When a woman is really happy she is either terribly in love or else free from it.

Because her husband can't or won't talk, a New York woman is suing for a divorce. Never a man will ever be able to put in any such plea.

News comes from Vermont of a young man who, within twelve hours, lost a luxuriant head of hair and became completely bald. And he wasn't married, either.

Minnesota is trying to pass a law preventing the marriage of people who are liable to have fits. There are already plenty of laws for rearranging matrimonial mis-fits.

When you are billous, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe. Peery & Peery druggists, Scio, Ore.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases. Peery & Peery, dugglsts, Ssio, Ore.

A Kansas convict has just been pardoned for aiding to defeat the late State prison mutiny. If he is wise he won't stay around receiving boquets until any of his former comrades get out.

England indignantly denies the mistaken report that she has seized some small island belonging to Turkey. She is not to be blamed for disputing a charge of this kind—when she can.

The lingering cough following grippe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption. Peery & Peery druggists, Scio, Ore.

Utensils of glass will hold water because the globules of water are too big to squeeze through the glass; but glass is as full of holes as a sponge, and air blows right through it, because the specks of molecules air are smaller than the holes.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. Peery & Peery druggists, Scio, Ore.

An Eastern scientist lately went to Arizona to obtain specimens of the rare "ground bee," He found several thousand, all at once—and the doctor thinks that in a few weeks, if no complications result, he may be in a condition to write a graphic account of some of their habits.

It is said that the powers of either man or woman are developed fivefold by working with a life-companion who is in entire harmony. The ideal wife as a rule has it in her power to make the ideal husband. What constitutes the ideal wife is discussed in an extremely able article by Lavinia Hart in the April Cosmopolitan.

Greatest of All

"Every one in San Antonio, Texas, says that Acker's English Remedy is the greatest thing ever put up for coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, croup and consumption. I have been using it over four years for all forms of throat and lung troubles, and have yet to come across a case where it failed. We have four little ones in our family, and neither my wife nor I have ever lost a night's sleep because of throat troubles among the children. I guess that is more than any other family can say. Acker's English Remedy is just as effective for grown-up people as for the young. It seems to go straight to the place where the trouble lies in the throat and bronchial tubes and lungs. It soothes and heals the irritated tissues, loosens up the phlegm and mucus in the breathing passages, quiets the nerves, invigorates the constitution and stops the coughing. My advice to parents is to always keep a bottle in the house. It will be a constant safeguard against croup." (Signed)

F. G. ZIMMERMAN, San Antonio, Tex.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

We authorize the above guarantee.

Current Topics of General Interest

The sum of 100,000 francs was bequeathed to the French Academy of Sciences in 1891 to be awarded to the first person who would be successful in communicating with another world. The Academy at first did not care to accept such a curious bequest, but finally it did so in the following words: "Madame Veuve Guzmann, a friend of astronomy and a believer in the plurality of inhabited worlds, has left to the Academy the sum of 100,000 francs to be given as a prize to the person who shall first enter into communication of an astre other than the planet Mars." The will wisely stipulates that each time the prize has not been awarded for a period of five years, the accumulated interest shall be devoted to a work which will help the progress of astronomy. The intentions of the founder will be scrupulously followed. Astronomers naturally wonder why Mars was debarred.—Scientific American.

What is undoubtedly the finest piece of horological work ever performed, was finished in time to be placed on exhibition during the closing days of the Paris Exposition. This is a watch which, although only a little more than two inches in diameter, has twenty-four separate and distinct mechanical movements besides the regular timekeeping function. Equipped with this timepiece, one may be enabled to instantly learn the time in all of the important cities of the world, as well as the latitude, the season of the year, the day of the week and month, the phase of the moon, and a great deal of information of this character which is less commonly called for. The mechanism of this watch is so perfect that allowance is made for the leap-year calculation. This timepiece was made to order for a very eminent patron of the watchmaker's art and cost $5,000.

The new law in reference to taking up estray needs to be studied, as there is a provision for a fine of $10 to $100 to take up an estray without complying with the provisions of the act. When an estray is taken up three notices have to be posted. It is provided though that no estrays shall be taken up during the months of May to November inclusive except breachy or vicious animals which may be taken up in any month. Within ten days the owner may claim and secure the animal upon the payment of $1 fee and a reasonable price for keeping it. After ten days the county clerk is notified and the animal is appraised and sold, being advertised in a newspaper if over $15 value.

A patient in the New York Hospital for the Insane was instantly restored to sanity after having been struck on the head by a cuspidor thrown by another patient. The only trouble about the general adoption of that method of treatment is that it is just as likely to kill as to cure.

The U. S. has a large and increasing trade with Manchuria, the Chinese province which has passed under Russian control, but whether the change will effect that trade is not yet positively known, although it is feared that it will.

A cyclone whisked over an Illinois town night before last, destroyed a church and a lot of good honest barns—and left the saloons standing. Things like this are calculated to drive churchgoing farmers to drink.

King Edward's apology for calling the members of the Kansas legislature "royal subjects" brought out the fact that the King uses a prepared form of circular letter to reply to letters addressed to him.

Probably the most gigantic real estate deal ever made was the purchase by eastern capitalists for $40,000,000 of all the land owned by the Northern Pacific Railroad west of the Missouri River.

The commander of the Russian squadron on the China coast is an admiral named Mouvouf. But as the British and Japanese observe, he doesn't seem the least bit inclined to mouv ouf.

The will of a New York woman directed that her body be kept in a warm room five days after death, whether for fear of being buried alive or a desire to get acclimated was not stated.

Russia now threatens Germany with a tariff war. Well, that would be more satisfactory to our interests than for a combination of European powers to make a tariff war on the U. S.

They are beginning to talk of hanging dog thieves up in the Arctic mining regions. Human life doesn't seem to be valued particularly up there, but a dog—a dog's property.

The late boom in Gould securities it said to have increased the aggregate fortune of the family by forty millions. It might pay little Count Boni to be civil to Brother George again.

Somebody must be indulging in dreams of a Hawaiian Monte Carlo. Efforts are being made in the Hawaiian legislature to repel the anti-gambling laws.

Chicago has another biggest thing of its kind, in the eight-track movable bridge across the drainage canal, just completed at a cost of $720,000.

Strikes A Rich Find.

"I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H., "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family. Try them. The Country of Sherdian's Ride.

The unique project of photographing the entire route of Sherman's ride, from Winchester, Virginia, to Cedar Creek, as it is today, has been carried out by The Ladies' Home Journal, and the result will be shown in a picture story of fourteen photographs. Sherman and his aides on horse back, from historical pictures, have been introduced into each picture, so that the ride of 1864 is shown as if it were taken to-day through that country, which, in reality, has changed but little.

Facts Easily Proven.

Man who is married to a woman during house-cleaning time is of a few days and full of carpet tacks. A cloud obscureth his vision and great gobs of dark brown gloom possesseth his soul. He riseth up betimes and sniffeth the morning air with a heavy heart and an abstructed nose. He snatcheth a few pancakes from the griddle and rusheth to his labors depressed in spirit and saturated with dyspepsia. He returneth at noon and falleth over a mop. The dull sickening of the belarruped carpet is heard in the land. The Queen of the household crowneth herself with a dirty towel and a fierce look. She resembleth an avenging angel. Her sceptre is a broom. The carpet fuzz clinging to the salvage of her nose. Large quantities of real estate settleth among the dimples of her swan-like neck. Her eyes glareth with the fury of great enterprise. She maketh her spouse to eat dinner from the iron ing board in the kitchen, which resteth on two chairs. He findeth a cake of soap beside his plate and a portion of the scalp of the scrubbing brush in the butter. At night he returneth to his home with a timid halting step. He feareth the worst. The switch of the peach limb is still heard as it poundeth a fifty-dollar carpet into shreads. He drinketh a little cold tea from a tin cup, and prepareth for bed. A live carpet tack burieth its fang in his foot. He yelleth in agony, and bumps the ceiling in a vain and futile effort to jump through the roof. He lieth down on his couch and wetteth his pillow with tears. The family dog howleth beneath his window like the wail of a damned soul and no one in the house sleepheth. The fetid fragrance of bedbug specific of smelleth to heaven and the aroma of new-laid moth balls sifted through the cover of the clothes chest Who hath woe? Who hath sorrow? Who hath redness of eyes and a stopped up nose? He who monkeyeth with house cleaning. Who masheth this thumb? Who polluteth his lips with blasphemy? Who imperilleth his immortal soul? He who tarryeth at home to tack down carpets.—Ex.

An Honest Medicine For La Grippe.

George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says, "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills, and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlains Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufactures of an honest medicine." For sale by Peery & Peery.
