Summer Resorts

"To the mountains of our people in increasing numbers yearly look for those days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain the human machine in fair working condition. The languorous sloth of the seaside proves very seductive while it lasts, but many have decided that the annual outing should provide not only radical change of air and surroundings, but also stimulation of flagging energies as will provide brash and vigor for the return to labor. For this they urge the mountain climb and ramble, the balsam of the mountain pines, and the clear, unadulterated mountain air."

"In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Astoria to Redding is studded with charming and accessible hotels and camps, where are cheer and comfort and feeling at reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility."

"Or if you look for healing waters none better can be found, hot or cold than the springs of Ashland, Coles, and Siskiyou, Bartlett, Byron and Paso Robles."

"Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite Valley, and the wondrous groves of Mariposa and Calaveras; the Parisians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attractive resorts."

Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent, Portland, for new leaflets on Castle Crags, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemite, and excursion rates thereto."

Death of Joseph Young

Joseph Young was born in Belleville February 10th 1821 died near Scio Oregon May 22nd 1909 at the age of 78 years 3 months 12 days. He was married 3 months 12 days. He was married in Belleville October 14th 1850 to Anna Swartzko, and to them ten children were born, six of which are living, three of the children died in Belleville, and one in Idaho since he moved to Oregon. He moved with his family from Belleville in 1858 to New York City, from there to Wisconsin, from Wisconsin to Kansas, from Kansas to Oregon in May 1868 with three of his sons and their families and located on a farm near Scio in May 1868 on which the father and sons and their family have ever since resided. He leaves six children living four sons and two daughters.

The name of our pioneer fathers is gone. The remains were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery. Rev. S. B. Scott a missionary Baptist minister of Scio conducted the services at the cemetery. A large concourse of people were present.

TAILOR MADE SUITS

2000 Samples to Choose From.

You can get any style you want.

You can have any price you want—cheaply, and your choice from more different goods than you ever saw in your life before.

Of course you know that every body nowadays who dresses well buys TAILOR MADE SUITS. That is a natural consequence, who would spend good money on "hand" made things when he can get perfect fitting tailor made suits for about the same price?

You may be sure that nobody does who has ever worn one of our tailor made suits, for "once a customer always a customer." He never changes back to wearing the forlorn, antiquated ready-to-wear, clothes—which no kind of glaring head bonnet talk will help to sell.

You see, our tailor clothes look so extremely fine on a fellow that he feels satisfied with himself and all the world. But how different with the poor unfortunate who wears the shabby, worn-out, shop suits. He feels a pity for himself, and nothing but scorn for the one who sold it to him.

The 4 different firms of whom I get tailor-made suits say that they will furnish $500 if a single ready-made suit can be found on their premises.

ROSS E. HIBLER

Notice To Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received at the office of R. Shelton, city recorder, at Scio, Oregon, including Friday, the 25th day of May, 1909, for the painting of the city hall. Canada Thistles.

All property owners in road district No. 16, are hereby notified that if there are any Canada thistles on their property that they must destroy the same immediately. All thistles not destroyed by property owners will be looked after by the road supervisor, and the cost of disposing of them will be taxed against the property.

Wm. May, Supervisor Road District No. 16, Scio, Oregon.

The following from the Grants Pass Courier refers to one of Scio's popular young ladies, and her many friends in this section will be pleased to note the success with which she is meeting.

"Miss Kate Cary went to Gold Hill Tuesday evening for her regular weekly visit to that place in her capacity as teacher of vocal and piano music. Miss Cary is an instructor of more than ordinary talent and thoroughness and the people of Gold Hill are fortunate in the opportunity her visits afford them of receiving a high quality of instruction and training in the different branches of the musical art. Gold Hill is particularly fortunate in having secured a music teacher of Miss Cary's talent, and we predict that the young people of that city will not be slow to take advantage of so excellent an opportunity for musical training."
