

Willie Anticipated Trouble.
"Mamma," said five-year old Willie, "I wish you would not leave me alone with the baby when you go out this afternoon."
"Why not, Willie?" queried his mother.
"Because I'm afraid I'll have to eat all the cakes and jam in the closet just to please her."

Arduous Task.
"I hear that you have been laid up with nervous prostration. What was the matter—overwork or worry?"
"Not exactly; the fact is, I tried to have a photograph taken that suited my wife."

One Indian Tribe Increasing.
The Penobscot tribe of Indians, which numbered 240 in 1800, is now about 400 strong. Maine appropriates annually $5,000 for their benefit.

Room for Improvement.
"Say," remarked the impatient passenger, who was traveling on business in the South, "is this the fastest train you have down here?"
"Yes, snh," replied the conductor, proudly, "this is the Southwestern limited, sub."
"Well, your company ought to raise the limit, that's all."

One Strong Reason.
Magistrate—The assault you have committed on your poor wife is a most brutal one. Do you know of any reason why I should not send you to prison?
Prisoner—If you do, your honor, it will break up my honeymoon.

Lesson I.
"What do the Filipinos appear to learn most easily in connection with our civilization?" asked the eager inquirer.
Without hesitation the strategist replied:
"The value of money."

Millions for Baseball.
A million of dollars are spent every year upon the game of baseball, but large as this sum is, it cannot begin to equal the amount spent by people in search of health. There is a sure method of obtaining strength, and it is not a costly one. We urge those who have spent much and lost hope to try Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It strengthens the stomach, makes digestion easy and natural, and cures indigestion, constipation, biliousness and weak kidneys.

Cause for Rejoicing.
"How pretty and clever you are, mamma," exclaimed little Edith.
"Do you really think so, my dear," replied her mother.
"Course I do," replied Edith, "and I'm awfully glad you married into our family."

A VETERAN
Tells of a Thrilling Experience in the Civil War and How a Newspaper Article Saved His Life.

From the Evening Leader, London, England.

Many veterans of the rebellion can recall incidents as thrilling as the cavalry charge in which the narrator of the following experience nearly lost his life, and, unfortunately, many of the old soldiers have disabilities that are unpleasant reminders of their days in the army. To all such this story will have a peculiar interest and may show the way to restore health, strength and energy. Mr. William H. Whiting, of Mt. Holly, Va., says:

"When the Civil War began I was living in Buffalo and there I joined Co. F of the Tenth New York Cavalry. In 1863, while serving with my company, I received a sabre cut that caused paralysis. For eight months I was obliged to lie in the hospital at Washington, D. C. I afterwards tried many doctors, but the paralysis remained as bad as ever. I suffered from chills and my general health was not good.

"This continued until about eight years ago when I read in a newspaper of the cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I began taking the pills and soon found they were doing me good. In six months' time I was completely cured. The paralysis has not returned and I never have the chills now. My general health is also better than when I began taking Pink Pills for Pale People. I always keep them with me and, in the eight years that have passed since I first took them, I have never had occasion to call on a doctor.

"I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to many people, and good results have always followed their use."
Signed, WILLIAM H. WHITING.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of January, 1904.

John L. Beale,
Notary Public.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold by the bulk or by the hundred) by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Not at Present.
"Have you any sodding you want done this spring?" asked a colored man of a mean Central Avenue resident.
"Not at present. My mother-in-law's health is first class."

Root's Law Studies Delayed.
Elihu Root, secretary of war, made up his mind when he was 10 years old to be a lawyer, but combination of circumstances made it impossible for him to take up the study of the law until he was over 21 years of age.

SERMONS OF THE WEEK

God's Comforts—God's comforts are the first whispers of undying peace.—Rev. E. Burk, Episcopalian, Philadelphia, Pa.

Money—It is not money that is the root of all evil; it is the love of it that is the extension of holy thoughts.—Rev. S. E. Rife, Evangelical, Akron, Ohio.

The Widow's Mite—The widow's mite stands for the small gifts which those in humble circumstances may offer to God and man.—Rev. Dr. Eaton, Universalist, New York City.

Story of Creation—The very first fact which the story of creation sets forth is this: God is man's friend. He plans for man. He provides for man.—Rev. D. Gregg, Presbyterian, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Universal Law—It is difficult for us to conceive of an immutable being, or even of an immutable condition, for we live in a realm in which change is the universal law.—Rev. J. R. Boyle, Methodist, Philadelphia, Pa.

Resurrection of Christ—Nothing is more vital to the validity of Christianity than the resurrection of Christ. It is the crowning evidence of the divinity and authority of our Lord.—Rev. Geo. P. Perry, Baptist, Troy, N. Y.

Character—Character possesses a charm for only those who seek it, and is the priceless jewel of heroic souls, who care for no approbation but that of the law, conscience and God.—Rev. C. P. Smith, Methodist, Minden, La.

Figure of God—Every man, through his imagination, paints his own figure of God. Plato gives his own image of God, and then there is the Bible's idea of God.—Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Congregationalist, Brooklyn, New York.

Predestined—Some are willing to make any sacrifice for God and the word of God. They are ever prepared to run their course righteously. They and they alone are predestined.—Rev. E. Magevney, R. C., San Francisco, California.

Socialism—Socialism will reject Christianity and give a real faith which the infidel church has denied. By rejecting the church it will liberate the real spirit of Jesus, which will defy mankind.—Rev. Geo. D. Herron, Socialist, Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Spiritual World—The knowledge of the spiritual world which Jesus first imparted to mankind explains the light of Moses as much as the light of the noonday sun exceeds that of the flickering lamp.—Cardinal Gibbons, Roman Catholic, Baltimore, Md.

Christian Science—Christian Science not only embodies the healing and regenerative methods of the Christianity of Christ, but represents also the highest attainments of modern metaphysical or psychical practice.—Carol Norton, Christian Scientist, New York City.

A Statesman and a Politician—A statesman is one who thinks, plans and works for the future good of his country and countrymen, while the politician is concerned about present personal and party advantage.—Rev. B. V. Hunter, Presbyterian, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Immortal Life and Eternal Life—Jesus makes a marked distinction between immortal life and eternal life. Immortal life is to live well, and when we have the latter it is difficult to make us doubt the former.—Rev. Dr. Mason, Universalist, Chicago, Ill.

Test of a Christian—What is the test of a Christian but the fruits of his companionship with his Lord? Give us a human Christ, who sympathizes with us in our common temptations, who loves us, not the one who stands so far above us, and we shall gain in our knowledge of your Lord.—Rev. C. M. Sheldon, Baptist, Topeka, Kan.

Prayer—God has ordained prayer just as truly as he has ordained labor, and it is no more a thwarting of divine law than that he should bring in the harvest in response to the wise and intelligent labor of the husbandman. But God's will in this regard was accomplished by the faithful toil of human hands.—Rev. Dr. Barrows, Oberlin, Ohio.

Peace in the Church—If peace abides in the church each member must be at peace with God. "The peace of God, which passeth all understanding" increases and blesses both the life of the individual and that of the church, as the conscience is enlightened by the Living Word and its dictates are obeyed.—Rev. G. P. Rutledge, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Conscience—Conscience—in other words, the moral sense—is a natural endowment, a part of the organic constitution of man. Not by any means independent of reason, but rather dependent upon it, growing in clearness, and in ethical authority as man increases in knowledge and power. Ethical science now teaches—not so much that man has conscience—as that conscience has man.—Rev. W. D. Simonds, Unitarian, Seattle, Wash.

Women Must Sleep.

Avoid Nervous Prostration.
If you are dangerously sick what is the first duty of your physician? He quiets the nervous system, he deadens the pain, and you sleep well. You ought to know that when you cease to be regular in your courses, grow irritable without cause, and pass sleepless nights, there is serious trouble somewhere, and nervous prostration is sure to follow.

Mrs. Hartley.
trouble somewhere, and nervous prostration is sure to follow. You ought to know that indigestion, exhaustion, womb displacement, fainting, dizziness, headache, and backache and the nerves will wild with fright, and you cannot sleep. Mrs. Hartley, of 221 W. Congress St., Chicago, Ill., whose portrait we published, suffered all these agonies, and was entirely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; her case should be a warning to others, and her cure carry conviction to the minds of every suffering woman of the un-failing efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sacred Lily's Alias.
Deception has even reached the depths of Florida. There has lately been introduced into the market a bulb called "the sacred lily of the Nile." The name is sufficiently catchy to capture lovers of flowers. A gentleman added one of the new flowers to his conservatory. Time passed and up came the plant, but when the sacred "lily of the Nile" appeared he found only an old, but still agreeable friend in the homely narcissus.

1000 REWARD BOND.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is cancer. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It cures Catarrh, and gives the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring the system to health. All who have had this cure know of its efficacy. It is simple, iron and quinine in a pleasant form. No Cure, No Pay. Sold by all druggists. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the best.

Unappreciative.
Mrs. Flatbush—Mrs. Daubchina is so artistic! Whenever she refers to art it is with a big A.
Flatbush—Well, her husband is different from her. He generally refers to art with a big D.

Student of Humanity.
The manager looked over the advertising man's work.
"I see you speak of our payment plan," said he.
"Yes sir."
"Make that word 'credit' instead of 'payment.' It is more attractive."

Time.
"How do you pass the time?" inquired the city visitor of the friend who had moved to the country.
"I don't pass it," replied the lady who could always find something to do; "I pass me."

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
This Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablet. All Laxatives refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature on each box. 25c.

Why He Said It.
Costigan—Don't say you ain't done nothin'.
Madigan—And why not?
Costigan—Because that isn't good English.
Madigan—Faith, I'm glad to hear it, for by the powers, nayther am I.

More Substantial.
Blodds—Why did she jilt you?
Slobbs—She detected the odor of beer on my breath.
"A prude, eh?"
"Not at all, but there was another fellow whose breath smelled of champagne."

FITS Permanently Cured. No life or convenience after Dr. King's Great Nerve Restorer. See bottle. Sold by all druggists. Price 50c. Dr. J. C. King, Ltd., 301 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Where Ruben Went.
Farmer Hayrack—I s'pose ye've heard 'bout my son-in-law's son Reuben to an institution 'yer learnin'?"
Farmer Snakeroot—Why, no. Some fool's bin spreadin' the report 'round the neighborhood that yew've sent him ter college.

The Best Prescription for Malaria. Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tonic. It is simple iron and quinine in a palatable form. No Cure, No Pay. Price 50c.

What Mamma Called Papa.
Annie Ellstein, four years old, got lost in Central park. Unable to find where she lived the police took her to Harlem's court.
"What's your papa's name?" asked wise Magistrate Hogan.
"Mr. Ellstein."
"But what's your mamma call to your papa when he's in another room?"
"Hey, come here!" the infant lisped.
The magistrate gave it up, and sent her to the Gerry society.

Felt Like a Minister.
"Were you ever taken for a minister?" asked the subterfuge.
"No," said the leading man with the spiritual face, "but I've been treated like one."
"Eh?"
"I have been sometimes compelled to wait six or seven months for my salary."

Something New in Mining.
He—I saw your neighbor, Mr. Skinner, today.
She—Did you? What is he doing now?
He—He's interested in one of those wild cat mining schemes.
She—The idea! I never knew you had to mine for wild cats.

No Race Problem.
"I never could make out why folks is all the time worryin' deyse I wid what dey calls de 'race problem,'" said the old colored citizen. "I been rovin' heah sence de days I been bo'n, en neither me ner my family his been lynched yet!"

Her Secret.
Rev. Dr. Gollie—But how did you manage to interest so many in your charitable work?
Mrs. Lureing—Well, doctor, I find that a card with "Dancing" on the lower left hand corner, seems almost as attractive as the promise of future bliss.

They Hadn't Made Up.
"Well," said he, anxious to patch up their quarrel of yesterday, "aren't you curious to know what's in the package?"
"Not very," his wife, still unrelenting, replied, diffidently.
"It's something for the one I love best in all the world."
"Ah, I suppose it's those suspenders you said you needed."

Johnny's Modesty.
Papa—Who is the smartest boy in your class at school?
Johnny—Well, Willie Jones says he is.
Papa—But who do you say?
Johnny—I'd rather not say it. You see I'm not as conceited as Willie Jones is.

Robbed Him.
"You see that prosperous looking man over there? He robbed me of the best chance of becoming rich I ever had."
"How did it happen?"
"He refused to let me marry his daughter."

In the Theater.
"Dear me, I can't hear a word that those actors are saying."
"You have no cause for complaint."
