WAS IT AGUINALDO?

The Filipino Leader or His Adjutant Shot.

COMPANIONS TOOK HIM AWAY

Richly Caparisoned Horse Was Left With Saddle-Bags Containing Insurgent's Diary and Papers.

Viagn, Luzon, via Manila, June 5.—Major March, with his detachment of the Thirty-third regiment, overtook what is believed to have been Aguinaldo's party on May 19, at Lagat, about 100 miles northeast of Vigan. The Americans killed or wounded an officer, supposed to be Aguinaldo, whose body was removed by his followers.

Aguinaldo had 100 men. Major March 125, the American commander reaching La Boagan, where Aguinaldo had made his headquarters since March 6, on May 7. Aguinaldo had fled seven hours before leaving all the beaten trails and traveling through the forest along the beds of streams. Toward evening, May 19, Major March struck Aguinaldo's outpost about a mile outside of Lagat, killing four Filipinos and capturing two. From the latter he learned that Aguinaldo had camped there for the night, exhausted and half starved.

Major March's men entered Lagat on the run. They saw the insurgents scattering into the bushes or over the plateau. A thousand yards beyond the town, on the mountain side, the figures of 25 Filipinos dressed in white with their leader on a gray horse were silhouetted against the sunset. The Americans fired a volley and saw the officer drop from his horse. His followers fled, carrying the body. The Americans, on reaching the spot, caught the horse, which was richly saddled. Blood from a badly wounded man was on the animal and on the ground. The saddle bags contained Aguinaldo's diary and some private papers, including proclamations. One of these was addressed: "To the Civilized Nations." It protested against the American occupation of the Philippines. There was also found copies of Senator Beveridge's speech, translated into Spanish and entitled: "The Death Knell of the Filipino People."

Major March, believing that the Filipinos had taken to a river which is a tributary of the Chico, followed it for two days, reaching Tiao, where he learned that a party of Filipinos had descended the river May 20 on a raft with the body of a dead or wounded man upon a litter, covered with palm leaves. There Major March reviewed his command, shoeless and exhausted, and picked out 24 of the freshest men, with whom he beat the surrounding country for six days longer, but without finding any trace of the insurgents. The Americans pushed on, and arrived at Aparri, May 29.

The officer shot was either Aguinaldo or his adjutant, and as the horse was richly caparisoned, it is fair presumption that it was Aguinaldo.

STILL FAR FROM QUIET.

Several Disturbances by the St. Louis Car-Strikers.

St. Louis, June 5.—A riot of small proportions, during the progress of which a boy was fatally shot and a dynamite explosion occurred, marred what would have otherwise been an uneventful Sunday. As a car on the Tower line was passing the corner of Twelfth and Calhoun streets, a crowd of strike sympthizers threw rocks at it. An unknown man in the car fired a revolver into the crowd. The bullet struck Peter Frank, 16 years old, who who was sitting in the doorway of his father's house. A detachment of police dispersed the rioters. The boy will die.

At a late hour this afternoon an explosion of dynamite shattered the cable conduit and switches of the Olive street line, at the intersection of Maryland and Boyle avenues. No one was injured, but traffic on that end of the line had to be suspended. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

More than the usual quota of police was furnished today for the protection of passengers and crews, and as a result the number of cars on the various lines of the Transit Company was materially increased. Cars were operated on 16 lines.

This morning the nucleus of the first regiment of special deputies forming Sheriff Pohlmann's posse comitatus, consisting of 10 companies of 60 men, each armed with shotguns, were assigned to active service in preserving order. Their duties consisted in patroling the streets and doing guard duty at the various power houses and car sheds.

Floods in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., June 4.—Tremendous rains have fallen in the last two days. The rise in the Brazos at Waco since last night in 23 feet and the river is still rising six inches an hour. It is out of its banks, and much alarm is felt.

Trackmen and section men on the Central New England railroad in Connecticut and New York, struck for $1.50 a day.

The Strike in Chalon, France.

Chalon, Sur Saone, France, June 5.—The strike here reached a critical stage last night, and today the city is studded with soldiers. The trouble began during the afternoon, and at night the street lamps were extinguished and missles of all sorts were thrown at the cavalry and gendarmes, who fired, killing one of the rioters and wounding 20, some of them seriously. Fifteen gendarmes and two cavalrymen were injured. The trouble is not yet ended.

THE ALUM BAKING POWDERS.

Names of Some of the Principal Brands Sold in this Vicinity.

The recent discussion in the papers of the effect upon the human system of food made with alum baking powders and the opinions that have been published from noted scientists to the effect that such powders render the food unwholesome, have caused numerous inquiries for the names of the various alum powders.

The following list of baking powders containing alum is made up from the reports of state chemists and food commissioners, of Minnesota, or other reliable authority:

Baking Powders Containing Alum:

K. C. ..... Contains Alum
Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.
Calumet ..... Contains Alum
Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago.
Home ..... Contains Alum
Home Baking Powder Co., San Francisco.
Washington ..... Contains Alum
Pacific Chemical Works, Tacoma.
Crescent ..... Contains Alum
Crescent Mfg. Co., Seattle.
White Lily ..... Contains Alum
D. Ferrera & Co., Tacoma.
Bee-Hive ..... Contains Alum
Washington Mfg. Co., San Francisco.
Bon Bon ..... Contains Alum
Grant Chemical Co., Chicago.
Defiance ..... Contains Alum
Portland Coffee & Spice Co., Portland.
Portland ..... Contains Alum
Reed & Sallis, Portland.

In addition to these, it is learned that many grocers are selling what they call their own private or special brands. These powders are put up for the grocer and his name put upon the labels by manufacturers of alum powders. The manufacturers, it is said, find their efforts to market their goods in this way greatly aided by the ambition of the grocer, to sell a powder with is own name upon the label, especially when the grocer can make an abnormal profit upon it. Many grocers, doubtless, do not know that the powders they are thus pushing are alum powders which would be actually contrabrand in many sections if sold without disguise.

It is quite impossible to give the names of all the alum baking powders in the market. They are constantly appearing in all sorts of disguises, under all kinds of cognomens, and at all kinds of prices, even as low as five and 10 cents a pound. They can be avoided, however, by the housekeeper who will bear in mind that all baking powders sold at 25 cents or less per pound are liable to contain alum, as pure cream of tartar baking powders cannot be produced at anything like this price.

BURIAL OF SPANISH RULERS.

Weird Ceremonial Custom Prescribed for Royal Obsequies.

Strange and almost weird is the ceremonial which accompanies the burial of Spanish kings. The pantheon, or royal tomb, is at the palace of Escurial, situated 3,000 feet above the level of the sea and some distance from the capital. Only kings, queens and mothers of kings are buried there, the coffins of the kings lying on one side, and those of the queens on the other. After lying in state for several days in the throne-room in Madrid, says the San Francisco Argonaut, an enormous procession is formed accompanying the body to the Escurial. A halt is made on the way and the corpse rests there for one night. In the morning the lord high chamberlain stands at the side of the coffin and says in loud tones: "Is your majesty pleased to proceed on your journey?"

After a short silence the procession moves on and winds up to the grand portal of the palace. These doors are never opened except to admit a royal personage, dead or alive. When the casket containing the remains is at last placed in the vault the chamberlain unlocks it and, kneeling down, calls with a loud voice: "Senor! Senor! Senor!" After a solemn pause he cries again: "His majesty does not reply. Then it is true the king is dead!" He then locks the coffin, gives the key to the prior (the palace of the Escurial contains also a large monastry and the church) and, taking his staff of office, breaks it in pieces and flings them at the casket. The booming of guns and the tolling of bells announce to the nation that the king has gone to his final resting place.

Saving Oneself by Service.

A man was traveling over an Alpine pass. He went over the glaciers, sinking in the snow step by step, upward, until he was aweary. High on the summit of the pass a desire to sleep overcame him. He could hardly put one foot before another. Just as he was almost sinking down into the sleep which would have proved the sleep of death to him, he struck his foot against an obstacle which proved to be the body of a traveler who had preceded him. He bent down, found that the heart had not ceased to beat and began at once to rub the frozen limbs and to do his best to reanimate the body. In his effort he was successful. He saved the man's life; and, in the effort, he banished his own desire to sleep and so saved his own life in saving another.—Herald and Presbyter.

Already Tamed.

"I have decided," said the girl in blue, "that when I marry I shall marry a widower."

"Coward!" returned the girl in gray, scornfully.

Truly, it would seem that a woman should be willing to tame her own husband.—Chicago Post.

Literary Ornaments.

"What is a library, pa?"

"A library, Jimmy, is what a man has when he gets together an awful lot of books that he never has time to read."—Chicago Record.

Set a Patriotic Example.

The glory we remember we are to hand down unimpaired. The next generation needs the example of fathers as well as forefathers.—Boston Congregationalist

THE VOTE OF OREGON

Republicans Win the General Election.

THE MAJORITY IS NOT LARGE

Republican Candidates for State Offices and Congressmen Elected—Legislature Will Be Republican.

Portland, June 5.—Returns received up to 3 o'clock this morning give very little definite information. They indicate, however, that the state is safely Republican. The vote polled fell considerable short of the registration, and for the most part the election was very quiet. Wolverton is re-elected judge of the supreme court, and Bailey is re-elected dairy and food commissioner. Moody is safe for congressman in the Second district and probably Tongue in the first, with slightly reduced plurality. The legislature will be Republican, but probably less heavily so than the last one. Fusionists were successful in electing part of the county officers in several counties.

Vote by Counties.

Multnomah—Results in Multnomah county were mixed. Moody has a majority of 5,000. Rowe, Republican, is probably elected mayor.

Baker—Incomplete returns show that the Republicans carried the county by a small plurality.

Clatsop—The Republican state ticket has a large majority in this county.

Umatilla—Democrats will carry most of the county offices, but the Republican state ticket will receive a majority.

Wasco—Indications are that Moody's majority is about that of two years ago.

Gilman—Returns from this county indicate a close contest. Three precincts heard from give Moody 166, Smith 130. The Democrats will elect some of the county officers.

Morrow—Morrow has gone Republican by 200. Moody leads the ticket. Republican county ticket is elected.

Grant—The Republican state and legislative ticket carried this county. For sheriff and school superintendent Democrats are elected.

Union—The vote in this county is close, five precincts giving Moody 253, Smith 232.

Sherman—Moody is in the lead in this county.

Marion—Incomplete returns from nearly all precincts indicate that the Republican ticket is elected by a large majority.

Douglas—Indications are that the entire Republican ticket is elected in this county, with the exception of assessor and one representative, which are in doubt. Tongue is running up with his ticket. Wolverton is getting his party vote.

Yamhill—Tongue has carried this county. Vote on county officers is close. Democrats make a gain.

Columbia—Moody will have 300 majority in this county.

Lane—The election of the entire Republican legislative ticket is conceded. Tongue is ahead.

Linn—Partial returns from 10 out of 30 precincts in this county indicate the election of two Republican representatives. Judge Wolverton will carry the county by probably 500. Tongue is running ahead of his ticket.

Jackson—Of 280 votes counted, Tongue gets 153 and Daly 115. Democrats carried a number of county officers.

Josephine—One-third of the total vote in Grant's Pass shows a Republican majority of 25 on state officers. Representatives about even.

Clackamas — Incomplete returns from seven precincts show Republican pluralities for Tongue 174, Wolverton 165, Bailey 50. It is conceded that the entire Republican county ticket is elected with the exception of sheriff.

Benton—Five precincts complete out of 15 give Daly 278, Tongue 257. Democrats here probably carried the county.

Klamath—Contest is close and results uncertain.

Coos—It is conceded that the legislative and district Republican ticket is successful. The county ticket will be mixed.

Curry—Five precincts in this county give Daly 77, Tongue 129.

Polk—Nine out of 21 precincts give 486 for the Republicans and 420 for the Fusionists.

Nearing Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, June 5.—The Boxers are reported four miles off, and an attack is expected. Everything is ready, and the residents are confident. Thirty-five German missionaries arrived here this evening. Three Belgian engineers have arrived. The French consul says 11 are missing, but there are hopes of saving them.

Gomez in Havana.

Havana, June 5.—General Maximo Gomez arrived here this morning. He was met by representatives of the various political societies and an enthusiastic crowd. On reaching the palace Gomez stood up in his carriage and saluted General Wood, who was on the balcony.

Baden Weiler, Baden, June 6.—Stephen Crane, the American author and war correspondent, died here today, aged 30 years.
