BY THE EDITOR

A Florida man has started an alligator ranch. He thinks there are fine openings in the business—and unquestionably he will see many whenever his "cattle" yawn.

Bicycles are to be fitted with music box attachments. At present the chief feature of this character associated with them is the music the rider produces when a tire blows up twenty miles from a repair shop.

President Kruger may sail for Europe in a few days. It is perhaps unnecessary to explain that he does not intend to visit London, though the authorities there would probably take great care of him should he come.

Formosa savages have taken to cutting off the heads of resident Japanese officials lately. The familiar expression about losing one's official head appears to be something more over there than the half joke we make of it here.

President Kruger has taken refuge in foreign territory and, according to all rule and precedent, the Transvaal is a conquered country. All Lord Roberts now has to do is to teach this to De Wet, Botha and a few thousand other husky fellows who seem uncommonly slow to learn any such a lesson.

During his late visit to Pomerania Emperor William distributed three hundred decorations and titles. Apparently the Kaiser holds something the same idea as did good-natured old King Victor Emanuel of Italy, who was quoted as saying: "There are two things a King should never refuse anybody who wants them—decorations and cigars."

The disaster at Galveston, Texas, and other points in that section was one of the most appalling that has ever visited this country. Galveston was built on an island in the Gulf of Mexico. Let people imagine a gale blowing at the rate of over 80 miles an hour, demolishing the most substantial buildings, sending death and destruction in every direction; and in the midst of this, waves from the gulf dashing ever upon the island to a depth of six to eight feet, drowning like rats those who have been fortunate enough to escape falling walls and flying timbers. Indeed, it is too awful to contemplate, and if the hearts of a united country ever went out to a people it should turn to those of our southern neighbors, today. Not only sympathy but financial aid are needed and should be forwarded the unfortunates from all parts of the Union.

"In dismissing the petition for revetment work, above this city, the county commissioners of Linn county have committed a grave error. The rejection of assistance appears to have been based on the assumption that the Santiam river, and all the bridges that span it, are Marion county property. Barton's delay last year has cost the taxpayers of that county something like a thousand dollars more in repairing the Stayton bridge. Palmer's inactivity may cost them many times this amount in building a new one, if the river channel should change, as appears to be inevitable at next high water."

The above is from the editorial columns of the Stayton Mail, and the substance of it indicates that the people of Marion county would like to have the county court of this county do what the Marion county court should do. We have no control of the Santiam river, and if it sees fit to wash away the bank on the Marion county side it is nothing to Linn county. The bridge at that place has been a source of great annoyance ever since its construction, and the Marion county end of it has caused the greatest trouble. When it was built Linn county had the greater portion of it to construct, as the river channel was then on this side, and besides this county had to build a much longer approach than Marion. Linn county has done her share in this bridge matter, and we think the commissioners did the right thing when they declined to grant the petition to appropriate the county's money to build improvements in Marion county.

Powder Mill Explosion.

Removes everything in sight, so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. No need to dynamite your body when Dr. King's New Life Pills do the work so easily and perfectly. Cures Headache, Constipation. Only 25 cents at Peery & Peery's drug store.

KILLED WITH A CLUB.

Lane County Lunatic Beats His Wife to Death.

JUNCTION CITY, Or., Sept. 18.—Herman Petersdorf, a German farmer living about seven miles from this place, brutally murdered his wife by beating her to death with a club about 11 o'clock last night. He followed up the act by killing himself this morning by taking poison. The first known of the crime was when he called at the house of Fred Williamson, and told him that he had killed his wife, and asked him to go and help to bury her. Williamson told him to go home and that he would feel better in a short time, as he thought he was only talking. The body when found was in a terrible condition. Her teeth were knocked loose and her head crushed in. Those who best knew Petersdorf say he showed signs of insanity for the past two years. They leave three children, the oldest being but seven years of age and the youngest only four months. Louis Schwader, father of the murdered woman, has charge of the children.

The club with which the man killed his wife was about three feet long, and about as large as a man's arm and he evidently struck her several times with it.

He Owes His Life to the Forethought of a Companion.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. L. Stump, of Normantown, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral.—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

Profit in Good Exhibit.

That it pays to come to the fair and bring an exhibit of farm products is amply demonstrated by the experience of J. R. Douglas, a farmer residing near Albany, says the Salem correspondent of the Oregonian. Mr. Douglas' display of potatoes has enabled him to make many sales, one of 500 bushels at 40 cents, the purchaser furnishing sacks. This is considerably above the market price. He has also taken many orders for onions and other garden vegetables. The time he is spending at the fair would have been spent in hunting purchasers at home and here he gets an advanced price.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After 30 Years of Suffering.

"I suffered for 30 years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

Oregon Eggs for Alaska.

It is perhaps not generally known that a considerable proportion of the eggs laid by Linn county hens go as food to miners in Alaska, but this is true, and hundreds of dozens have lately been shipped there.

S. E. Young & Son have for some time been making regular shipments of nearly all the eggs they send away to Skagway, Alaska, and other shippers have also been supplying the Alaska markets. Eggs are now 22½ cents per dozen, but by the time they reach the people of Alaska they will cost several times that price.—Albany Herald.

It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparillas and so called purifiers fail; knowing this, we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Peery & Peery, druggist.

A New Clothing Store.

W. B. Stevens & Co. have opened a well stocked clothing and furnishing goods department at their store in the Froman block. It occupies one entire large room, and is filled with all the newest styles of up-to-date clothing, boots and shoes, hats and furnishing goods for men and boys. Nathan Needham is in charge of this department.—Albany Herald.

The Albany base ball team has challenged the "Mighty" Torpedoes of Portland, to a friendly game of ball. The latter claim the championship of the Northwest, but the Albany team is not slow, and would like to demonstrate to the team of the metropolis that there are others who know something of the national game.—Herald.

MISCELLANEOUS

The State Teachers' association will convene in Albany January 27, 28 and 29, 1901, and will be largely attended by the leading educators of the country.

The Ashland Tidings reports the purchase of 400 head of cattle from Emigrant Creek stockmen at 3½ cents per pound, to be delivered at Ashland September 20.

Choice and select fresh eggs are higher at San Francisco and are expected to rule still higher soon. The quotation for fresh eggs range from 23 to 28 cents per dozen.

The San Francisco market for potatoes has improved a little and it appears probable that Oregon Burbanks will bring satisfactory prices there again this season.

The horse cannery at Portland has shut down. Too good a market for horses and in Europe restrictive laws are being passed. Horse flesh is not a natural food and its use should not be allowed.

An American violinist in Berlin has allowed annoymous letter writers to drive him to suicide. One could sympathize with him more deeply if they had driven him to murder—if the forcible "removal" of such cowardly assailants could be dignified by such a name.

The Journal says of the state fair: The county exhibits are developing handsomely, and Marion county will not have a walk over. In fact, Linn county has laid herself out to capture the prize out of the half dozen counties exhibiting. The Agricultural college, as usual, has a grand display of grains, fruits, plants and vegetables.

The hay-compressing industry at Forest Grove, which has been in operation day and night for the past two months by Senator E. W. Haines and M. H. Shipley, filling government contracts for Manila, has finished. Messrs. Haines and Shipley purchased at an average price of $11 per ton 2700 tons of hay. They have shipped three separate shipments to Manila. The first contained 500 tons, the second 1500 tons and the last 500 tons.

"See the melting sunset!" exclaimed the poetic young woman; "see how the crystal tints seem to be stolen from the rainbow mist and hung boldly over the mountain, like banners of beauty, only to fade, alas, with the dying daylight." "I beg your pardon," said the young man with close cut hair, "but would you mind saying all that again?" "Do you think it so very pretty?" "I should say so! I'm going to write it down. 'Melting sunset,' 'crystal tints,' 'rainbow mist,' 'dying daylight'—they're great! You see I'm going to run an 'American bar' in Europe, and I've been puzzled almost to death trying to think up new names for mixed drinks."—Washington Star.

There is a law firm in Newark composed of two men whose parents lived in adjoining houses at the time of their birth and during their childhood. They were born in the same month of the same year, went to the same public school and occupied adjoining desks. As they grew older they were sent to a boarding school, where they were roommates. They entered the same class at college, roomed together for four years, graduated on the same day, went to the same law school, when they also roomed together, entered into a partnership on the day when they were both admitted to the bar, married sisters and have since occupied adjoining houses. Their partnership has already lasted thirty-five years. Notwithstanding all this intimacy they do not belong to the same religious denomination nor to the same political party. They seem to agree upon everything else.

A Painful Accident.

Mrs. Bell Grimes, who resides near Harrisburg, met with a painful accident one day last week. Herself and husband had returned from a drive, and she was sitting in the buggy while he unhitched the team. When all the traces but one were unhitched the horses lit out. The buggy was jerked along for a short distance, when she jumped to the ground. In falling her right arm was broken between the elbow and wrist and the left wrist was dislocated.

Advice of a Druggist

"It is proper, I think, to let others know about the popularity and virtues of Acker's English Remedy for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. From the moment I began handling it, it sold rapidly, and the sales keep growing all the time as fast as people find out what a remarkable preparation it is. The satisfaction it gives is universal. Our best citizens use it and say it is the best thing for throat and lung troubles they ever saw. Mr. S. H. Culver, one of our prominent townsmen, says Acker's English Remedy is the only medicine that helped his chronic cough of many years' standing. At first it gave relief, and now, after taking a few bottles, he is wholly cured. I buy it by the gross at a time, and my sales are larger on this one medicine than on any other in my store. It is a great pleasure for me to feel that while I am prospering I am also doing so much good to the community in selling such a grand medicine." (Signed) R. E. DOUGLAS, Westfield, N. Y.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. It is especially prized by mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough, as it always affords quick relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

Summer Resorts.

"To the mountains of our people in increasing numbers yearly look for those days of relaxation and recreation necessary to maintain the human machine in fair working condition. The languorous sloth of the seashore proves very seductive while it lasts, but many have decided that the annual outing should provide not only radical change of air and surroundings, but also stimulation of flagging energies as will provide brawn and vigor for the return to labor. For this they urge the mountain climb and ramble, the balsam of the mountain pines, and the clear, unadulterated mountain air."

"In this direction the Shasta Route now affords a wealth of attractions. The entire line of road from Ashland to Redding is studded with charming and accessible hotels and camps, where are cheer and comfort and healing at reasonable cost, and where you can hunt, fish, ride, loaf, or play with equal facility."

"Or if you look for healing waters none better can be found, hot or cold than the springs of Ashland, Colestin, Anderson, Bartlett, Byron and Paso Robles."

"Before visiting Europe, the people of the Northwest should see the glories of Yosemite Valley, and the wondrous groves of Mariposa and Calaveras; the Parisians are likely to make inquiries concerning these attractive resorts."

Send to Mr. C. H. Markham, General Passenger Agent, Portland, for new booklets on Castle Crag, Shasta Springs, McCloud River, Yosemite, and excursion rates thereto."
