Linn county has purchased a rock crusher, and will endeavor to provide better thoroughfares for her citizens. The move was not made a day too soon, in fact it was several years in the rear of the procession of progress, and had this same road machine have been in operation in this county for the past ten years the roads of this county would not now be in the deplorable condition that they present. Crushed rock has become the standard material for substantial road building, and the expenses of putting it on the roads is not as great as it is to get gravel, especially where gravel has to be hauled any great distance, and there are tons and tons of rock to be found in all parts of the county which can be easily crushed and put on the roads, and if they are properly graded and drained before the rock is put on it will be no trouble to obtain and maintain good substantial roads.

Most of the voters of North and South Scio Precincts registered and are now ready for the battle on June 4th. We doubt if there is a half dozen in the two precincts who are voters and have not registered, and this is proper; there should not be a single voter whose name is not registered. The right to vote is vested in every citizen, and to be allowed all the privileges of an American citizen we should conform to the laws as they are laid down by the law-makers elected by the people. If the law, after fair trial, proves to be an unjust one or in any way non-beneficial then do away with it entirely, but as long as it is a law let every one try and conform to its dictation, and thereby prepare himself so that he may be able to assist in the election of men who will work in the interest of the people and the enactment of better laws.

The Southern Pacific began the treatment of ties by the creosote process in 1895 and are keeping an accurate account of the renewals, in order to be able to judge of the efficacy of their preservative. The year is marked on the end of each tie. The average life of a tie is from 4 to 5 year in the Willamette valley. In Southern Oregon ties last at least two years longer. Being due to the decrease in humidity. After four years the life of a tie is largely exhausted, and releases the spikes, while the tie may be good for often two years more service, before becoming too soft for track purpose.

An exchange lays down the following code of morals by saying: let your motto be: lie, steal, drink and swear. When you lie, let it be down to pleasant dreams. When you drink, let it be nothing but pure, cold water. When you steal let it be away from immoral associates. When you swear, swear, that you will patronize your home paper. Pay your subscription and not send your job work away from home.

The registration books of Linn county closed Tuesday evening at five o'clock, and show a total of 5069 names. There were 122 in North Scio and 148 in South Scio.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed. This remedy has also been used in my family for frost bitten feet with the best results. I cheerfully recommend its use to all who may need a firstclass liniment." Sold by Peery & Peery.

Summer Trip to The East

A trip to the East by way of Salt Lake City and the Rio Grande Western Railway in connection with either the Denver & Rio Grande or Colorado Midland Railways is the grandest on the American continent passing as it does through the heart of the Rocky mountains. No European journey of equal length can compare with it in splendor of scenery or wealth of novel interest. A stop-over in Salt Lake City is permitted on all tickets via this route. Salt Lake City is known as the most quaint and picturesque place in the United States. Its summer climate is incomparable. The Mormon Temple, Tabernacle and Church Institutions, the Hot Springs, Warm Sulphur Springs and the Sanitarium are a few of its attractive features. It is a city of beautiful homes, parks drives and nearby canyons and mountain resorts. Great Salt Lake, on the salted shores of which the city is situated, is "deader and denser" than the Dead Sea in Palestine. Imagine, if you can, a salt bath a mile above sea level in water in which the human body cannot sink. A novice can float on the surface of the lake. For rates or other information or for copy of "Crossing the Rockies" apply to J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 553 Washington St., Portland, Oregon, or Geo. W. Heintz General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

During the year 1900 there will be three eclipse, two of the sun and one of the moon. The first is a total eclipse of the sun on May 28, and will be visible throughout the United States. This eclipse will begin about 8 a. m. and continue for 5 hours and 48 minutes. During the passage of the shadow over U. S. it will move at rate of 41 miles per minute, The second is a partial eclipse of the moon beginning at 7:14 p. m. on June 12, and lasting but 7 minutes. The third is an annular eclipse of the sun on November 21, and invisible in America. The total eclipse of the sun on May 28, will be a most interesting sight. It is some time since we had an opportunity of witnessing a total eclipse.

The old missionary brig, Pitcairn, has sailed from San Francisco for Cape Nome and is the first craft of the season to leave for the new gold fields. The Pitcairn has about 200 tons of freight stowed away in her hold and on deck, and there is almost half as much again on the wharf for which she cannot find room. About fifty men have taken passage on her, nearly all of them going to seek gold. The captain estimates that he will receive about $15,000 for his cargo and passengers. It is reported that he paid but $5000 for the brig, so that if he has good fortune on the voyage his venture ought to be a prosperous one.

A Womans Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stone had formed and she constantly grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite. Try it. Only 50c Guaranteed. For sale by Peery & Peery, druggist.

On the 2d of April, 1900, close upon 1000 free rural postal delivery routes had been established, some of them serving as many as twelve or fifteenhundred people dailey, the average being 750 persons to a route. The good work is still going on. Nothing short of a revolution can now check it.

One Martin Sievert, who robbed and killed another man in the Artic gold fields, on being detected, requested that he be lynched at once rather than made to undergo the tedious formalities of a trial. To conclude account of the incident, It is only necessary to add that the Alaskan gold hunters are nothing if not obliging.

Out of 442 sailing vessels that left San Francisco last year, no less than 183 carried cargoes of American products and manufactures to the Hawaiian islands, the value of those cargoes from this one port was $9,161,982, and it had almost doubled within two years.

Many Won't See It That Way.

The publisher of a newspaper has one thing to sell and one thing to rent. He has the newspaper to sell, and the space in the columns to rent. Can any one inform us why he should be expected to give away either one or the other? He can do so if he chooses, and he does, as a matter of practical fact, furnish a great deal of space rent free. But it does not follow that he ought to be expected to do it. It ought to be recognized as a contribution exactly as would the giving away of sugar and coffee by the groceryman. But strange to say it is not looked upon in that light at all, yet everybody knows that the existence of a newspaper depends as much on the rent of its space and the sale of the paper as the merchant's success depends on selling his goods instead of giving them away.

Nine years ago W. W. Smith, of Eola, started with 28 goats costing $70, and since then has cleared $200 a year with goats and has 77 on hand besides the good it has done in clearing up his place. The goat is proving a great animal in diversified farming in Oregon wherever used.

The Salt Lake City Health Commissioner and a local physician disagree as to whether a resident—former resident at least—is dead or in a trance. The Commissioner, having the law in his hands, however, has ordered the body buried, so if he isn't right now he probably will be after a few days.

A Washington clergyman, for publicly referring to Olga Nethersole as a "lewd actress" now finds himself a "sued preacher"—to the tune of $50,000. This particular rhyme, however, is probably not musical to his ear.
