Struck a Rich Find.

"I was troubled several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility, writes F. J. Green of Lancaster, N. H., No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters which did me more good than all all the medicines I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak run down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Peery & Peery.

An Author Speaks.

The late Charles Dudley Warner—author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic Line of the World." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All agents sell through tickets to the east by way of the Rio Grande lines. Won in a Walk.

A minister of the gospel once saw a crowd of boys sitting in front of a ring with a small dog in the center. Walking up to the crowd he inquired: "What are you going to do with that dog, boys?" After a short silence one of them replied: "We are going to give him to the one who can tell the biggest lie." The preacher replied: "I am surprised at you, boys, for when I was a boy I never told a lie." After another short pause one little fellow shouted: "Give him the dog, boys!"

An advance of a dollar or two per thousand in the price of lumber will perhaps be unsatisfactory to most of the users of that valuable commodity, but as a general advantage to Oregon the advance will be most welcome. It will add more than $1,000,000 to the value of the output of the mills of Oregon, and but a small fraction of this sum will be exacted from lumber buyers within the confines of the state. Lumber is too cheap and it will stand several advances of a dollar or two per thousand, and still fall far short of making financial atonement for the reckless sacrifice of one of our greatest natural resources. In making the price of timber land $6 and $7 per acre, and the price of lumber $7 and $8 per thousand feet, we are almost giving away a heritage which in a few years will double, treble, quadruple in value.

No man can please everybody, and it is folly to attempt it. A little experience soon teaches a wise man this useful truth. Let a man be sufficiently critical of his own conduct and then do what he thinks right. He need not worry about public opinion. The public is quick to censure, quick to praise, but quickest to forget. Politicians think that by swaying with the breath of the moment they can perpetuate themselves in the affection of a multitude, but the true leader is the man that does his own thinking and stands by his own convictions. He may lose favor for awhile but in the long run he wins and he keeps the respect of all men.

Oregon has a good example to follow in the state of New York, which is appropriating a million dollars a year to build good roads. Other states in the union are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to better the condition of their highways. It is asserted that the Massachusetts highway commission, which is empowered to spend $50,000 yearly in building and improving roads of that state, has saved the rural population of Massachusetts from 33 per cent to 50 per cent in the annual outlay for horses and vehicles; and the increase there in the value of real estate as a result of the commission's efforts is said to be enormous.

It is not often in this day that anybody saps advertising doesn't pay. Some forms of publicity are too expensive for the result they bring; but without some publicity nobody but the burglar can succeed. The fact that a man has a sign over his door is proof that he thinks advertising pays. A newspeper is a medium which a man can use according to his means or his desire, and if the best paper for the purpose be selected it will pay according to the space used.

The numerous friends of W. F. Hammer are placing his name before the democratic voters of the county for the office of county clerk. He has held the office during the past two years, and has made an efficient officer, and if he should be successful in the convention will doubtless poll a very heavy vote at the coming election.

For The Complexion.

The complexion always suffer from billiousness or constipation. Unless the bowels are kept open the impurities from the body appear in the form of unsightly eruptions. De Witt's Little Early Risers keep the liver and bowels in healthy condition and remove thecause of such trubles. C. E. Hooper, Albany, Ga., says: "I took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness. They were just I needed. I am feeling better now than in years." Never gripe or distress. Safe though gentle. They are the best. Peery & Peery.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

MOTHERHOOD
The greatest ambition of American men and women is to have homes blessed with children. The woman afflicted with female disease is constantly menaced with becoming a childless wife. No medicine can restore dead organs, but Wine of Cardui does regulate derangements that prevent conception; does prevent miscarriage; does restore weak functions and shattered nerves and does bring babies to homes barren and desolate for years. Wine of Cardui gives women the health and strength to bear healthy children. You can get a dollar bottle of Wine of Cardui from your dealer.

In February, 1901, I took one bottle of Wine of Cardui and one package of Thedford's Black-Draught. I had been married fifteen years and had never given birth to a child until I took Wine of Cardui. Now I am mother of a fine baby girl which was born March 31, 1901. The baby weighs fourteen pounds and I feel as well as any person could feel. Now my home is happy and I never will be without Wine of Cardui in my house again.
