PURELY PERSONAL

V. Clark of Larwood called on 7c editor Tuesday.

H. M. Cook, the piano and organ man, was a Scio visitor yesterday.

Dr. Prill went to Albany Tuesday evening on a business trip.

E. T. Bognart of Larwood has gone to Seaside for an extended stay.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer arrived in this city Saturday and are at present the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Prill.

B. B. Johnston, father of H. S. and J. S. Johnston of this city, was visiting for some last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. J. P. Jones, the general traveling passenger agent of the N. P. railroad company, was in the city Tuesday. We acknowledge a pleasant call.

V. Clark and Joseph Young left Tuesday for Corvallis, where they go to attend the Farmers School. Course at the Agricultural College. Both are substantial progressive farmers.

Dr. Carl the well known dentist, arrived in Seaside Monday and will probably continue his work, which will give those who need his services a chance to have their dental work done.

Mr. W. L. Hickman and family arrived in this city a few days ago, and is setting a home here. Mr. Hickman expects to make his future home in this neighborhood.

W. A. Ewing has purchased the Daniel mercantile business in this city and took possession last Saturday. He is cleaning up and arranging the stock and will soon receive a large invoice of new goods. Mr. Ewing is a good business man, thoroughly acquainted with the business he is having been for some years with Mr. Daniel. He is well known in the vicinity, having been here a long time. He was for some time cashier in the bank and his work for Mr. Daniel extended his acquaintances very largely. He will retain in his employ Mr. G. L. South-erland, who for the past eight years has been head salesman for Mr. Daniel, and is known by almost everybody among our older settlers, as a fine salesman and a general gentleman. Mr. Ewing starts out with his new venture with every chance for a prosperous business career and his friends will rejoice at his success. He will try to retain the high estimate which the business he has purchased has heretofore enjoyed and by fair and impartial treatment and a clean and up-to-date stock of goods from which to supply the wants of his customers, he will doubt retain most of the old, as well as gain many new customers, and build up a large and lucrative business in our town.

A FEW FARM NOTES

Look out for the early lambs, both the mother and the lamb may need careful attention to prevent loss.

The Angora goat breeders of Polk county are arranging for a Goat Show to be held at Dallas, on February 24th next.

This is the season of the year to fix up the fences and make a general clean up, before the time for spring work arrives.

Look carefully after the stock and their condition. The hard times for them is still ahead and the better condition they are in when it comes the better they will go. Through the late spring storms.

Every one at all interested in the raising of poultry should arrange to attend the annual show of the State Poultry Association at Albany the 22nd to 27th of this month. It promises to be the largest and best show ever held by the association.

Exclusive grain raising seems to be less and less a profitable business in this valley. The low prices of grain and the high price of stock point to the fact that to secure best results diversified farming must become the war cry of our farmers and they will have to raise both grain and stock, the grain to feed, the stock to sell, thereby utilizing as much as possible the product of the farm to fertilize their land and increase its productivity and thus reap the reward of their labor.

Proper Form of a Dairy Cow

She should possess a long, thin head, large nostrils for plenty of air, great breadth between the eyes, high forehead, a bright, clear eye, sound teeth, thin neck, deep through the chest, with large lung capacity, long and large backbone for plenty of nervous force broad hips, high pelvic arch, thin thighs, well apart, giving plenty of room for good udder. She should be deep through the flanks with plenty of store room for food. The udder should be well developed running well up behind and well forward on the body with large milk veins, teats set evenly on the four quarters and of good size. A cow with these points well developed indicates that she is descended from a line of dairy cows and will rarely prove a failure if properly bred from birth up. - A. G. Judd in Orange Judd Farmer.

Safe Cracking at Jefferson

Last Sunday night the safe in E. B. Sackett's store and the one in the office of the flour mill were blown open. The work of the burglars showed that they were old hands at the business. The burglaries were not discovered until morning, when business hours arrived. At Sackett's they obtained $5 or $10, but at the mill they got nothing as the safe was not used except to store papers. The chief damage sustained was the injury of the safes and a lot of broken glass. They obtained entrance to the buildings by springing the locks of the front doors.

The statistics prepared by the Secretary of the Salem chamber of commerce, relative to the volume of traffic through the locks at Oregon City and the need that the locks be free has been passed upon by the board for government engineers who have recommended that the present system of tolls be purchased or new locks constructed.

Judge Boise this afternoon held the first term of circuit court in the new court house. He was also the first judge to hold circuit court in the old court house. Previous to that he used to hold court in the round court house or almost an old place. At one time he remembers court being held under an oak tree the jury sitting on a log. Before being circuit Judge Boise was district attorney and was thus present at court as early as 1854. He has many pleasant reminiscences to tell of early courts in this county.

The Crook County Journal says: "From reliable resources we learn that a party of men are engaged in a survey of the Curvillie and Eastern railroad near Hamilton, Oregon in this county. Some two months ago Mr. Eckelson, who made the survey some ten years ago, was ordered to proceed to Ontario and make a survey for the purpose of straightening the line where practical, which he is now doing. For the first time in the history of the road work has been commenced without a Mare of transports and it is possible that the management have actually decided to do something besides making a bluster. At all events, surveying is an excellent indication that something is on the tapis."

The new registration law of Oregon is now in force and the time to register is at hand. All who fail to register before the 1st of May, will be put to a good deal of trouble and expense or fail to get in their votes. In order to accommodate our citizens as much as possible Justice Shelton has secured a set of blanks and is prepared to register any who are eligible under the provisions of the law. The chance to register here at home will save many of our people the expense of a trip to the county seat, and loss of valuable time. Provision is made in the law which requires that a voter who shall register in one precinct of county and afterward remove into another precinct or county, shall again register in his new location. So do not forget that point, but be sure that your registration is all right. Everybody wants our elections to be pure, free from fraudulent voting, and also that every person who is legally a voter has a chance to vote. To accomplish this is the intent of the law just as much as to see that illegal voting is prevented, so that all should look carefully after the registration of voters and the carrying out of the provisions of the new law in the interest of strictly pure elections.
