BY THE EDITOR

In this issue will be found a statement of the amount of real estate sold in this vicinity within the past six months and which shows that $56,100 has been paid out here for a total of 3987 acres of land. Scio has not done much in the way of advertising her resources and advantages as compared to other towns in the valley; had it done so this total might have been much larger. There are now located here twenty-five Bohemian families, making about 125 persons, and they are all good citizens, able and willing workers, and have brought with them ample means to pay as they go. They have organized a lodge of their own fraternal beneficiary society and have erected a hall in which to hold their meetings and also to hold public meetings of all kinds. They have an excellent brass band under the leadership of Prof. Joseph Cibulka, who was prominent in musical circles at the Omaha Exposition last year, and they possess talent sufficient to give a very creditable exhibition. Mr. V. Cladek being an expert slight of hand performer. Many cities and towns throughout Oregon have from time to time presented figures to show that they were locating lots of people within their midst, but we doubt if any of them can show figures equal to those we present today, taking into consideration the amount of labor and advertising done by each place as compared to that of Scio. The sales mentioned herein were all made through the efforts of R. Shelton, Scio's only and reliable real estate agent, and all credit for the location of these people in our midst is due to him.

An interesting historical fact dating to 1873, has come to light, in which Admiral Dewey was the central figure. Dewey, then a commander, was in command of the United States ship Narragansett, on the Asiatic station, having taken charge of the vessel March 1, 1872. The vessel was on a surveying duty when the Virginia was precipitated and a war with Spain seemed imminent. Commander Dewey wrote to the navy department requesting that in case war was declared he should be assigned to the duty of capturing Manila. The peaceful settlement of the controversy with Spain avoided the necessity of hostile demonstration, but the interesting fact is that the dauntless officer had his eye on Manila over a quarter of a century ago. A search will be made for the letter in the files of the navy department and if found it is expected an effort will be made by the citizens committee to have it reproduced as a souvenir of the reception to be tendered Admiral Dewey upon his arrival in New York.

The eastern papers have good words for all parts of Oregon. They do not pick out sections of the state and decried all the rest. It emphasizes the fact that the state is all right as a whole. This is correct. It is time that the people of the entire state worked harmoniously together for the upbuilding of the great commonwealth, with its unsurpassed advantages and its many eye-openers. We must grow if we prosper from the outside and not by taking from each other, though naturally there will be internal changes.

—Albany Democrat.

There is nothing very serious in the report that soldiers are being hurried to Victoria by the Canadian government. The United States and Great Britain and her colonies are not going to do anything more than a little growling. All differences will be settled as they should be between civilized countries.

The trial of Dreyfus just begun in France promises to be the greatest in the history of that country. It will attract the attention of the entire world who are quick to resent an imprisonment without cause, a condemnation and conviction by trickery.

A Portland furniture dealer advertises great bargains just now and advises young people to get married while the market is as low.

As usual new and attractive. The railroad and steamboat lines will give specially low rates, so that the enjoyment and benefits of the great exposition will be within the reach of all.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician, and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we are convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by Peery & Peery.

Admiral William T. Sampson has sued the government for prize money won by Schley, Clerks, Evans, Phillips and others. It is to be hoped that Sampson will win his suit for that will be about the only way he can be considered in the Santiago fight.

Senator McBride is back from New York where he recently submitted to the surgeon's scalpel. He is greatly improved in health, and speaks glowing of Oregon's future and gives assurances that ample governmental appropriations will be secured for the proper development of the vast resources of this wonderful.

People who attend the exposition at Portland last autumn were pleased and satisfied with the sights they saw, and the instruction and amusement afforded. And they will be pleased to learn that the Exposition to be held this season will aim to excel all its predecessors. It will begin Sept. 28 and end Oct. 28, and its success is already assured, enterprising men of affairs are at its head and the various committees are working in a way that guarantees the last exposition ever held in the Northwest.

The business men of Portland have already subscribed a guarantee fund of $12,000 to provide for the heavy expenses incident to mounting such an exposition, and this is a sure indication that nothing will be left undone to make the fair a credit to the entire Northwest.

The products of the farm, forest, mine, stream and factory are going to be on exhibition at the exposition, which will make it an object-lesson instructive and invaluable to all. The Exposition management will take to Portland free of charge all exhibits shipping tag and full particulars will be sent if you will drop a line to "Secretary Industrial Exposition, Portland, Ore."

Gold, silver and bronze medals and diplomas will be awarded for the best exhibits, and the farmers and producers who send exhibits will be doing good work for themselves and the whole North Pacific coast—work that will result in bringing here people and wealth and development. It is intended to have on exhibition a sample of every variety of grain and grass that grows in the Northwest, with full particulars as to its growth, yield, etc.

Bennett's full military band of 92 pieces, which furnished such splendid music at last season's exposition has been again engaged, and the amusement feature of the fair will be in like manner.

W. H. Mills, of the Southern Pacific land department has agreed to take at the depot in this city, any exhibit prepared under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and exposition committee. He will transport the same free of charge to Paris will install and care for it during the exhibition.

OREGON INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION

Products of the Northwest will be Exhibited at the Fair this fall.

From The Oregonian, July 26, 1899:
J. A. Fleicher, manager of the California state board of trade, left for San Francisco last night, after having had several conferences with various commercial bodies and the exposition committee in reference to an Oregon exhibit in the great Paris world's fair, in 1900.

The state of California appropriated $150,000 for the purpose of making a display of that state's resources in the United States building, but, upon a thorough investigation many of the people of that state are not satisfied with the manner in which their display is to be made. The United States building will contain extensive exhibits but they will not be segregated as to state. In the agricultural department for instance will be sheafs of grain and jars of what—may be labeled from Minnesota and its neighbor will bear a California tag.

The Southern Pacific company has taken upon the matter, and has appropriated a large sum of money to make an exhibit of Pacific coast products. They have pledged to procure suitable and large quarters, in which they will install, at their own expense, such exhibits as they may obtain from the various states traversed by their lines; but in those quarters each of these states will have separate and individual representation. Oregon will have a large space for the exhibition of her products and California likewise. Arizona—work that will result in bringing here people and wealth and development. It is intended to have on exhibition a sample of every variety of grain and grass that grows in the Northwest, with full particulars as to its growth, yield, etc.
