

PLAID SKIRTS...

Another lot just put on sale. Two numbers, one at $8 and another at $5 are especially neat and good value...

New Kid Gloves

Over 700 pairs of kid gloves for ladies just added to our stock, making it the most complete in the city. Our $1, $1.50 and $1.50 lines are very strong. We have also a fine assortment of new gloves at $1.75 and black at $2.

Note—Our $1.50 Cutemeri, Foster and LaTome gloves are being closed out at $1.00.

S. E. YOUNG & SON, ALBANY, OREGON

CORRESPONDENCE.

MUNKERS AND VICINITY.

Messrs West and Edwards of Iowa are guests of Wm. Goin.

Frank Perry is breaking a beautiful black horse to ride.

R. L. DeVaney and wife were in Scio Thursday.

Mrs. T. D. McClain was in Jefferson Saturday.

Miss Eva Marfall came up Saturday from Buena Vista.

Mrs. Ida Keene is the proud owner of a nice new bicycle.

Misses Anna and Mary Murphy spent Sunday in Albany.

Mrs. Sam Jones of Saginaw is visiting at the home of F. Denney.

Ask Ed Keen about his runaway last week while working in his field.

F. J. Denny is proud of his young hackney as a school boy would be of a tin whistle.

Wm. Blyeu and wife came down from Lebanon Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Wm. Murphy and daughter Rosa went over to Albany Saturday for a Sunday visit.

B. S. Richardson is now able to be out again, a fact his many friends are glad to learn.

Dr. Hawk came out from Jefferson Saturday called by the illness of Maggie Wilson.

Mrs. Ella Wilson went to Scio to spend a couple of weeks with her friend Mrs. Hagey.

J. D. Devine is moving to Lebanon this week, they are desirable residents and we regret to lose them.

Mrs. Cole, son Rupert and a young lady cousin, from Michigan, are guests of the owner's sister Mrs. E. V. Smith.

AKER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS

Are sold on a positive guarantee. Cures heart-burn, rising of the food, distress after eating or any form of dyspepsia. One little tablet gives immediate relief. 25c. and 50c. Peery & Peery, druggist.

SANTIAM AND VICINITY.

J. P. Crabtree finished up his seeding Tuesday.

G. A. Griffin sold Maud Miller a nice lot of sheats at 40 cents gross.

Ed Myers, of Scio, was out this way Monday hunting for logs at 40 on foot.

Bill May, of Scio, was out prospecting S. W. Goin for more seed corn to finish up his patch.

Mrs. Liza Crabtree and Mrs. Phoebe Turner went on a business trip and a social visit to Mrs. Crabtree's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hirtleshaw, of Lebanon, Friday of last week.

S. W. Goin returned home Monday from a trip to Clatsop county. He reports every thing looking up nicely, but farmers not all through seeding as yet. Clover fields are

BY THE NEWS HUSTLER---LOCAL AND GENERAL

Doings of Town and Country People

Anti-Gum puts new life in your wheel.

A. G. Prill, Physician and Surgeon Scio Or.

For sale—A second hand saddle in first class condition. T. S. Coffey.

Buy Singer Sewing Machines at cut prices of F. M. French, Albany.

Fairy Roast is as good as some people ask you 25 cents for. Ross E. Hibler.

If you need shoes, come in and get fixed out while our cheap shoes last. Ross E. Hibler.

Come and shoe the family before our scandalously cheap shoes are gone. Ross E. Hibler.

Don't forget the ice cream social, given by the ladies of the Baptist Church tomorrow evening.

Don't forget Hagey when you want bicycles and fishing tackle. He always has a fine assortment on hand.

Mr. Devine, who recently purchased the Rodgers hotel property in Lebanon is moving to that city this week.

We refund the money for any Royal Worcester Coat that does not give satisfaction. W. B. Stevens & Co.

We have got shoes as cheap as you want them, and they are last, gains, though a little shell-worn. Ross E. Hibler.

Dr. Prill was called to Larwood Monday evening to attend a Mr. Riggs, who was taken ill there, but is on the improve.

Are you going to Yaquina tomorrow? It's the first excursion of the season, and all who want to see the ocean should plan to go.

Scio's population is pretty busy this week—the women folks are cleaning house, and the men (some of them) are making gardens.

Jefferson is taking on all kinds of new life these days, several of her leading institutions having changed hands lately at good round figures.

A very pleasant farewell party was tendered Mrs. Frank Morris last Monday evening by the members of the Lady Macboes, of whom she was one.

The Journal gives a list of the 255 school children who had money in the Gilbert trust, and the school bank saving system. The amount ranged from 1 cent to $45.

The creamery is taking in a good deal of milk these days, and we trust that the supply will never be less—on the other hand let it increase as the days roll round.

Mrs. C. H. Monroe, agent for the Natural Body Brace, will be in Scio Tuesday, May 28, for the purpose of interesting the ladies of Scio in this modern health giving invention.

During last month the Corvallis & Eastern Express put its line from Corvallis to Albany, and vice versa, 276 Southern Pacific cars, representing 3,031 tons of 6,922,000 pounds of freight.—Times.

J. A. Blyeu hauled a wagon load of cream to Jefferson Sunday to be shipped to Portland. This was made necessary by the fact that there have no Sunday train service on the Woodburn-Springfield branch of the S. P.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles. Peery & Peery druggists, Scio, Ore.

Veal & Son, the Albany chair factory people, have received an offer from Portland to remove their factory to that city, and are contemplating making the change. This is one of Albany's leading manufacturing institutions.

The Party of timber cruisers who went to the timber on upper Thomas Creek, have returned, and went to Albany Tuesday. They were just as uncommunicative upon their return as they were when they took to the woods.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will give an ice cream social on tomorrow, Saturday, evening, for the purpose of raising funds to repair and paint the church building. All are cordially invited, and an enjoyable evening is guaranteed.

George Finley had a sale of cattle last week at his place at Crowfordsville, disposing of about fifty head at prices ranging up to $14, the average being about $30. There is a demand for good stock and sales this spring are well attended.

While bringing a load of household goods to this city last Monday Dr. Chapman had the misfortune to fall on the wagon, and the wheels of the vehicle passed over him, badly bruising his shoulder and face. He is now on the improve, however, and will soon be a resident of the city.

Fishing on the Santiam river is just about at its height these days, and some fine fish are being landed. The few warm days last week caused the snow to melt in the mountains and the river was a little higher than usual Sunday, and as a result the fish declined to bite very readily on that day.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. Peery & Peery druggists, Scio, Ore.

The editor of an exchange says he has two subscribers who frequently get full, and every time they are in that condition they come in and pay a year in advance. One of them is already credited to 1941, and the fraternity throughout the state are crazy to find out the brand of whiskey he drinks. They will offer it as a premium.

J. N. Morris finished shearing about eight hundred head of sheep the first of the week. He has several hundred head more, but they are on shares, and he does not have to look after them. He did not shear with machines, but employed two men—Frank Wright and Henry Hawser, the former shearing in the neighborhood of one hundred head per day.

Prof. Jenson of Lonsaning, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat. Peery & Peery druggists Scio, Ore.

Mondays express brought a cage containing six red foxes to Wm. Brenner, who will turn the cubs loose in the hill near here, and in a few years expects to have great sport capturing them with dogs. They came from Illinois, and were sent out here by Charlie Vincent, who sports a sister here. They are a very sportive animal, and the boys who own hounds are looking forward to a good time chasing them.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for a number of years, died at the home of Lafayette DeBorne, north of this city, Wednesday, May 15, 1901. He was aged about 75 years, and had been ill for the past five years, during most of which time he resided in Aradon, and returned here a few weeks ago. He leaves a son and numerous other relatives to mourn his demise. The remains were laid away in the Miller cemetery yesterday.

Abraham Hols, an old gentleman who resides in this section for