Don't forget the Bohemian picnic next Sunday afternoon, at Cladek's hall, if you want to enjoy yourself. Good music will be provided.

The demand for fishing tackle this year has been a great one, and local dealers in the line of goods have had to hustle to meet the demand.

Until August 1st T. S. Coffey will make a reduction of 15 per cent on all single buggy harness, and will give a whip and lap robe with each set.

There is no kick coming at the work done by the Salem Steam Laundry. You can send your laundry every Monday by taking it to the express office.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Bilyeu of Jordan, have the thanks of the publisher hereof and his family for a fine mess of mountain trout they were as nice as a man could wish for.

For the information of our bicycle friends we are able to state upon authority that Murphy, who rode a mile in less than one minute, rode a "Tribune" bicycle, with six and one half inch cranks, geared to 120.

There are quite a number of our citizens who indulge in the pleasant pastime of trout fishing these days, and some of them are quite successful.

Mr. W. R. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by Peery & Peery.

Dewey will return to America and he will receive a royal welcome, and the Salem Steam Laundry will still continue to do first class work at moderate prices. Take your laundry to the express office every Monday.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results!" says Mr. W. R. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by Peery & Peery.

Binding twine is beginning to be in demand, and soon the ham of the selfbinders will be audible on all sides. The grain crop will be about the standard, although this spring grain may be a little short unless rain falls up to within a few weeks.

Dr. A. G. Prill has purchased from Alex. Montgomery the block of land on which the old school building stood. It is just about the prettiest building spot in Scio, and next season the doctor contemplates the erection of a neat residence thereon.

Wm. Brenner is one of those well-souled fellows who knows just what is the best sort of grain food for an overworked Faber destroyer, hence he sauntered into our shop this week with as fine a string of trout as your eyes ever gazed upon. Thanks, Billie.

The open season for deer is now on, but hunting with dogs is not allowable, especially with dogs which possess a muzzel vollicity of more than one knee to the jump. The deer are none too plenty in the mountains here, and those who hunt should keep within the law and the bounds of reason.

R. W. Gill has purchased a band of 20 head of horses from a couple of men who brought them from east-Oregon. Mr. Gill is doing the "phone busting" at this busy time, and when he gets them tamed down a little he will sell them. They are a nice lot of horses and he will have no trouble in disposing of them.

Blackberries are not going to be as plentiful this year as on some years previous, and there are a few fine many. Several of our citizens are preparing to go into the mountains in a few days in search of these berries, and it is safe to say that the vines will be pretty well stripped within the next couple of weeks.

There will be an ice cream social at the lawn near the Christian church next Saturday (tomorrow) evening, given by the members of the Christian Sunday school and the ladies of the Presbyterian church. There will be a very interesting program, and all are cordially invited to come and spend an evening of pleasure.

H. S. Johnston is not a very heavy man, but last Sunday while on his way from Stayton to this city on his bicycle he took a sudden notion to hit the ground, and judging from the way he jarred the earth and the amount of article he removed from his anatomy one would judge that he weighed about two tons. Harry says it was the other fellows fault.

The flax crop in this vicinity is looking well, and in all probability will be a little better than average. There is in the neighborhood of 2500 acres of it in this county, and with an average of 10 bushels per acre means several thousand dollars to be paid to our farmers this fall. The flax is all raised on contract with a guarantee $1.00 per bushel.

The ice cream social given on the M. E. church lawn last Saturday evening was a decided success. A very interesting program of songs, music and recitations was rendered, and a large quantity of excellent ice cream was served. The ladies having the matter in charge deserve much praise for the manner in which the program was so successfully carried out.

Last week Dr. Thos. Chapman and his daughter, Miss Lulu, of Monroe, came here for the purpose of visiting the doctors brother, J. L. Chapman, who lives south of Scio, and Tuesday Mr. Chapman received a telephone message from Mrs. C. stating that their house and barn at Monroe had been destroyed by fire that morning. Mr. Chapman and his daughter left at once for home. Their residence was one of the finest in that section of the country.

Johnson & Phillips this week received an order from Yokohama, Japan, for 32000 sacks of flour, to be delivered at the rate of 8000 sacks per month. These people have been doing considerable business in Japan for some time past, but this is the largest order that they have been asked to fill. Scio flour has thus gained a point above numerous other makes which have been after this part of the Japan trade. It went to a fair competitor and won.

Mr. Johnson feels quite jubilant over his success, and says that it required several months time to secure the order, but his efforts have been fully rewarded.

The citizens of school district No. 9 are arranging to give a cream social every Saturday evening—beginning with Saturday July 29—throughout the summer season, for the purpose of raising money to erect a building sufficient to seat the assembly hall in the public school building. The hall is a fine one and should be seated. It would provide a meeting place for schools and other literary entertainments, and a place for the citizens who desire to attend. The plan for raising sufficient funds for providing seats is a good one, and the money can easily be raised by the end of the season. Let all work together and we can accomplish the desired end with very little individual cash outlay.

At a special meeting of the city council held last Thursday evening a resolution was adopted granting the petitioners to have the streets graded and graveled. The resolution provides that Main street shall be graded and graveled its full width from the railroad to the south line of the city limits, and that other cross streets be graveled—some their full width and others only in the center. The city has secured gravel for this purpose. Mr. Alexander, just below it will be begun, and an undertaking, and will have to be rushed a little in order to get it completed, but when finished will greatly improve the city's thoroughfares and make them better for next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cyrus left last Wednesday morning for Spokane where Mr. Cyrus goes for medical treatment. During his recent trip to California and Arizona he was greatly improved in health and returned home but it was only temporary and his stay now will be permanent if he does not get well. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus have a lot of friends in this city, and it is a great treat to hear of their leaving Prineville and their earnest wish is that Mr. Cyrus may be entirely cured.—Prineville Review.

Mr. Cyrus has many relatives and friends in Scio, and it is a pleasure to learn that his health was not permanently benefited by his recent trip to California. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus stopped in this city several days on their return from their southern trip.

We had a talk with J. S. Morris, manager of the Scio creamery, one day this week, and the gentleman informed us that the creamery was doing very well with good prospects for the future. The price of milk had been increased, and that other increases were sure to follow. All that the creamery lacks at this time is more milk. If our farmers would only give up their present creamery the return to all would be greater, as the increased amount of milk could be handled for the same money—that is an increase in the supply of milk would not cause an increase in the price of milk for the creamery is very, bright and those who are not bringing in milk should give the matter a thorough investigation and we are confident that the result will be that they will become patrons of the creamery.

The editor hereof has taken his summer outing and is now ready for another year of arduous work. Last Saturday afternoon, in company with M. M. Peery and John Jones, we went to the farm of M. M. Peery and John Jones, we lit out for Crabtree creek, and we came very near going as far as he road was cut out. Darkness overtook us, however, and we camped. Messrs. Peery and Jones and a few fish and about ten o'clock we all partook of an excellent supper, prepared by the writer hereof, and consisting of fish, black coffee and bread. After the supper had all been washed, we "turned in." We had an excellent bed made by covering the ground with about three-quarters of an inch of green fern, and on this the beds were laid. We washed. We all "dreamed" until about three o'clock, at which time all arose and made some coffee that would float a steel wedge, fried a few slices of hog bosom, which was eaten with a hearty relish. Then fishing began in earnest. Messrs. Peery, Jones and Cyrus fished all right, and succeeded in landing about two hundred speckled fellows some of which were good sized fish, but the writer had about all he could do to keep up with the others, and after wading Crabtree, at all depths, from six inches to seven feet, for eight short hours we were glorious ly rewarded by landing five mountain fishes. This ended our summer outing, for after returning to camp and eating up everything that could be found we started homeward, with the only regret that the writer had, the strings, what time he was not asleep. All went smooth until about half way home when Peery ran the wagon over a big rock and broke the tongue of it. It all happened on a high and the ground was too narrow to allow teams to pass, so we "held up" navigation for about half an hour while we patched the wagon tongue. We patched, too, and Pete M. Donald says it was worth $2.50 to unpatch it. But we got home safe and sound about eight o'clock Sunday evening, and as soon as we recovered from the effects of the trip we are going again.

PURELY PERSONAL

R. E. Hibler was at Salem Friday last.

G. A. Westgate, of Albany, was in Scio Thursday of last week.

Prof. E. C. Peery was a visitor at Scioville the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Salem, were visiting in Scio Sunday last.

Ebert Thompson, of Lebanon, visited friends in Scio Sunday last.

Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Jones of Lebanon were down this way over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Coffey spent Saturday with relatives and friends at Aumsville.

Mrs. J. A. Bilyeu was up at Halsey last week visiting relatives and friends in that section.

T. J. Munkers and Wm. May left Tuesday morning for Findley Soda springs for a week's outing.

Mrs. P. O. Smith is at Willhoit springs this week, visiting with relatives and enjoying a week's outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christman, of Stayton, visited relatives and friends in Scio Saturday and Sunday last.

P. O. Smith and J. J. Barnes left Tuesday for Findley springs, and other points of interest in search of rest and recreation.

J. B. Smith, of Thomas, is at The Dalls this week attending grand lodge, A. O. U. W., as a delegate from the lodge in this city.

Mrs. T. J. Wilson went to The Dalls the first of the week to attend the grand lodge of D. of H. She was a delegate from the lodge in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Butcher drove to Corvallis Saturday for a days visit with Frank's sister and numerous friends. They returned Sunday evening.

Misses Laura Myers and Ella Cary left Tuesday for Gladstone Park, where they will attend the session of Willamette Valley Chautauqua assembly.

H. E. Burmester, of Jordan, was over at Albany Monday. He states that his 12 acre hog yard is looking quite promising, and he anticipates a good crop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boyle, of Lebanon, were in Scio Saturday evening. Mr. Boyle was in the city on business installing the officers of the Odd Fellows lodge at this place.

Mrs. Cyrus returned from Salem Monday evening, and we are informed that she will erect a neat cottage on her property on the south side, to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago.

"Uncle Boon" Daniel was up at his Larwood farm last week for a few days, and was so impressed with the appearance of the country that he is thinking quite seriously of returning to the farm in the fall to live.

F. J. Irvine was called to Gates Tuesday to meet a commercial traveler for a two days drive. Scio's ivory stable is becoming quite a favorite with the knights of the grid, and hardly a day passes but they are called up to make the surrounding towns with some commercial man. All this is brought about by the fairness with which they deal with the traveling public.

Mr. Emmon, of the firm of Hansen & Landen, was in Scio this week. In fact he keeps the road between Salem and the company's mill near Jordan pretty hot these days.

He is just now getting out some lumber for the state asylum, and it is about as nice a lot of lumber as one ever sees. He has several teams hauling from the mills, and the loads they bring out cause some comment by persons who travel the crooked roads in that section of the country.

F. J. Denny, one of the sturdy farmers who resides between Munkers and Jefferson, was a pleasant caller at this shop one day last week. Mr. Denny might well be termed a diversified farmer. He has a good crop this year of most all kinds of marketable produce. He states that his hog crop is very promising with prospects of good prices. Mr. Denny has just harvested his hay crop, and had a few acres of clover which was so heavy that it took two men to follow the mower and rake the hay back out of the way as fast as it fell. The machine could not throw it back far enough to clear the wheels on the next round.

Chittim Bark.

Bring your bark to me. Though the price has dropped, I am still paying 25 cents per pound.

ROSS E. HIBLER.

According to recent scientific revelations it is getting to be unsafe to eat, drink or breathe. We are told that water is full of typhoid fever and deadly disease germs. Beer causes Bright's disease. Wine and whisky causes gastritis and other disorders. Coffee racks the nerves. Tea attacks the liver. Eggs cause biliousness. Fish brings on leprosy. Peppers and condiments take away the sense of taste. Corn bread in bones however is nutritious. Even the air we breathe is fairly alive with germs and microbes.—Ex.

Next Sunday afternoon there is going to be a Bohemian picnic at Cladek's hall, about seven miles east of Scio, and indications point to a day of great enjoyment. Mr. Cladek has built a nice hall and has completed arrangements for giving an up to date exhibition in the slight of hand line. He is an expert in this art, and has a large assortment of paraphernalia for this line of work. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Libalka's Bohemian band and the Scio Mandolin club. Refreshments will be served on the grounds, and a general good time is expected. All are cordially invited.

The officers of Dierdorf lodge, No. 54 I. O. O. F., were installed last Saturday evening by district deputy J. G. Boyle, of Lebanon, and are as follows: A. G. Prill, N. G.; Frank Morris, V. G.; P. H. McDonald, secretary; J. C. Simpson, Per. secretary; Ross E. Hibler, treas. Following are the appointed officers: T. S. Coffey, war; G. W. Morrow, con; Geo. Brock, R. S. S.; J. S. Compton, L. S. S.; R. S. Shelton, R. S. N. G.; Thos. Small, L. S. N. G.; J. R. Gill, I. W. G.; L. W. Pomeroy, O. G.
