BY THE EDITOR

This issue of THE NEWS completes one year of our management of the paper.

For the past twelve months we have labored hard to give the people of Scio and vicinity a good local paper; how well we have succeeded we will leave for others to say.

During our control of the paper the subscription list has more than doubled, while the advertising patronage has been very good.

There are several firms in Scio who are not represented in our columns, still they expect us to trade with them, and we do so, too, but if asked to assist us with a small ad they remark that there is nothing in advertising that every body knows them; still at the same time readers of this paper purchase numerous articles in adjoining towns simply because they do not know, through lack of advertising, that they can be had in Scio.

But still there are others who have patronized our columns liberally, and they would not have done so had not the investment been a paying one.

We have no kink, however, at the patronage we have received, and having thoroughly established ourself in Scio and shown for one year what kind of a paper we were capable of publishing we earnestly ask every citizen of Scio to lend us their aid; if you are not taking THE NEWS do so, it will not cost you very much and if all do what they can to help us we will be better prepared to help each and every one.

We want to tender our thanks to those who have assisted us during the past year and solicit a continuance of your patronage in the future.

Figures from sixty-two important American cities received the day following the Fourth of July show that the celebration on the nation's birthday resulted in the accidental killing of three persons and the wounding of 1974 more. It cost us less last year by two dead and hundreds of wounded to sweep Spain's two great fleets from the face of the ocean—but a country as great as ours is liable to take chances, even in its glory.

All in all, there was some glory in the great victories last year, glory which placed our navy and our men first among the brave of the world, and showed to the world the benefits of a free and enlightened country, governed by a free people. It showed the advancement which it was possible for a civilized people to make, and although we are not nor never were an aggressive nation still when called upon to release the oppressed we were found ready and willing and fully prepared to cope with any emergency.

For the benefit of the Brownville Times we will just say that while Scio is not a prohibition town its financial condition will size up with any in the county, or even the state. It owns and operates its own light and water system; it has as good a school building as can be found in Linn county, not even barring those at Albany, although they are much larger. Its taxes are not very high, and we live in peace and quiet. We transact more business than any town in Linn county with equal or even larger population. The Times' statement that our remarks were intended as a slur upon the people of Brownville is false, and no man with the intelligence necessary to successfully conduct a newspaper would intimate as much, unless he had just visited one of those "gallon joints" of which the Timesman speaks.

It is almost impossible to estimate the benefits to be derived from the visit of the National Press association to this state during the present month. There are representatives of nearly 500 country papers and magazines in this state at the present time, and each of these representatives talk, through the columns of their papers, to half a million people each week, and they are just the kind of people, too, who are desirous of knowing something of this state and its resources, its climate and its possibilities. There is no better way obtainable to advertise this state at a less cost than to give these editors a hearty welcome and send them home full of praise for our beautiful state.

The twenty-third annual report of the department of public works of the city of Chicago just published shows that the average cost of maintaining a 2000 candle electric light all night every night in the year was, for the year 1898, $68.52, against $56.65 in 1897, which was the lowest previous cost. Formerly the city paid $137.50 a year for rented lights. Chicago now has the largest municipal electric lighting plant in the world. Yet gas is still used very largely.

It is a fact—although it may seem strange—that one of the visiting editors purchased a piano in Portland last week and had it shipped to his home in Minnesota. This same piano, said he, would cost him double the Portland price in Minnesota. It was a new instrument and was purchased at a factory in the far east.

The Corner Stone Laid.

The corner stone of the new court house was laid Friday last at 5 o'clock by the Grand Lodge of Masons of Oregon with imposing ceremonies.

Grand Master J. M. Hodson, of Portland; Grand Junior warden S. M. York of Eugene; grand secretary J. F. Robinson, of Eugene; grand senior steward, E. E. Hammack, of Tillamook; and grand Tyler, Gustaf Wilson, of Portland, were present.

The corner stone was laid in due and ancient form, and a box containing the following was placed in a receptacle in the stone:

List of County Officers.
Albany Herald.
Albany Democrat.

People's Press.
Lebanon Criticism.
Lebanon Express-Advance.
SANTIAM NEWS.

Business cards from various banks and business houses of Albany, Oregon.

Coins of various dates
Brownsville Times.

Copy of Frank Leslie's Pictorial, illustrating the assassination of Lincoln, and funeral, taken from the old court house after being there thirty-five years.

Also States Rights Democrat of August 21, 1865.

Morning Oregonian, August 7, 1865.

List of the county officers of Linn county, August 21, 1865.

List of the members of the first city council of Albany, 1865.

Photo of court house as built in 1864.

List of present officers of the city of Albany, Oregon.

A brief eloquent address was delivered by S. M. Moran, and a short happy speech was delivered by County Judge George D. Barton.

It was a beautiful ceremony and was witnessed by a large concourse of people.

The court house foundation is now ready for the walls, and the work on the building will go rapidly forward. It will be a structure that will be a credit to Linn county.

A Model Depot.

The Southern Pacific has a force of mechanics at work on the interior of the depot and they are rapidly transforming it so that the oldest inhabitant will be unable in a few days to tell where he is at.

The room formerly occupied by the bar will be used for a ladies waiting room and the ticket office will be extended across the building, making it the most convenient between Portland and Sacramento. The room formerly used as the ladies waiting room will be enlarged and will be for gentlemen travelers. The bar will run until September 1st in the small room on the south side of the depot and then will probably be discontinued. The entire interior will be refinished in attractive colors and will present a very pleasing appearance to the new arrival.—Albany Herald.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Barrance, Providence, R. I. He says: "For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effect were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Peery & Peery.

The Oregonian Monday published a list of the Oregonians who are seeking gold in the Klondike country, and says that George Sheriff, of Scio, and Nels Thompson, of Lebanon, have made some recent discoveries up the Stewart river. It does not mention Wm. Savage, of this city, who is working a bench claim near Dawson. C. W. Watts of Albany this week, returned from Dawson city, but will go back to the frozen north in a couple of weeks.

BY THE SCISSORS

Two regiments of volunteers under the new enlistment will be taken from the Pacific coast.

A death from the touch of the "kissing bug" is reported from Philadelphia. Another kind of kissing once in a while causes death—when done by the wrong people.

Iowa is the only state in the Union that has a daily newspaper at a larger rate than the Des Moines News. It is a member of the Associated Press and prints all the news boiled down.

The chances at birth that a baby will eventually marry are also in twenty, or rather less than one half. This result may be accounted for by the great mortality of persons under marriageable age, especially of infants up to the age of five.

One of the latest things in combination of capital is the pie trust. It was incorporated in New Jersey a couple of weeks ago, with a capital of $1,000,000. It is reported that this trust with the voracity of its kind, didn't go for the whole bakery.

Colonel W. G. T'Vault was the editor of the first paper published on the Pacific coast, the Spectator, of Oregon City, first issued February 5, 1846. Portland was outgrown at that time, Col. T'Vault having moved from Vancouver to Oregon City.

Merchants who sell sawmill machinery in Portland say that the demand for such goods is unusually large this season. Many users from the East are coming into the forests of the Northwest and making investments and many of these are putting up mills.

The Salem Journal accuses the editor of the Independent of having misused an appropriate and accurate He delivered the 4th of July oration at the asylum. The average Salem editor is not happy unless he is having some fun with his fellow editors.

F. L. Chambers of Eugene offered a price for newspaper clippings with his advertisement. He runs a large number of small local papers there a good many. Lella Jennings won the most with 56,715 clippings. The prize was a Crescent.

The city of Oakland, Cal., has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties setting fire to the ware house and store of Joy & Neff on the morning of July 5, and the board of directors has added $500. It is to be hoped that the guilty man is found.

S. A. Nickerson received a stroke of paralysis on July 31, affecting his left side, since which time he has been confined to his bed. This is the second stroke he has received.

Mr. Nickerson is one of our oldest and best citizens, and his many friends are pained to hear of his condition.—Express-Advance.

The barn of M. A. Fitzgerald, on Hamilton creek, burned down on the night of the 3d, about midnight. Six tons of hay, three sets of harness and a coll were destroyed with it. It was a fine barn, with two floors and a basement and was insured for $400. The origin of the fire is unknown.—Express-Advance.

A verdict against Lipman, Wolf & Co., of Portland, for $2,700 was returned by a jury Saturday for false arrest and imprisonment of Amelias Jester, a clerk, whom they had charged with stealing. Most of the jury were in favor of the full amount asked, $10,000, but one man held out and the verdict was a compromise.

A scientist of some standing asserts that chemically pure water is poison to the human stomach. He upsets some hitherto accepted theories regarding distilled water by the argument that in distillation the water loses sultry salts which it greedily abstracts from the animal tissues when it is swallowed, thus constituting a protoplasmic poison.

The report of the director of the mint for the calendar year of 1898 shows that the amount of gold mined was 3,118,998 ounces, breaking all records, while during the same period the silver production amounted to 54,438,000 ounces. It is interesting to note that the silver production increased by nearly 600,000 ounces as compared with the output of 1897, showing that the silver mine owners are doing very well, even though the country refused to adopt a policy of free coinage for their especial benefit.

Attorneys Newport & Cannon commenced mandamus proceedings against Frank Crabtree as county clerk to compel him to file a complaint in an action they desired to commence. The clerk refused because the attorneys only offered him a filing fee of $5, and as the amount in controversy was over $500 the clerk contended that under the law a $10 fee was required. Owing to a vagueness in the law as passed mandamus was brought to settle the question and it will be heard before Judge Boise July 17.—Herald.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. Law, Keokuk, Iowa.
