at the slightest touch, while by the same machinery a gun is fired and a number of dogs are let loose in the grounds. Special watchmen are told off every night on "round" duty, it is added.—Cassell's Journal.

Devery'll return to America and he will receive a royal welcome, and the Salem Steam Laundry will still continue to do first class work at moderate prices. Take your laundry to the express office every Monday.

Last Sunday was very pleasantly spent by quite a number of our people out at Providence church. There was services there during the

FIRST IN SHAPE, FIRST IN FORM AND FIRST THE MAIDEN TO ADORN

GLOVE-FITTING CORSETS.

We are agents in Albany for the two best lines of Ladies' Corsets in the United States,
The Royal Worcester and Thompson Glove Fitting
 From 75c to $2.00

We carry a complete line of both corsets in black, white and drab. We also have an excellent corset at 45 and 50 cents. Full line of Summer Corsets at 25c to $1. All the above are delivered to your postoffice free on receipt of price.

W B. Stevens & Co. Masonic Block Albany, Oregon

OF LOCAL INTEREST

A. G. Prill, Physician and Surgeon Seio Oregon.

Workmen are engaged in tearing down the old barn back of the Seio hotel.

The morning and evening mail between Albany and Corvallis has been discontinued.

If you want the best meal for the money (25c) served in the valley, go to the Albany lunch counter.

Dr. L. J. Todd has moved his office into rooms in the Bilyeu building, over S. M. Daniel's store.

Road supervisor T. J. Munkers has a large force of men and teams at work on the road in his district.

V. B. Goin is improving the appearance of his residence by a new coat of paint. Fred Smith is the artist.

Emma Goldman, an avowed anarchist, was in Seio over Sunday, and gave two lectures at the city hall.

Cibulka's Bohemian brass band has been engaged to furnish music for the Fourth of July celebration at Seio.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butcher have the thanks of this shop for a fine basket of strawberries, the first of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Queener, who resides near Jordan are the proud parents of a bouncing boy baby, which was born to them on Sunday last.

R. B. Miller is building an addition to his residence on the south side. John Sims, the expert carpenter, is doing the saw and hammer act.

There is no kick coming at the work done by the Salem Steam Laundry. You can send your laundry every Monday by taking it to the express office.

Rev. Longbottom will conduct services at the Presbyterian church in this city Sunday, June 25, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Dr. S. C. Browne has been improving his recently purchased property opposite his present place of residence, and the coming fall will erect a dwelling thereon.

Dr. Browne is carrying one eye in a sling this week, as the result of a stick struck him in the right eye, causing quite a painful but not serious wound.

A petition is being circulated asking the city council to order the principle streets graded and gravelled. The move is an important one and should receive the hearty support of all our people.

About 200 Klondikers arrived in Seio Friday and brought out $400,000. A report from Skagway says the output of the Alaskan mines this year is estimated at fifteen to twenty million dollars.

The board of trustees of Mineral Springs college, at a meeting held last week, elected Rev. L. D. Beck president of the college. He has accepted the position and will immediately assume his duties.

The C. & E. morning train now arrives at Munkers about twenty-five minutes earlier, and thus the morning mail gets in about 9 o'clock. The change is a good one, and we trust that it will be permanent.

Prof. Hawley has resigned as president of Willamette university but will remain with the college. Hawley is a hot expansionist and wants a chance to stamp the state if that is an issue in the next campaign.

Devery'll return to America and he will receive a royal welcome, and the Salem Steam Laundry will still continue to do first class work at moderate prices. Take your laundry to the express office every Monday.

Last Sunday was very pleasantly spent by quite a number of our people out at Providence church. There was services there during the day, and several went out from here and took dinner under the shade of the big trees in that vicinity.

Johnson & Phillips are preparing to make numerous changes in the machinery in their mill, and some new machinery will be added, the most important of which will be a new boiling system, new cleaners and a machine for making rolled oats.

The Curtis Lumber Co., has made a proposition to the people of Albany to erect a sawmill at that place with a cutting capacity of 150,000 feet per day, provided that the people will donate about 85 acres of land near the S. P. depot for the use of the company.

Mrs. Harriet O. Phillips, whose illness was mentioned in these columns last week, died at the home of her son, H. Phillips, Thursday, June 16, aged 76 years and four months. The remains were laid to rest at the Providence cemetery Friday last.

When you notice a man digging in the garden very slowly, stopping often to rest and cursing a creature, it's safe to say his wife has got him to work, but if he is digging like a good fellow, never stopping to rest and whistling a popular air, he's after worms for bait.—Ex.

T. L. Duggar has brought suit against several of the residents of this section to collect money due him for subscription to his paper, and the suits were brought in the justice court at Albany, thus causing quite an expense to those who see fit to answer the complaint.

Nellie Bilyeu and Nellie Munkers, Messrs. D. E. Manis, H. L. Sumner and C. N. Young.

The state board of education has announced that papers have been awarded to Linn county teachers as follows: State certificates, Mrs. Minkie Munkers, of Seio, Mrs. Venus Kearn, of Lebanon, and Amasa W. Moses, now of Ellsworth, N. Dak.

State diplomas, Abbie Fry, of Lebanon, Wayne Starr, of Seioville, E. C. Standard now at Hoppner, and Mrs. Callie Higbee of Sweet Home; life diplomas, John G. Swan, Iida Kins, Carrie Patterson, Mand Beard, Anna M. Yantis, W. Parrish and M. Anselma Feirbach.

Some of our Stayton friends made a very serious mistake when they imported a horse to beat Pat Murphy. The horse they put up to beat it is a handsome horse, but she and her record were both well known to Pat's backers, and although she ran under the name of Belle Flynn, she was known and easily recognized as a horse of an entirely different name and one without a record. But she is a handsome animal, and if she could run a little bit she would be a valuable horse.

Pat Murphy is still champion of this neck of the woods, and is looking for new victims all the time.

Last Sunday a little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Compton, who live near Providence church, met with quite a serious accident. Mr. Compton had his family in a wagon and was driving a spirited horse, when in some manner the little boy, who is but four years of age, fell out of the wagon and one wheel ran over his head, almost severing one ear, and badly bruising his face. The ear was cut almost entirely off, and was only prevented from falling off by a small section of the lower part of the ear. The little fellow was brought to town and Dr. Prill put his ear back in place and thinks that he can save it. The boy showed great nerve while the surgeon was at work on him, and it is quite likely that he will soon recover, although he had a very close call, and just how he escaped death is hardly explainable.

Thomas McClain Munkers whose death occurred in this city, Thursday, June 10, 1899, was born in Clay county, Missouri, August 22, 1832.

He crossed the plains with his parents, five brothers and three sisters, in 1846, and settled on a farm near Seio. In 1848 he went to the mines in California, accompanying two brothers, Benj. and Marion, the latter dying the following year as they were ready to return home.

The trip home was an eventful one, and during it Mr. Munkers spent 33 days on the sea, 13 days of which he was on an allowance of one pint of water and two crackers in each twenty-four hours. In 1854 he again went to California, stopping at Yreka two years, and while there he took an active part in the war with the Indians, who had become quite troublesome in northern California and southern Oregon. In 1857 he moved to a farm near Seio, where he resided until seven years ago, when he moved to this city where he remained until his death.

He was married to Phoebe A. Crabtree on May 1, 1859, and together they lived in happiness until August 26, 1898, when death darkened the threshold of their home and claimed Mrs. Munkers as its victim. Again on January 12, 1879 he was married to Mary Christian, who still lives to mourn the death of a kind and loving husband.

In 1870 he represented Linn county in the house of representatives. Again, in 1876 he was elected to the senate, and in 1896 was a member of the legislature.

He united himself with the Christian church more than thirty years ago, and lived a constant christian life.

Besides a sorrowing wife he leaves six children—Mrs. Sarah Smallman, Mrs. Ida Keen, George W. S. P., Mrs. E. F. Munkers, who resides near this city, and James Munkers, of Seio, two sisters, Mrs. Jane McDonald, of this city, and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of Seio, nine grandchildren and a little niece whom he and Mrs. Munkers reared from childhood, and a host of friends to mourn the loss of a true friend and kind neighbor.

Last October he was taken ill, and since had been a constant though patient sufferer. Many times he would wish for health and to be well again, but said that if it could not be it was all right, and that he was fully prepared to go. He had the best of care and attention, and nothing was left undone which would do to comfort him.

Death, dark and lonely death, is in the world, and all that is born must die, and while in some instances it seems more pitiful than in others, still death comes to us all, and in this case it took from us an honored pioneer, one whose life had been spent in the work for betterment of mankind, and the state, county and vicinity has lost one of its best and most exemplary citizens, and the bereaved family has lost a true husband and kind father.

The public and private life of Mr. Munkers is worthy of the emulation of all young men, whose aspirations are—as theirs—after the best interests of some, country and society. Though he is dead he yet speaks in the life he lived and the many acts of kindness, which it gave him pleasure to perform.

Wool! Wool! Wool!
 We will pay the highest market price for wool, and it will be to the interest of growers, to see us, before disposing of their clip.

Wait For Him.
 About June 20th C. C. Lee will have 100 head of draft and saddle horses which he will sell at public sale on four month's time, at his farm six and one-half miles south-east of Seio. Wait for him if you want good horses.

The News and the Oregonian one year for $2.00.

Educate Your stomach With Cascara.
 Candy Cathartic, sure, consumption, forever.
 10c. H. C. C. Co., Oregonian building, Seio.

PURELY PERSONAL

A. J. Johnson was at Salem this week.

A. T. Powell was an Albany visitor on Monday.

Sheriff Munkers, of Albany, was in Seio Saturday last.

Wm. Brown, a Salem wool broker, was in Seio Wednesday.

Liveryman F. J. Irvine was up at Lyons the first of the week.

Wm. Brenner and A. L. Richardson were at Salem Saturday last.

J. H. Goin, of Albany, was over this way Tuesday, having rode over on a wheel.

Thos. Allison and Albert Cole were at Albany Saturday last, on a short business trip.

John Estes and his sister, Miss Alice Estes, were up from Salem Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. James Munkers, of Salem, were visiting relatives in this city Sunday.

Rev. Longbottom, of Albany, was in Seio the first of the week, visiting with friends.

J. P. Burton, of Salem, was visiting in Seio Wednesday, the guest of H. S. Johnston.

R. E. Hibler and J. N. Morris drove down to Salem Saturday last to take in the horse race.

M. S. Peery, of Dayton, Yamhill county, was in Seio the first of the week, visiting with relatives.

Ira Abbott who has been attending the State Normal, at Monmouth, came home the first of the week.

Mrs. Pugh, of Salem, was in Seio the latter part of last week, visiting old-time friends and acquaintances.

Miss Alice McNameer, of Forest Grove, is in Seio this week, visiting with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Munkers.

Fred Smith is in Seio this week, the Hogart mill, which he was engaged, having closed down for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Probst, of near Albany, were visiting in Seio Wednesday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Hellingner of Waterloo, were Salem visitors on Saturday last week.

Miss Hattie Rundlett, of Salem came up Wednesday, and will visit a couple of weeks with her sister, Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Haggy "swissed" to Corvallis Monday, and visited a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Dille.

Miss Zalaria Patty, of McMinnville, was in Seio last week, visiting with Miss Winnie and Sylvia Munkers and Mona Daniel.

M. C. Gill drove to Monmouth Wednesday, to bring home Miss Grace Gill, who has been attending school there the past winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Daniels and their son, Chester, were up from Seio Sunday, visiting with Mrs. D's brothers, A. J. and C. V. Johnson.

Mrs. S. A. Jerow, Mrs. E. C. Chapman and Miss Kate Horgan, of Salem, visited in Seio Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

Miss Lillie Tarpley, of Salem, came up Wednesday on her bicycle, and will visit at the home of her cousin, Geo. W. Phillips, for a few days.

Miss Winnie Munkers, of this city and Miss Alice McNameer, of Forest Grove, drove to Salem Wednesday for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gill spent Sunday on the cool banks of Crabtree creek, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Allison.

Geo. Davie, the foot-racer, of Stayton, was in Seio Tuesday. A race between him and young Pritchford has been made, and will be run in a week or so.

Messrs. F. J. Irvine and L. L. Calvan, Seio's popular livermen, drove down to Salem Saturday last, and purchased a fine new hack, for their lively business.

S. G. Rundlett, accompanied by his sister, Miss Lillie Rundlett, of Salem, was in Seio last week attending the picnic and visiting with their sister, Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

Miss Dora Myers, who has been attending the Drain Normal school during the past winter, returned home Saturday last. She was accompanied by little Fay Myers, who had been out there on a visit.

Walter Bilyeu has been employed by T. W. Dille, of Corvallis, and will move to that city in a short time. Seio people regret the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Bilyeu, but hope they may prosper in their new home.

M. S. Cary left Monday for Lewiston, Idaho, where he has been employed as a trackman on a new railroad, building in that section. His many friends in this city wish him success unbounded in his new field of labor.

H. B. Landon, of the firm of Hanson & Landon, was in Seio Monday on his way to the firm's sawmill, ten miles east of Seio. He had been superintending the building of a platform at West Seio for loading lumber on cars for shipment.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Moore, who now reside in Sherman county near Wasco postoffice, are visiting in this vicinity this week. Mr. Moore was one of the early settlers of this county, he having come here in 1818, and he and his wife made the first rails ever split in this neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Moore have many old-time friends in this section and are enjoying a visit with them this week.

Mr. P. Ketcham of Pike City, Cal. says: "During my long and late sickness I suffered with rheumatism, Chamberlain's Pain Balm was the only remedy that gave me any relief." Many others have testified to the prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords. For sale by Peery & Peery.

The working classes form 69 per cent, the middle class 28 per cent and the upper class 3 per cent of the population of this country.

Ladies' Shirt Waists

The proper Style and Big Variety.....

Much Cheaper than the cities offer them.....

Now, every piece of this Jewelry is Positively Guaranteed, and therefore must give satisfaction. That is the way I bought it and that is the way I sell it—satisfaction guaranteed or your Money Back.....

ROSS E. HIBLER

WE

Will make a Slight Reduction on ALL Hats until after the Glorious Fourth...

COLE & WYLIE

NEW GOODS!

New.....

Shirt Waists

Latest Styles and Lowest Prices

NEW SHOES

Nice, Nobby and Neat..... At Prices that Can't be Beat!!

New Dress Goods

In half wool Henriette, yard wide, at 25 cents....

Prices on all our goods are lower than you can get anywhere else, and you can save money if you trade with us.....

S. M. DANIEL