Swallowed His False Teeth.
A man recently swallowed his false teeth and they are now in his stomach. He stands a great deal, but not everything. If you are weak try Hostetter's stomach Bitters. It cures indigestion, constipation, kidney and liver troubles, as well as malaria and fever and ague. It is particularly effective in all nervous ailments, and is strongly recommended at this season of the year when the system is run down and most susceptible to disease. All druggists sell it.

Immersion.
"Go bury the sorrow," said I.
The man bowed his head and went his way. That night I came upon him drinking heavily.
"Is this the way you bury your sorrow?" I said.
"Hush! this is a burial at sea!" said the man, with a bitter, haunting smile.
I felt much pity for him, thereupon, and would have had something had he asked me.—Detroit Journal.

ALUM BAKING POWDER.
Declared by the Court to be Unwholesome, and its Sale in Violation of the Pure Food Laws.

A case in the courts of Davenport, Iowa, the other day appears to have fixed the status of the alum baking powder as an illicit article of trade. It seems that The Pure Food Co. of Chicago, sold to a firm of grocers in Davenport a quantity of baking powder called "Pure Food Baking Powder." The grocers sold some of it, ascertained that it was an alum powder, returned the powder unsold to the manufacturers and refused to pay for it. The manufacturers sued to collect.

The case was tried before Judge Bollinger and a jury. Attorneys Neal & Neal, and S. A. Flinger defended the grocers. It is shown that the powder contained alum. The defense claimed, consequently, that it was injurious to health and that traffic in it was against public policy. Expert testimony was introduced to show that alum when taken into the stomach would influence the gastric juices to the detriment of the person using it.

The jury rendered a verdict for the defendants, which means that alum baking powders are deleterious to health, their sale illegal in the state. The pure food laws of the state are upheld.

A Case of Contagion.
She—Do you believe in this theory about spreading disease by kissing?
He—Well, they say there's something in it.
Did you ever catch anything by kissing a girl?
Yes, once, my father saw me at it.—Yonkers Statesman.

GRIP CAUSED IT

THE AFTER EFFECTS MADE LIFE MISERABLE FOR A YEAR.

One of the Peculiarities of a Disease That Will Not Stay Cured—How It Was Driven Out.
From Reporter-Journal, Gardiner, Me.
Grip often leads to pneumonia. More frequently it will appear to be cured but leaves the patient bristling in health, short of breath after slight exertion and affected by every change of weather—a fit subject for the many diseases induced by the inclemency of early spring.

How this may be avoided, how the system may be cleansed of the lingering after-effects of grip and put in condition to ward off disease is best told in the words of one who is able to speak from experience. Mr. Sumner Cross, of 80 Mechanic street, Gardiner, Me., says:

"A severe attack of the grip, about five years ago, left me in a very bad state. I could not sleep and I had no appetite. My head felt heavy, and I was rather dizzy at times. Changes of the weather seemed to have a bad effect upon me and I was miserable most of the time.
"I had been like this for a year when a lady, who had heard me complain, recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Shortly after this I had occasion to go to Bangor and there I bought six boxes of the pills. While taking the second box I began to feel benefited. When I had taken them all I felt so much better that I bought six boxes more, and I have always considered the money I paid for them well spent. I would not be without them.
"I shall always speak of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in words of praise, for they are an honest medicine, recommend them because I know that they are all in all they are claimed to be."
SIGNED: SUMNER CROSS,
Subscribed and sworn to before me, Z. F. LITTLE,
Notary Public.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus's dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Sold by all dealers, or sent direct from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50.

WHY THE TWIN DISPUTED.

John Bull Thought of Bill, the Clerk of Italy.
"How much?" asked Arthur P. Raglan of Leeds, England, offering to pay his bill.

"Nine pounds," answered Clerk Howarth, L. Dailey of the St. James Hotel, smiling and bowing.
The eyes of Mr. Raglan, which had shone pleasantly, now glared, and his yellow mustache curled up perceptibly as astonishment contracted his upper lip. "Why, it was only last night—"
"No," corrected Mr. Dailey, still beaming proudly over his desk at Mr. Raglan, "yesterday morning at 1 o'clock."

"But I tell you it was last night at supper time," persisted the Briton, his voice rising into a roar.
"Well, I reckon I ought to know," retorted Mr. Dailey indignantly.
"Indeed, and dayton't you think I ought to know something about it?"

"You? Why, what the devil have you got to do with it? It's my baby and it's a girl, and it weighs nine pounds," said back the clerk, his eyes "dauder" rising higher.
"Nayow, did anybody ayver hear th' like?" exclaimed the Englishman, apoplectizing the world at large. "Here I come and put up another night. I'm ready to start and I ask the amount of my bill and this fellow charges me nine pounds—$45—and when I tell him I've been here since last night and he disputes me wayward, tells me I've been here since yesterday morning, and when I tell him I know my better, he begins to talk about girl babies instead of my bill."

"Who said anything about a bill?" demanded Mr. Dailey.
"Why, I did, you blockhead—I'm endeavoring to talk about it nayow."
"But I'm speaking of my baby, my little girl, first, you know."

"Oh, blow your baby!" cut in the Briton. "I want to pay my bill."
"Oh, I see," said the clerk, blushing furiously. "All right," he added, anger rising in him again, "pay your bill, but don't tell me to blow my baby. I won't stand that from any man."

"Nor will I stand a charge of ID for a night's lodging and a breakfast," retorted Mr. Raglan.
The new and deeply injured father said no more, but collected $1.50 and the Englishman went out humbly.

"I haven't got any prejudice against Englishmen," remarked Mr. Dailey bitterly to the sympathetic bellboy who came to answer a ring for hot water "but if ever I saw a more heartless and unfeeling wretch than that it was in a dream."—Denver Post.

Spending is Sometimes Saving.
The true end of statesmanship is to promote the greatest public welfare, whether this means saving dollars or spending dollars. When economy will contribute to this welfare economy is good, but where it will cripple some important branch of public service that economy is bad; and the public official who tries to make a record in defiance of this fact is no real friend to public welfare. Where securities exist, or useless political "jobs" commissions, or where waste occurs by poor organization of the service, then economy and reorganization are in order; but where important work would be less effectively done by arbitrarily abolishing offices and reducing the number of employees, then the path of statesmanship is to point out the grounds for distinguishing between the two cases and shape policies accordingly.—Guston's Magazine.

Lasting Qualities of Wood.
The navy department recently concluded some tests for the purpose of demonstrating the lasting qualities of wood used in warships treated with the woodproofing process. Samples taken from the torpedo-boat Winslow were employed in the tests. They had been in use for five years. The report showed that the wood had lost none of its anti-fire qualities.

Their Taste Goes Wrong.
Even the best judges of tobacco can't always be depended on. Sometimes their taste goes back on them, so to speak, and remains blunted for a week at a stretch. Professional samplers of tobacco take a week off every few months and never look at the weed until they return to duty. In that way they keep in condition.

Infantile Pessimism.
Aunt Emma—Well, Mary, I haven't seen you for a long time. I hear that you have a little sister at your house. I suppose she cries sometimes.
Little Mary—Cries? I should say she does! Why, I never saw anyone that appeared to look on the dark side of things as she does!—Puck.

CATARRH THIRTY YEARS.

A Remarkable Experience of a Prominent Statesman.

CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON GIVES PE-RU-NA A HIGH ENDORSEMENT.

CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON, OF OHIO.

Hon. David Meekison is well known not only in his own state, but throughout America. He began his political career by serving four consecutive terms as mayor of the town in which he lives, during which time he became widely known as the founder of the Meekison Bank of Napoleon, Ohio. He was elected to the fifty-fifth congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the state.

Only one flaw marred the otherwise complete success of this rising statesman. Catarrh with its insidious approach and tenacious grasp, was his only un conquered foe. For thirty years he waged unsuccessful warfare against this personal enemy. At last Pe-ru-na came to the rescue, and he dictated the following letter to Dr. Hartman as the result:

"I have used several bottles of Pe-ru-na and feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be able to fully eradicate the disease of thirty years standing. Yours truly, 'DAVID MEEKISON'."

Many people can tolerate slight catarrhal affections. A little hoarseness, a slight cough, a cold in the head, or a sore throat, are not serious. Catarrh is the most dreadful thing that could happen to one of my profession. Pe-ru-na is my shield and protector against this most undesirable disease." Carrie Thomas.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
