Mr. Morrow is making many new friends during his political work for the nomination of the office of sheriff of this county. He is working along quietly and asking no favor which he would not willingly give. He is in receipt of many letters from numerous leading persons throughout the county who are working for him and they offer him much encouragement. If he should be successful before the convention, and his chances are now very bright, he will undoubtedly be elected, in which case we can assure the voters of Linn county that the office will be filled by a man fully qualified and in every respect an honorable and upright citizen.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to requaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedie on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we haven't any doubt but it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup.—Camden (S. C.) Sharp Barbers.

The barbers' state board of examiners frequently has a good laugh over the efforts of some applicants for a state certificate to answer the questions which are reduced to writing. The following is a sample, and shows how one applicant answered a few of the questions:

Q. What would be proper sanitary rules for a barber shop?

A. Open 7:30; close 8 o'clock.

Q. What would you recommend as a good germkiller for practical barber's use?

A. Carblaced.

Q. Explain how to hone a razor.

A. Hone a razor till it catches on your finger good and smooth.

Q. Explain how to determine its sharpness.

A. Cut a "hare," and many other ways.

Q. What do you regard as a proper shave?

A. Get the "berd" off without hurting.

Q. What disease of the skin should barbers guard against?

A. "Barberich."

Q. How can you distinguish the disease?

A. Never seen it, cannot tell.

Q. How can you overcome the disease?

A. By not shaving him.

"I was just about gone," writes Mrs. Rosa Richardson, of Laurel Springs, N. C., "I had consumption so bad that the best doctors said I could not live more than a month, but I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by seven bottles and am now stout and well." Its an unrivaled life-saver in consumption, Pneumonia, La Grippe, Bronchitis; infallible for coughs, colds, asthma hay fever, croup or whooping cough. Guaranteed bettles 50c and $1.00. Tourist Excursions to the East.

The travelling public will be interested to learn of the system of personally conducted excursion cars operated over the Rio Grande System, popularly known as "The Scenic Line of the World." They are the regular Pullman tourist or "ordinary" sleepers, provided with comfortable berths, bedding and linen of the Pullman standard. They have separote lavatóries, are all well lighted and heated and, in fact are the most successful substitute for the more expensive standard sleepers, the difference arising from the character of upholstering furnished. A colored porter is in attendance of every car and besides him and excursion conducter whose sole duty is to look after the pleasure and comfort of passengers in his charge.

These cars are run through to Kansas City, Omaha, St. Louis and Chicago, making close connections for Boston, New York and all eastern points.

This feature of travel has become so popular that there is now established a regular service of nine cars each week, offering a variety of routes, and schedules so arranged that stop-overs may be made, if desired, at Salt Lake City, Denver, or any point between.

No extra charge is made beyond regular tourist rates.

To those interested we will be glad to quote the lowest fares and furnish full information about the scenic beauties of the Rio Grande Route and its superior accomadations.

Saved Him From Torture.

There is no more agonizing trouble than piles. The constant itching and burning make life intolerable. No position is comfortable. The torture is unceasing. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures piles at once. For skin diseases, cuts, burns bruises, all kinds of wounds, it is unequaled. J. S. Gerall, St. Paul, Ark., writes: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding bleeding piles, and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitts Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Beware of counterfeits. Peery & Peery.

The Shasta Route.

In going over tne famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mauntain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet poll. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop raridly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

MOTHERHOOD

The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

WINE OF CARDUI

143 Market Street,
Memphis, Tenn., April 14, 1901.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again.
