It is said that President Roosevelt will back up his order for the non-interference of federal officers in local politics to such an extent as to make these men obnoxious. He does not propose to allow the influence of a government position to be used for anyone's personal advancement, and will adopt vigorous measures to stop this abuse, which has had a bad effect by causing factions in the republican ranks. The great number of federal officers' terms will soon expire, and their obedience to this rule will probably be a requisite to reappointment. If the President succeeds in enforcing this rule the party will have reason to bless him, as the bitterness and turmoil of local fights is often due largely to their interference.

Wise or Otherwise

Marriage broadens some men and flattens others. There is no cement that will repair broken promises. Some people would rather be consistent than be right. The man who has the "big head" invariably pears a small hat. Few people would be satisfied if they got all that's coming to them. You may close your eyes to your faults but your neighbors will not. Fortunate is the man who falls only for the purpose of rising higher. It is much easier to reach the top of the ladder than it is to stay there. Too much pleasure is not to be the direct cause of a man's troubles. A man feels like praying when he is miserable; a woman when she is happy. If a woman's waist is shaped like an hourglass the sands of life soon run out. Money is the rich man's faith, the poor man's hope and the good man's charity. Many a poor man has made the discovery that a distant marriage is a government contract. Example may be stronger than precept, but precept does a great deal at example's work. Wisdom is the art of being away from home when a neighbor calls to borrow something. Many a woman clothes her body until she resembles a fashion plate, while she lets her mind go ragged. Some men pay cash for everything they buy because they want to and others because they have to. The man who finds he has bitten off more than he can chew is sure to indulge in a lot of unnecessary talk. Order is heaven's first law, but it is the disorder of earth that enables the lawgiver to get three square meals a day. If a young man owns real estate in a large city it is an easy matter for him to find a girl willing to share his lot.

The Last Heard Of It

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," said a large farmer, of the field, 4. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly restored him to his normal health. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and immediately effective. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. Peery & Peery.

1609 Third Avenue, New York. The wonders begin with the frontpiece picture of President McKinley, drawn in a single line beginning at a point on the cheek and going round and round in a constantly widening circle, with waverings and downbearings of the pen in the proper places to secure detachment and shading. We are told that this portrait "is considered the most unique work of its kind in the world," and if there are degrees of uniqueness we are willing to believe that this is most the thing of which there are no duplicates. Of course there is text in addition to the picture, and we should be surprised indeed to hear from any purchaser the opinion that he has not got his money's worth ($2.00).

Clerk's Wise Suggestion

"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching, and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, head pharmacist of Atholton, Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My doctor suggested I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have no more trouble, and when one can go to eating, it is a relief. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food. Peery & Peery."

A Fireman's Close Call

"I stuck to my engine although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up I got a bottle of K. Peery Bitters, and after taking it I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by Peery & Peery. Price 35c.

The Grand Canon of the Arkansas

Eastest of access among all the canyons of Colorado, being situated on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande between Canon City and Salida in the front range of the Rockies, it is the most spectacular, awe-inspiring and magnificent. Down this mighty cleft in the heart of the granite rock-barrier rush the raging waters of the Arkansas River lashed into foaming fury and dashed into spuming spray by its swift descent through the tortuous defile. So narrow is the passage at one point that there is no room for both road and river, and therefore a curiously constructed bridge of steel had to be thrown longwise of the stream, supporting the roadway on each side to the right and left. And right here can be seen the climax of all the canyon grandeur, that which has been aptly called "The Royal Gorge." For two thousand six hundred feet the solid monoliths soar upward—fifty times as lofty as the Washington monument, the highest permanent structure reared by the hand of man. No words can adequately describe the magnificence of the scene. Only those who have beheld its glories can appreciate them.

Wise or Otherwise

Marriage broadens some men and flattens others. There is no cement that will repair broken promises. Some people would rather be consistent than be right. The man who has the "big head" invariably pears a small hat. Few people would be satisfied if they got all that's coming to them. You may close your eyes to your faults but your neighbors will not. Fortunate is the man who falls only for the purpose of rising higher. It is much easier to reach the top of the ladder than it is to stay there. Too much pleasure is not to be the direct cause of a man's troubles. A man feels like praying when he is miserable; a woman when she is happy. If a woman's waist is shaped like an hourglass the sands of life soon run out. Money is the rich man's faith, the poor man's hope and the good man's charity. Many a poor man has made the discovery that a distant marriage is a government contract. Example may be stronger than precept, but precept does a great deal at example's work. Wisdom is the art of being away from home when a neighbor calls to borrow something. Many a woman clothes her body until she resembles a fashion plate, while she lets her mind go ragged. Some men pay cash for everything they buy because they want to and others because they have to. The man who finds he has bitten off more than he can chew is sure to indulge in a lot of unnecessary talk. Order is heaven's first law, but it is the disorder of earth that enables the lawgiver to get three square meals a day. If a young man owns real estate in a large city it is an easy matter for him to find a girl willing to share his lot.

The Last Heard Of It

"My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," said a large farmer, of the field, 4. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly restored him to his normal health. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and immediately effective. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it. Peery & Peery.

"Around The Pan"

"The reader may make up his mind to be pleasantly overwhelmed by the epidemic and vicinity of 'Around the Pan,' published by Cottonwood Timber Deal.

ALL WOMEN

Wine of Cardui is the guardian of a woman's health and happiness from youth to old age. It helps her safely into womanhood. It sustains her during the trials of pregnancy, childbirth and motherhood, making labor easy and preventing flooding and miscarriage. It gently leads her through the dangerous period known as the change of life. Wine of Cardui cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, and menstrual irregularity in every form. It
