Beginning with April 1st it is unlawful to ride bicycles on the sidewalks in the business part of town, and those who ride should look out for their safety.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given at the Epistlet church, last Sunday evening. It would have been a great deal better, appreciated had it not been for the disgraceful conduct of a number of hoodlum boys.

Wm. Morrow, formerly of this city, and Miss Ida Wallace, of Lebanon, were married at Spokane, Wash., March 20, 1901. The groom is well known here, and is a nephew of G. W. Morrow, of this city. They have the hearty congratulations of a host of friends hereabouts.

Prof. J. E. Lanning, M.D., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Knebel's Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Knebel's Dyspepsia Cure." T. S. Coffey traded a saddle for a bicycle last week, and put in Thursday morning learning to ride the critter. He did not show up at the harness shop Monday until late, and seemed to walk as though he was tired. He said he could ride the thing all right if he could get it to stand up straight. That's the rub with most any one who just starts out in the bicycle world but they get over that after enduring bumps and bruises enough to last a fellow for the balance of his life. We tried it, and we know just how it done.

There is trouble brewing for a number of Scio's young lads—and some who are not so young—if they do not mend their ways. Marshall Blyden has just about got his Irish up, and says that things must change. He has every citizen in town, who believes in law and order, right at his back, and if there is not a little less hoodlumism in the future some of younger fry will find themselves being hanged from a tree. There are number of boys in Scio who are daily causing grey hairs on the heads of their parents by their heedless actions, and their utter disregard or respect for the feelings of others. They congregate in public places and use language which would put to shame an old time pirate, and even go to church and create a disturbance so annoying that people do not feel like going there and being compelled to witness the conduct of those hoodlums. Parents are responsible for this state of affairs, and should teach their children better. It is utterly false for parents to say that they cannot make their child obedient, and it is an excuse that no sane person should make. They can teach them better, and should be compelled to do so. The recorder's court is not the proper place for them to learn the lesson of good behavior, but they can be assured that when they are presented to that office they will receive the full limit of the law. Our people have put up with a good deal, and a few days in jail might help matters some.

County Exhibits at the State Fair.

The liberal premium offered for county exhibits at the Oregon State Fair this year will afford every county in this state an opportunity to exhibit their resources.
