A Profitable Investment

"I was troubled for about seven years with my stomach and in bed half my time," says E. Demick, Somerville Ind. "I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and an entirely well. You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does get something to digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. Perry & Perry."

Moved His Wine Shop

John Wadkins, who expired term a wine shop in our burg without first obtaining a license therefor, notified Saturday by the city, that he had moved his place of business, which he did. He went to Albany Monday to engage an attorney and had the case for claiming that because he manufactured the wine himself, no license was required, though he admitted the stuff was intoxicating. The attorney refused to take such a case, and Mr. Wadkins returned home and renovated his stock to some other location. The city authorities dealt leniently with him, as he was an old soldier, and retained to be ignorant of the fact that he was violating the law—Jefferson Review.

The Pacific cable question will come in for a great deal of discussion, but the chances are that it will be disposed of quicker than the Lebanon canal issue, which now promises to hang on to near the end of the session, and may possibly go over to the next session. A Pacific cable, like an isthmian canal, is a very urgent need. Happily the expenditure in the case of the cable will be small compared with that which the canal will necessitate. The only thing which has a chance to delay the construction of a cable is the possibility that Marconi's system of wireless telegraphy may be made commercially available in the next two or three years, and few persons are sanguine of this.

Judge Boise at Roseburg

Judge R. P. Boise, of this district, is holding court at Roseburg, reviewing Judge Hamilton. His dry humor cracks out when least expected, as the following from the Roseburg Review will show: In passing sentence the other day on a fellow named Clark who stole a $10 overcoat, Judge Boise stated that the prisoner's offense was less grave because he had stolen the coat from a barn and not from the house. "I sentence you to one month's imprisonment in the county jail," said the Judge, "and you will understand that in passing such a sentence the county receives more punishment than you do."

'One Minute Cough Cure' is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe pouge cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The Grand Cannon of the Arkansas

Easiest of access among all the canons of Colorado, being situated on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande between Canon City and Salida in the front range of the Rockies, it is the most spectacular, awe-inspiring and magnificent. Down this mighty cleft in the heart of the grandest barrier range the raging waters of the Arkansas River lashed into foaming fury and dashed into spouting spray by its swift descent through the furious cliffs by the head of man. No words can describe the passage at one point that there is no room for both road and river, and therefore a carefully constructed bridge of steel had to be spanned lengthwise of the stream, suspended from iron supports inserted into the canon walls on each side to the right and left. The bridge here can be seen the climax of all the canon grandeur, that which has been aptly called "The Royal Gorge" for two thousand years. It is a grand and majestic scene, the highest and most rugged structure found in the world. No words can adequately describe the magnitude of the scene. Only those who have beheld its glories can appreciate them. This is but one of the many wonders of nature revealed to the traveler on the Denver & Rio Grande. "The Sacred Lion of the World." For detailed information about this delightful trip to the east, address J. D. MANSELL, Gen'l Agt., Rio Grande System, Portland, Oregon. A Deep Mystery.

A Deep Mystery

It is a mystery why women endure backache, headache, nervous and sleeplessness, indigestion, fainting and dizzy spells, when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Chubb, of Peterson, Ia, and almost blind and deaf, but I could not get well until I used Electric Bitters, which cured me, and although 73 years old, I am now able to do my household work." It removes constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Buy at Perry & Perry's drug store.

The Proper Way to Introduce People

In making an introduction the man is always taken to the lady to be presented, and the formal is, "Miss A, may I present Mr. B?" Where two women or two men are presented the other is addressed where the difference is marked. A girl presents her fiancée to her mother, but the mother says, "All I have to present my daughter Mrs. B. is." A woman should present her own children to her, unless she is much younger than herself. If a man is presented he retains her seat and bows and smiles cordially. Men, other than friends, never introduced to each other. Women do so when desiring to show special friendship.—February Ladies' Home Journal.
