An Author Speaks.

The late Charles Dudley Warner —author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic Line of the World." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All agents sell through tickets to the east by way of the Rio Grande lines. Shot in His left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles. Cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a gunshot wound in my left leg," says A S Fuller, English, Ind. It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me. Peery & Peery.

EDITORIAL HASH

The attention of our readers is called to the political card of S. P. Munkers, who is the democratic nominee for county recorder. Mr. Munkers needs no introduction from us. He is well and favorably known in this section as well as all over Linn county. He was born on a farm near this city, and has made his home here during his lifetime. He is a man of excellant character, one against whom nothing can be said other than words of praise for his integrity and gentlemanly qualities. He was not a candidate for public favors until the nomination for the office of county recorder was forced upon him the day of the late convention, and we do not hesitate to say that if he shall be successful at the coming election he will fill the office of county recorder with credit to himself and satisfaction to the people of the entire county.

When it comes to measuring rain fall, it is surprising how much water there is in rain, and how deceiving is the gentle, misty fall of the Northwest. In actual measurement one inch of rainfall is equivalent to 27,147 gallons of water on an acre of 43,560 square feet, or 892 barrels of water of 31½ gallons each, weighing 113½ tons, or 75,516 tons to a square mile of 640 acres.

The beet sugar makers of the West represent a capital of $100,000,000, and they are organizing to contend with the American Sugar Refining Co., and make a sort of a trust-against-trust struggle. Ex-Congressman J. Hamilton Lewis, of Washington state, is mentioned as president.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.
