MAKE A CLEAN FIGHT.

There is no use talking the people of Oregon do not want H. W. Corbett for United States senator. If today Oregon could do as it liked—select a senator by direct vote—Corbett would get but a small fraction of the popular vote. Here is where the infamy attaches to election of senators by the legislature.

The man with money to throw at the birds and who wants to spend it for political glory shakes a few bills at legislative weaklings—and every state has them—and the thing is done.

Corbett's friends know that in an open, fair fight Corbett would not stand a ghost of a show. It is in the secret way where the clink of coin is a silent but effective force is giving to some aspirants the honor they never could achieve in an open fight.

We take it that this is the method that the Oregonian wants pursued and is what it pleases to term "dignified and amicable way" of selecting a senator. We do not know who is to be the next senator, but we do know to a certainty that if the Oregon legislature is not drawn into a secret caucus the man selected will not be Corbett. Let the Oregon legislature go on record this time for decency and integrity! let the fight be made in the open and let the best man win. That is what the people of Oregon expect and that is what the legislators are elected to do.—Eugene Register.

Relative to the much mooted senatorial question, the Eugene Register makes some strong points. It holds that however much the energy and enterprise of Hon. H. W. Corbett may be admired, it is a potent fact that his age and body infirmities render him unsuitable for a representative of this state in the senate of the United States. In the second place it is held that even if Mr. Corbett were a younger men he would not be suitable, for the reason that he does not stand well in administration circles. [Corbett has made his bid for the senatorship on the ground that he is opposed to the administration's policy towards our new posessions and also the quasi-administration policy of a ship subsidy.] This being the case, he would lack the necessary influence to serve Oregon well in this time of crisis to Pacific Coast development. The last point is especially well taken, as it is often overlooked. Our new commercial expansion on the Pacific has opened up vast possibilities for the West, and each state is hustling for first place in the race. Was there ever a time when a man of influence was more needed at Washington? It cannot be denied that Senator McBride has a stand in with the administration, and generally gets what he goes after. In what way would a change, then, be benificial? The only answer is that Mr. Corbett wants the position, and being rich therefore ought to have it. The legislature which meets this month has to decide between the best interests of Oregon and the ambitions of Mr. Corbett, and a decision for the latter will open up some leading questions of misplaced confidence by betrayed constituencies.—Newberg Graphic.

We are in receipt of a Photo map of that portion of Linn and Lane counties, which is causing some discussion regarding the proposed change in county line. The change of the south boundary of Linn county, would give back to this county the strip of land which was given to Lane county some time ago through an error on the part of the legislature, and as the land is more accessible from Linn county than from Lane, owing to the roads in this county reaching into it, is no more than right that the legislative body should again include the land within the borders of Linn county.

Senator McBride is a member of the committee on inter-oceanic canals. Rather an important position just at present, and one which Oregon cannot afford to lose merely to gratify the personal ambition of the writer of the Driver letters and organizer of the legislative hold-up, which cost Oregon an immence sum of money and disgraced her in the eyes of the country.—Port Orford Tribune.

The Oregon Legislature met at Salem Monday, and affected permanent organization without a hitch. C. W. Fulton, of Astoria, was elected president of the senate, and L. B. Reeder, of Umatilla county, was chosen as speaker of the house. The election of Fulton is looked upon as a victory for McBride, and he will probably be chosen to succeed himself as United States senator.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley of Peterson, Ia., and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 75 years old, I now am able to do all my house work." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Peery & Peery's drug store.

Timber Purchae.

The Booth-Kelly Co., of Eugene, have recently purchased a fine body of timber located about twelve miles from Cottage Grove, on Brumbeau river, a tributary of the Willamatte. The property consists of 15,000 acres and the price was $30,000. It consists mainly of fir, cedar and hemlock, and will be worked by this company. They will probably move one of the Saginaw mills into this timber belt the coming season. The Booth-Kelly Co. now operates four mills with a combined capacity of a quarter of a million feet in ten hours.

A Prominent Chicago Woman Speaks

Prof. Roxa Tyler, of Chicago, vice-president Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

Brought Good Fortune.

A small item in his own paper lately brought amazing good fortune to Editor Chris. Reitter, of the Saginaw (Mich.) Post and Zeitung. He and his family had the Grip in its worst form. Their doctor did them no good. Then he read that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds was a guaranteed cure for La Grippe and all Throat and Lung troubles; tried it and says: "Three bottles cured the whole family. No other medicine on earth equals it." Only 50c and $1.00 at Peery & Peery's drug store. Trial bottles free.

The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Peery & Peery, druggists.

A Wise Man From The West.

Who intends going East will see that his ticket reads by way of Salt Lake City and the Rio Grande Western Railway in connection with either the Denver & Rio Grande or Colorado Midland railroads, for these reasons: First, most magnificent scenery in America en route; second, choice of three distinct routes through the heart of the Rocky Mountains; third, it is the only trans-continental line passing directly through quaint and picturesque Salt Lake—the City of the Saints; fourth, perfect dining car service; fifth, three fast through trains daily between Ogden, Denver and all points East, connecting with all trains of the Southern Pacific, Oregon Railway & Navigation Company and Oregon Short Line; sixth, through Pullman Palace and Ordinary Sleeping Cars from San Francisco, Portland, etc., to Denver, Omaha and Chicago. There are many other reasons why the route through Salt Lake City over the Rio Grande Western Railway is the most comfortable and enjoyable in the whole country. By inquiry, you can learn a great deal on the subject of transcontinental travel. J. B. Mansfield, General Agent, 2 3 Washington St., Portland, Ore. Geo. W. Heintz, General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

PLAYED OUT.

Dull Headache, Pains in various parts of the body, Sinking at the pit of the stomach, Loss of appetite, Feverishness, Pimples or Sores are all positive evidences of impure blood. No matter how it became so it must be purified in order to obtain good health. Acker's Blood Elixir has never failed to cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons or any other blood diseases. It is certainly a wonderful remedy, and we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Peery & Peery, druggist.

Will Take A Rest.

In this country half a million patents for new and useful inventions have been issued during the past twenty-five years; in the previous seventy-five years only about one hundred and fifty thousand patents had been issued.

If we ask what new iventions are possible, the credulous optimist replies that as we now talk with our friends fifteen hundred miles away, we shall soon see their faces, even if a like distance seperates them from us, that aeriel navigation is upon the eve of adoption to commercial uses, and that electricity is about to be generated directly from heat.

On the other hand, the pessimist believes us to be at the end of invention. When he looks into the future no wonders are disclosed to him.

The thoughtful man seeks the mean, and concludes that as food must be digested before the ability to assimilate more returns, so the discoveries of the past must be utilized more fully; and that invention will be directed for a time to this work.—Chas. H. Duell, United Sirtes Commissioner of Patents, in The Youth's Companion.

An old criminal was once asked what was the first step that led to his ruin, and he answered: "The first step that led to my downfall was cheating an editor out of a two years' subscription. When I had done that the devil had such a grip on me that I could not shake him off."—Ex.

A Grocer Says

"I guess everybody in Bellevue, Ohio, knows O. B. Callaghan, the grocer. I am in his employ, and am about as well known as he is. A grocery is a place where you have cold gusts of wind coming in every time the door opens, and there is a good deal of running about outdoors too. Anyhow, I catch cold very often, but the minute I begin to sneeze I reach up on the shelf and take a dose of Acker's English Remedy. I tell you it is wonderful how quickly it stops a cough or cold. I have used it myself, and in my family for a number of years. It works like a charm. I suppose some of the folks would have run into consumption before this if I had neglected to keep a bottle ready all the time for immediate use. I wouldn't think of using anything else for throat and lung trouble. I know what Acker's Remedy actually does, so what sense is there in experimenting? Certainty is better than chance." (Signed) Jous Horr.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d. 2s. 3d. 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee.
