Top Price for Apples.

Two dollars and a quarter clear per box at the orchard is a mighty fine price for Oregon apples, That is the price netted for a carload shipped on consignment and sold in the London market the day before Christmas by Olwell Brothers, of Central Point, Jackson county. The price breaks all records for Oregon apples in London to large lots. Another car of the same apples, sold several days later when the market was a little off, netted Olwell Bros. $1.75 per box at the orchard.

EDITORIAL HASH

Nearly every section of the county has a candidate for office, and some sections have about a dozen. Scio is not asking much at the hands of the voters, and at present only has one candidate for public office, viz: G. W. Morrow, who is an aspirant for the office of sheriff. Mr. Morrow has been a life-long democrat, and has served the county in the capacity of deputy sheriff in this locality for a number of years. He has never failed to respond to the call of his party for aid in setting forth the the demands of the party, and has never asked for anything which would seem unreasonable in any particular. He has made his home in Linn county the greater part of his life and is a man well and favorably known throughout the entire county. Should he receive the nomination for the office of sheriff and be successful at the polls we have no hesitency in saying that he will fill the office honorably and with credit to himself and the county at large.

The postal reforms urged by Postmaster General Smith will be pushed by his successor, and the president is reported to be ardently in favor of them. Cent postage is one of them. For many years there has been a widespread popular desire to have the letter postage rate cut to a cent. Both parties have favored it in their national platforms. There is no doubt that the reduction will be made at an early day, though possibly it will not be accomplished in this session of congress. The great increase in the number of letters which the reduction from the 3 to the 2 cent mark caused would be repeated, it is reasonable to suppose, by a cut to a 1 cent rate.

From all indications the Pacific Northwest country is going to go forward in development during the next five years at a rate that will distance the progress of the past twenty years. The foundation was laid deep and strong by patient hands that did the bidding of loyal hearts. Building better than they knew, but not better than they hoped, the pioneer column has passed on. The work so well begun will be pushed forward by younger hands—not to any completion, for growth knows no such word, but to fruitition. Oregonian.

An Important Business Change.

Monday of this week an important change was made in the banking business of this city, which is greatly appreciated by every citizen of the city and vicinity.

For some time past J. W. Gaines who has been at the head of the Bank of Scio for a year past, has been making arrangements to close up the affairs of the bank, and devote his entire time to other lines of work, he being unfitted for the business and having to depend on others.

As soon as the condition of affairs became generally known, T. J. Munkers made Mr. Gaines a proposition to buy the bank outright, and on Monday the deal was closed and the property was turned over to Mr. Munkers, and the Bank of Scio went out of existance. The new bank will be known as "T. J. Munkers, banker."

Mr. Munkers is by no means unknown to our people both as a citizen and a banker, he having been connected with the Bank of Scio for a number of years, and is a man in whom every citizen for miles around has implicit confidence. The manner in which he conducts his business affairs and his property interests makes the new banking enterprise as solid as a rock, and insures for Scio and vicinity an institution through which their business can be transacted with perfect safety, although the safety of the bank was never questioned only during the presidency of E. P. Cadwell, which only lasted for a few weeks.

Mr. Munkers is receiving congratulations and encouraging words on every hand, and our people are pleased to know that he takes so much interest in the affairs of the city and its business men.

W. A. Ewing will be retained in the bank as bookkeeper and cashier.

An Expensive Lesson.

A teacher in the Dallas county, Ala., public school recently received the following letter: Sir: Will you in the future give my son easier sums to do at nites? This is what he's brought hoam too or three nites back, "If fore gallins of bere will fill thirty too pint bottles, how many pints and half pints will nine gallins of bere fil?" Well, we tried and could make nothin of it at all, and my boy cried and sed he didn't dare ta go bak in the mornin' without doin' it. So I had to go and buy a nine gallin keg of bere, which I could ill afford to do, and then we went and borrowed a lot of wine and brandy bottles. We fill them, and my boy put the number down for an answer. I don't know whether it is right or nor, as we spilt some while doin it. P S.—Please let the next sums be in water, as I am not able to buy more bere.

Another Oregon Pioneer Passed Away.

Died at her home on Mill creek, December 29, 1901, at 12:20 A. M. after an illness of only 11 days, America Lawson, wife of James Lawson, age 68 years, 7 months, 11 days.

In 1863 in company with her husband and two children they crossed the plains and settled first in Linn county thence in 1864 moved to the Rogue River valley. In 1870 they moved to what is now Crook county in which place they have resided up to the present time.

She was united with the Baptist church September, 1854 at Scio Linn county, and has lived a devoted christian life.

Four brothers and five sisters have preceeded her.

She leaves a husband, two brothers, and two sisters, Madison Calavan, of Scio Or., Wm. Calavan, of Bieber, Cal., Mrs. Elizabeth Polston, of Mercer, Mo., and Sarah Stanton, of Athena, Or., the latter being present at her death, besides five grand children, two great grand children and a host of neighbors and friends to mourn her loss.—Prineville Review.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and although 73 years old, I now am able to do my house work." It overcomes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at Peery & Peery's drug store.

An Increase in Valuations.

An increase of $24,000,000 in the assessed valuation of all the property in the state, as compared with last year, it shown by the assessment summaries for 1901, filed in office of the Secretary of State. Owing to an increase of about $500,000 in the exemptions, the net increase in the value of taxable property is now $141,598,513; against $117,804,874.13 in 1900. The total valuation is now higher than it has been in five years before. There is an increase in the total value of every class of property except taxable land which shows a decrease of $2,000,000. This decrease is more than made up by the increase of what is called nontillable land, which has gained $8,000,000. Among the classes of property which show heavy increases are street railway beds, which have doubled in assessed valuation, merchandise which has increased $1,500,000; town and city lots which have grown in value $7,500,000, and improvements on city lots which show an increase of $5,500,000.

The Grand Canon of the Arkansas.

Easiest of access among all the canons of Colorado, being situated on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande between Canon City and Salida in the front range of the Rockies, it is the most spectacular awe-inspiring and magnificent. Down this mighty cleft in the bear of the granite rock-barrier rush the raging waters of the Arkansas River lashed into foaming fury and dashed into spuming spray by its swift descent through the tortorous defile. So narrow is the passage at one point that there is no room for both road and river, and therefore a curiously constructed bridge of steel had to be thrown lengthwise of the stream, suspended from iron supports mortised into the canon wall on each side to the right and left. And right here can be seen the climax of all the canons grandeur, the which has been aptly called "The Royal Gorge." For two thousand six hundred feet the solid monolith rear upward—fifty times as lofty as the Washington monument, the highest permanent structure reared by the hand of man. No words exadequately describe the magnificence of the scene. Only those who have beheld its glories can appreciate them.

This is but one of the many wonders of nature revealed to the traveler on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, "The Scenic Line of the World." For detailed information about this delightful trip to the east address

SUNNY SOUTH

Fifty Cents a Year—Less Than a Penny a Number.

THE SOUTH'S LITERARY WEEKLY

Published at Atlanta, Ga.—Circulation Over 50,000.

The SUNNY SOUTH is the Great Literary Weekly of the South. It is devoted to Literature, Romance, Fact and Fiction, and gives the best of that is current in its field. Among its contributors the most noted southern writers appear—Joel Chandler Harris, Harry Stillwell Edwards and others of growing fame. Serial stories from Anthony Hope, Maurice Thompson, Sidney R. Crockett, Mrs. George Corbett and Arthur W. Marchmont have appeared, and other work is waiting from the pen of authors of national note. A short story contest brought out over five hundred splendid short stories, all worthy a place in The SUNNY SOUTH'S readable columns. Other contests are contemplated that will successfully exploit the ripening field of talent that only needs such fostering to illustrate the wealth that is shy to assert itself.

The SUNNY SOUTH teems with the life of the great south. The genial sunshine warms everything into activity and the season is never cold enough to check the hand of the sower. This paper comes fragrant with the breath of the magnolia and pine, and gives out the very air of the orange, palm and bay. The beauty and poetry, the romance and mystery of the land where the corn stores up the golden sunshine and the cotton whitens in the moonlight, will be given in the well-filled columns of this fascinating weekly.

The subscription price is Only Fifty Cents a year, alike to all persons, agents, newspapers, postmasters and everyone else. Clubs of five, accompanied by the full $2.50, entitle the club raiser to the paper one year gratis.

Send on a Postal Card the names of six of your neighbors who would appreciate the opportunity to read a copy of The Sunny South, and specimens will be mailed free. You can get your club of five out of these very people.

The SUNNY SOUTH enters over 50,000 American homes now; and during 1901 is sure to be welcomed in fully as many more homes, as the great weekly feast of good things the southern Literary Weekly, whose columns for 1902 will be the most readable of all the papers that come to you.
