An exchange states that W. S. Vanderberg, the populist who once represented the extreme South-western Oregon in the state senate and later came near getting elected to congress and who has recently been a look agent in Curry county, has accepted a position with a San Francisco commission house and departed for Oregon.

Albert Poole, once convicted but subsequently released for the Cow creek canyon train robbery, is in jail with a pal named Padberg, at Colville, Wash., for holding up a farmer for the purpose of robbery, and shooting John Hamann who came to the aid of the farmer.

President McKinley's message to the next congress is expected to be the most important document of his kind since the civil war. His west-ern trip is said to have amply demonstrated that the people will demand in reference to the Philip-pines.

First to arrive with the telegraphic news—The Weekly Oregonian.

A girl named plain "Mary" at her birth, dropped the "y" when she grew up and became Miss May. As she began to shine in a social way she changed the "y" to "e" and signed her letters Mae. About a year ago she was married and now she has dropped the "e" and is just plain "Ma." That's evolution.

The Salem Journal has some fun as follows: The Marion county government has sent its ultimatum to Linn county in regard to the Stanton bridge and closed the discussion. The Boers of Linn county are up in rebellion and have opened the bridge to the farmers of both sides. There have been no hostilities on either side, but in case of an overt act the sheriff and posse may be called out. In the event of hostilities between this county and Linn a detail of the volunteer guard may be sent up there under command of Col. Gillis—the only representative at Salem of the famous Gordon Highlanders.

There is something of a family affair in a school district down in Columbia county in this state. There is only one pupil in the district to attend the school, a boy of 13 years of age and not residents enough to furnish the required number of school officers. At the last annual school election there were only two persons present a man and his wife both directors. As the man's term of office expired, the school was re-elected for three years receiving the unanimous vote of the house. A week or two later the two members of the board appointed a clerk. The boy in the district is a son of the directors, and they usually employ some member of the family to teach the school.

Work has two sides—the side external the side internal. On the external side, there is the job you have done. On the internal side are the reactive effects of what you have done. If you have done your piece of work nobly and thoroughly you have garnered into yourself such a store of these "goodies" that you have gotten for yourself the ability to do still better work; you have trained yourself the further into distance and scorn of shabby work; you have made your "face" a more achieved character, "Character," says Novalis, "is a competently fashioned will." And if you will not do mean work, you have fastened yourself the more thoroughly into character of willing to do shining and worthy work.—Wisconsin Times.

From this time on I will sell sugar for CASH and PRODUCE only. And in future I will sell sugar at very little profit, but not on CREDIT.

I have to pay cash down for every sack I buy, and it is very hard for me to do this and credit out from six months to a year or two.

Prominent Lebanon Man Dead

J. F. Hyde, a prominent citizen of Lebanon, died in that city Saturday morning. He has been sick several months and his death had been expected. He was a member of the Veterans, Masons, Grand Army and several other organizations. He was one of Lebanon's substantial citizens and his many friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Three Doctors in Consultation

From Benjamin Franklin, "When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason is, to be chosen in the third place; and what the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and set on nature's plan in relieving the cough, clearing the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. From the Santiam

The Detroit correspondent of the Salem statesman says:

D. M. Burnett, of Moro, Ore., superintendent of the Columbia Southern railroad is visiting with his brother J. O. Carter. He came over from Moro by team via the Lebanon route.

The Logging Company have a large camp in operation near Berry and are putting out logs for the Curtiss company as well as for the pulp mills at Oregon City the latter being the main business.

Harley Foster and Elm Hall have just returned to their home at Gates from the Atlin country and have many attractive nuggets to exhibit to their friends. They report having had a prosperous season.

Mrs. F. L. Maltman and her brother John Handy, arrived here last Saturday direct from Newton Albert England, and are the guests of Mrs. McLennan. They came with a view of locating at some place in Oregon.

W. A. Carrie of Portland, is working a force of men in the tunnel of his mine at Mineral Cut, and is taking out some fine looking samples. This mine is located so near the railroad that the tunnel now being driven goes under the track.

O'Neil Bros. from Lebanon, have a force of men at work at Niagara, putting in a dam and otherwise preparing for the erection of a pulp mill at that place. This is one of the best natural water powers in the country.

W. B. Lawler has returned to his mines in the Quartzville district from a trip to Salt Lake City. Mr. Seicher, who has located the Albany mine in the same district, came up from Seattle recently and is personally superintending the work being done on the property.

Edmund Dubaut track supervisor of the Woodburn section has been presented by the Southern Pacific Company with two silver medals one for having the finest section in the district in the same district, and the other for the finest section in the Pacific system.—Independent.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Peery & Peery.

Bilyeu will teach school, while the others will go on east and visit in different states and cities. They went by way of the Southern Pacific, and were ticketed to their destination by A. J. Johnson, special ticket agent.

Circuit Court.

Judge Burnett convened circuit court at Albany 9 o'clock Monday morning with twenty cases before him. He ran through the docket the first time in twelve minutes, heard a demurrer, set 1 o'clock for the trial of Melnerd agt Kober and adjourned until 1 o'clock all in twenty-two minutes time, breaking the Linn county record. The following business was disposed of:

Mrs. E. Kirkpatrick agt H. Barnes et al, recovery money; attachment Judgment against H. Barnes and wife. Continued as to others.

E. Fisher agt R. Blain recovery money; attachment Judgment by default.

J. Jacobs agt W. B. Blain recovery money; attachment Judgment by default.

The case of Oregon agt Robert Foran will be discussed on account of the death of the defendant by a railroad accident in Eastern Oregon.

The two remaining cases agt the Farmers and Merchants Ins. Co. were reported about settled, and it is probable the docket will be rid of these cases for the first time in many years.

W. H. Warner and A. B. Woodin were appointed grand jurors. A grand jury was called the district attorney under the new law attending to the business.

After the empaneling of the jury the Missouri case, the remainder of the jury were dismissed for the term after being in court less than half an hour.

Cutting Alfay at Sweet Home.

Last Saturday night J. P. Hahn and Albert Weddle, of Sweet Home were settling their book accounts, when a dispute arose between them over an account owed Hahn by Weddle's brother. The amount involved was about $4 but after an exchange of angry words Hahn assaulted Weddle with a knife inflicting a number of wounds, about his head and neck, following him to the residence of the father of Hahn, and reached there Sunday morning evening Dr. Lamberson thought the chances were against his recovery, but he appeared somewhat easier. It was reported that Hahn had left Sweet Home but Monday it was learned that he was at home attending to his victim and was nursing a wound on his head. Hahn is a prominent merchant and Weddle a saw-mill man, both being old time residents of Sweet Home and well known throughout the country. A warrant has not been issued for Hahn's arrest.
