SHEARED

A lunatic attacked the Empress of Japan in the street lately, throwing his purse at her. Lots of people in this country could forgive that sort of an attempt at assassination—provided the purse were properly loaded.

Last year seven and a half million letters went in the Dead Letter Office, something over a million dollars being contained therein. Which shows that our people continue to be careless about trifling matters of money.

A farmer residing near Sheridan was compelled to neglect his work to be in attendance on his wife who was sick at Salem, and while he was absent his neighbors assembled at his place and put in 50 acres of grain in one day.

Some New Jersey people are having a legal fight over the right to fill Turkish Government contracts involving $500,000. Unless the Sultan has paid for the work in advance, somebody must be "dead anxious" to lose a lot of money.

The citizens of Elmira, New York, whose Mayor has just been arrested for forgery, may take comfort in the fact that the man whom he defeated for the office is already in the penitentiary. There's nothing so bad that it mightn't be worse.

A Scotchman has bought an Alaskan island and proposes to embark in the business of raising skunks. When his industry is once fairly under way anyone else desiring to own an island can probably buy one in his vicinity rather cheaply.

Three Louisiana men, partners in business, had a quarrel recently, but a very brief "argument" served to remove all chance of future disagreement. Whether or not the surgeon will continue to carry on the business at the old stand has not yet been announced.

Ex-Governor Penoyer is nothing if not unique. He explains the situation in the following sensational way: "Bryan has defeated himself again. He depended upon his oratory and lost by shifting attention from McKinley's blunders to his own extravagances. Had his acceptance speech been his last he might have won. Between Cleveland's treason and Bryan's egotism the democratic party has been nearly crucified."

Postage stamps that are damaged by sticking together in warm or damp weather may be returned to the department and their value repaid to the purchaser or exchanged for new stamps. If you spoil a stamped envelope in attempting to write the address on it, do not throw it away, for you can also return it to the post office and receive the stamp value. All the redeemed envelopes and stamps are sent to the post office department by the postmaster redeeming them. These regulations are not generally known and they may be of some benefit to a large number of people.

Six Frightful Failures.
Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Muller of Lookland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, including Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Peery & Peery's Drug Store.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in Chicago.
Higen Bros., the popular South Side druggists, corner 69th street and Wentworth avenue, say: "We sell a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and find that it gives the most satisfactory results, especially among children for severe colds and croup." For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

School Notes.
Col. Holt addressed the pupils Friday.
Miss Jessie Daley was a visitor Tuesday.

Levi C. A. Woolley visited all the rooms Wednesday.
Prof. Kate Cary will have charge of the music during the institute December 14 and 15.

County Supt. Jackson is preparing quite a program for the institute.
Lift your hat reverently when you pass the teacher of the primary school. She is the great angel of the republic. She takes the battling fresh from the home nest, full of poats and passions—an unenviable little fellow whose own mother honestly admits that she sends him to school to get rid of him. The lady who knows her business takes a whole car load of these, one of whom sing her praises and alone, is more than a match for his parents, and at once puts them in a way of being useful and upright citizens. At what expense of toil, patience and soul-weariness! Lift your hat to her, O ye teachers!

A man that has little sympathy can never be a teacher in the best sense of the word. He may be a hearer of recitations, a martinet of discipline, an enforcer of spurious attention, but he has no power to touch the heart, and through the heart to fashion the mind and will into a form of blended strength and ability. Under the best teaching there is a focusing of interest which flows from attention.—Education.
