It is not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Its great record of cures of all forms of blood diseases, including scrofula, rheumatism, dyspepsia, catarrh, prove its power to cure you also.

Catarrh - "My throat was in such a condition with catarrh that I could hardly swallow and had no appetite. I found Hood's Sarsaparilla an excellent remedy, and now have a good appetite." Ella J. White, Erie, Texas.

A Hard Luck Story.

He stood before the police judge a wreck. He suggested an echo of better days. He had been arrested the night before for sleeping in an open doorway.

The judge saw that the prisoner had not always been a tramp and questioned him with regard to his past.

"Well, your honor, it was this way," the man said, quietly. "I haven't always been as you see me now. I was a stock broker once. When I was a younger man I became interested in copper. Copper is usually sold, you know. Well, I made a little pile, then shifted to iron. Iron is hard to handle and I lost. I withdrew from speculating for a time, but the old fascination drew me again into the market. I took a flyer in some glittering stock, but it was a loser. I said I would try again. I bought a little train of different railway stock, but I didn't tie to it long enough and went nearly broke. Then I showed all of my remaining fortune into it. It turned out the same way. The judge had listened to the story attentively and at its conclusion discharged the prisoner. "Have you any money?" he inquired, as the man turned to leave the court room.

"No, sir," was the reply. "I'm broke now more than I ever was." - Detroit Free Press.

Improved Train Equipment.

The O. R. & N. and Oregon Short Line have added a buffet, smoking and library car to their Portland-Chicago through train, and a dining car service has been inaugurated. The train is equipped with the latest chair cars, day coaches and luxurious first-class and ordinary sleepers. Direct connection made at Granger with Union Pacific, and at Ogden with Rio Grande line, from all points in Oregon, Washington and Idaho to all Eastern cities.

For information, rates, etc., call on any O. R. & N. agent, or address W. H. Harburt, General Passenger Agent, Portland.

Liquor in Groceries.

In Connecticut, liquors and groceries cannot now legally be sold on the same premises. For a number of years past many groceries in the state took out what is called a package license under which they sold liquors not to be drunk on the premises. The last legislature passed a law prohibiting this and now any grocer who wishes to sell liquors will have to give up his grocery business.

A Miner in Colorado, disheartened by hard luck, dug a grave for himself with the intention of getting into it and then blowing his brains out. These feet under the surface of the ground he stuck a "pay streak" and sold it the next day for $20,000. If you are thinking of self-destruction, try digging your own grave.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinal in nature and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectively, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. Commercial and Financial Happenings of Interest in the Growing Western States.

Improvements at Ballard.

A permit has been granted to the Seattle Electric Company to build a new trestle for the Ballard division of the Consolidated Street Railways Company, extending along the shore of the bay between Omaha and Alva streets, and the right was also granted to build another trestle west of the present one along Salmon Bay. It is the intention of the street railway company to expend $50,000 in the improvement of its line to Ballard to meet the traffic demands created by the growth of that city, and to that end three new motor cars of 160-horse power each have been ordered from Eastern manufacturers. The track will be taken up and laid along the new trestles and on Western avenue the line will be reconstructed in a modern manner.

Saw Mill to Be Moved.

Patton & Holches, of Seogoin valley, have leased the old mill site, 12 miles west Forest Grove, formerly owned by Colonel T. R. Corneille, and will commence at once the removal of their saw mill from Seogoin valley to that point. The mill at this location will be accessible to a large supply of the very finest yellow fir, and situated 10 miles from Seogoin, where the lumber will be loaded on cars and shipped to Eastern parties, who have placed two large contracts with the mill. There is not an idle saw mill in Washington county, and this year, owing to the demand for lumber outside of the state, will be the best year for the industry in the history of the county.

Bagby, of Bagby Bros., Molalla, came up from Portland, where he has placed orders for machinery that will increase their cutting capacity to 14,000 feet per day. The latter firm is doing considerable business in the way of furnishing oak lumber to boat-builders in Portland.

TREATY WITH THE SULUS.

President Sends All the Correspondence to the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 5.—In compliance with a resolution of inquiry, the president has sent to the senate a copy of the report and all accompanying papers of Brigadier-General J. C. Bates in relation to the negotiation of a treaty of agreement made by him with the sultan of Sulu, last August. In replying to the request the president says:

"The payments of money required by the agreement will be made from the revenues of the Philippine islands, unless congress shall direct otherwise. Such payments are not for specific services, but are a part of the consideration going to the sultan, tribe or nation under the agreement, and they are stipulated as subject to the action of congress, in conformity with the practice of this government from the earliest times in its agreements with the various Indian nations operating and governing portions of territory subject to the sovereignty of the United States."

General Otis in transmitting the treaty, August 27, says:

"The attitude of these people has been a subject of apprehension for several months, and by this agreement, I believe, the apprehended pending differences are happily adjusted."

Secretary Root, in a reply dated October 27, tells General Otis that "the agreement is confirmed and approved by the president, subject to the action of congress, and with the understanding and reservation, which should be distinctly communicated to the sultan of Sulu, that this agreement is not to be deemed in any way to authorize or give consent of the United States to the existence of slavery in the Sulu archipelago. At the same time when you communicate to the sultan the above mentioned understanding, the president desires that you should make inquiry as to the number of persons held in slavery in the archipelago, and what arrangements it may be practicable for their emancipation."

In his instructions to General Bates, under this direction, General Otis says: "It is believed that the market price of slaves in the archipelago is insignificant, ranging from $30 to $90, Mexican, and that in some instances owners will be pleased to grant freedom to their slaves if they can escape the burden of supporting them."

General Otis continues to the effect that the character of the domestic slavery existing in the archipelago differs greatly from the former slavery institution of the United States, the slaves becoming members of the owner's family.

General Bates, in his report, stated that when he first asked to see the sultan, the latter sent his greetings, saying he could not come to the general, because he had been on his boat, and could not put on his coat, but that he would recognize the protection of the United States, requesting as a favor that he might hoist his own flag alongside that of the United States. The sultan's brother, the sultan of Jolo to meet General Bates, and the sultan of Zamboanga, him. General Bates states in this connection that the Sulus are very jealous of their institution of slavery.

In his original instructions to General Bates, General Otis instructed him to push to the front the question of sovereignty, and to hold him could promise for the United States not to interfere with, but to protect the Moros in the free exercise of their religion and customs, social and domestic, and to respect the rights and dignities of the sultan. In return they must acknowledge the sovereignty of the United States. He also instructed General Bates that it was important that the United States should occupy the principal distribution centers of trade, and that Siasi, the capital, should be occupied by our troops at no distant day.

WOOLEN GOODS ACTIVE.

Shows an Exception to Dullness Shown in Other Lines.

Bradstreet's review says: Exceptions to the quiet and even dullness shown by the many lines of trade and speculation are found in the active demand for woollen goods for next fall's delivery, and in the active call for dry goods on spring account. In the latter direction, prices show special strength, and the bulk of the business placed in woollens has been an advance of 25 to 40 per cent. In other lines, notable steadiness is shown in prices. Weather conditions throughout the country part of the week have been against trade in seasonable goods, and there is very general complaint of large stocks of winter goods in the hands of this branch of trade. Another effect of the usually mild weather. They opened their order books this week, and an unusually heavy volume of business is reported to have been recorded. Cotton goods are reported in good demand in nearly all markets, and the confidence as to spring business in dry goods and clothing is a notable feature, in sharp contrast, in fact, with the reports received from retailers as to the present season's business in winter-wool goods. Scarcity of water is complained of as limiting the output of New England cotton mills, which are reported as backward in deliveries.

Business failures for the week number 252, as compared with 245 last week, 246 in the week a year ago, 288 in 1908, 326 in 1897, and 393 in 1896.

Enthusiastic Old Wheelman.

There is an old adage to the effect that it is never too late to mend, and that seems to apply to the bicycle, or, rather, to the people who ride it. A Florida (Ill.) man learned to ride at the age of 61 years and now is 72. During these 11 years he has ridden 60,000 miles, and is still going. To commemorate his career as a cyclist he has erected a monument over the spot where he is to be buried, and on the shaft the figure of a bicycle is carved.

The Months of Madness.

Contrary to the general opinion, more people go mad during the summer months than in the usually gloomy and dull months of November, December and January, when times are bad and the general conditions appear more conducive to insanity. Not only in this country, but also in many others, it is found more people go mad during May, June and July than during any other portion of the year, and that suicide—which is due to some form of insanity—is also more prevalent during the summer.

SALT LAKE CITY.

An Important Factor in Transcontinental Travel.

No one crossing the continent can afford to cut Salt Lake City from his route. The attractions of the place, including the Mormon Temple, Tabernacle and Church institutions, the Great Salt Lake—deader and denser than the Dead Sea in the Holy Land—the picturesque environment and the warm sulphur and hot springs, are greater to the square yard than any locality on the American continent.

The Rio Grande Western Railway, connecting on the East with the Denver & Rio Grande and Colorado Midland Railways and on the West with the Oregon Pacific (Central Route) and Southern Short Line, is the only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City. The route through Salt Lake City via the Rio Grande Western Railway is famous all the year round. On account of the equable climate of Utah and Colorado it is just as popular in winter as in summer. BOWEL BAY-WINDOWS

When a man gets one, he becomes a slave to his bowels. Every person ought to have control over the different parts of the body, and it is the easiest thing in the world to educate the bowels, make them do their duty naturally and regularly, and keep them from becoming a source of misery and a deformity as well.

Educate your bowels! Don't neglect the slightest sign of irregularity but see that you have at least one natural easy movement a day. Pills, salts and black draughts are dangerous because they strain and weaken the bowels. What you want is a mild but sure laxative, that tones and strengthens the bowels and stimulates their movements. Such a laxative is CASCARETS, and when you try them, you will find that it is the easiest thing in the world to make and keep your bowels clean and regular, strong and healthy.
