Wants To Help Others.

"I had stomach trouble all my life," say Edw. Mehler, proprietor of the Union Bottling Works, Erie, Pa., and tried all kinds of remedies went to several doctors and spent considerable money trying to get a moments peace. Finally I read of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have been taking it to my great satisfaction. I never found its equal for stomach trouble and gladly recommend it in hope that I may help other sufferers. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. Peery & Peery.

A Serious Accident.

Ed Young, who resides near Providence church, was the victim of a very peculiar as well as serious accident Monday morning, and which may result fatally in spite of all that medical aid can do. He was in the hay loft for the purpose of getting hay for his stock, and after throwing down the hay he dropped the pitch-fork down and proceeded to get out of the loft himself. In doing so he slipped and fell, and as the fork handle was standing upright he fell upon it, and the handle entered his bowels and extended upward through his intestines and bladder for a distance of about fifteen inches. Medical aid was at once summoned, Dr. Prill of this city and Dr. Davis of Albany, being called, and an operation was performed on him, and on the following day a more extended operation was performed, and he is resting easy, although but slight hopes are entertained for his recovery. Miss Mae Myers, who is a professional nurse of wide experience, is in attendance, and everything possible is being done for him.

Shot in His left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles. Cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a gunshot wound in my left leg," says A S Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Peery & Peery.

An Author Speaks.

The late Charles Dudley Warner—author, editor and traveler—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic Line of the World." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All agents sell through tickets to the east by way of the Rio Grande lines. Send for pamphlets to Geo. W. Heintz, Asst. General Passenger Agent, Salt Lake City.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan Hartford Conn. scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, but he writes "I use one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1 1-2 boxes of Bucken Arnica Salve and leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitter has no rival on earth. Try them. Peery & Peery will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

It is interesting to Sunday School workers to note that the first Sunday School west of the Rocky mountains was organized sixty-seven years ago. It began its work with thirteen children, three being Indians and ten mixed blood. New scholars were enrolled each Sunday until all the children in the neighborhood were members of the school, and mothers came two or three miles with their infant children. The school was organized in the mission house of the Methodist church near Salem, and its lineal decendent is the First Methodist Sunday School of to-day. Cyrus Shepard was the first superintendent of the school, an old worker in this line, but at that time a teacher of a day school at the mission. It was nearly 12 years after the organization of this school that James H. Wilbur planted the first Sunday School in California. But though of yesterday, in its beginning, the Pacific coast is now dotted with Sunday Schools, and Sunday School work in Oregon is little behind that of any state in the union.—Statesman.

Hon. M. A. Miller was a member of the legislature in 1893, and while there did a good deal of work which has since proven of great benefit to the people. He secured the passage of a resolution providing for the election of U. S. senators by direct vote of the people. He supported a resolution providing for the government ownership and control of all telephone and telegraph systems. He has always been a hard worker for the common school system of this country, as well as many other features which have proven of great benefit to the people. He is an able worker among men and his efforts in behalf of any measure have proven very successful.

Governor General Wood is urging that the wreck of the "Maine," a menace to navigation in Havana harbor, be removed. The work will cost about $600,000. The private firms that offered to do the work for the use of the material in souvenirs, have "backed out," as the proposition is harder than it looked at first, and the interest in the souvenirs has subsided.

The net earnings of the steel trust for the past year, from March, 1901, were over $11,000,000, giving a 7 per cent dividend on preferred and 4 per cent on common stock, besides leaving a large fund for improvements and surplus. Though the capital of the trust is said to be liberally "watered" the net earnings came to just 10 per cent on its face value.

President Roosevelt has indicated that he will veto the Senate irrigation bill now pending unless the federal and not state governments is given control of all canals and reservoirs built by government funds.

Fatal Accident.

A. P. Russell, a son of E. C. Russell, of Shelburn, was killed Saturday afternoon while logging on the upper waters of the Luckiamute, by a tree falling upon him. He had been working there only three days. His companions were cutting a tree. At the time he was working down the side of the hill, in a place out of sight from the other men. Just as the tree was falling they heard a noise where he was located and gave a warning cry, but it was too late. The end of the tree struck him, causing injuries from which he died in seven hours. The remains of the unfortunate young man were brought to his home near Shelburn Monday, and the funeral took place Tuesday, interment being made at the Miller cemetery.

The family have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in their sad loss.

DIED.

FLEMING—At the home of her mother, 4 miles east of Scio, on Wednesday, April 9, 1902, Girtrude Pern Fleming, aged 25 years, 11 months and 7 days.

Girtrude Pern Fleming was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fleming, and was born at Hillsboro, Washington county, Oregon, May 16, 1876, and when a young lady she came with her parents to Scio, where she has since resided. A little over six weeks ago Miss Fleming was taken very ill with typhoid fever, which in time turned to consumption. Everything in medical aid was done for her, but her frail constitution could not bear its average, and on Wednesday at 12:15, surrounded by friends and loved ones, and in the full realization of a brighter and happier beyond, she passed out of this earthly life. She was a bright, intelligent young woman, of excellent character, and was loved by all who knew her. Her untimely death has cast a gloom upon the whole community. She leaves behind to mourn the loss of a departed one a loving mother, two sisters and three brothers, her father, one sister and two brothers having preceded her to the other shore. Three years ago Miss Fleming made a profession of religion and has since lived a consistent Christian life. The funeral services were held at Bilyeu Den cemetery at 2 p. m. Thursday, conducted by Rev. Cole, who spoke eloquently and consolingly to the sorrowing friends and relatives gathered to take a last view of their loved one, and just as the golden sun was shedding its last rays her body was laid to rest, a touching tribute to the peaceful ending of a happy life.

She did not fear to cross the tide,
Her home was on the other side
Where neither clouds nor storms appear
And days are never dark or drear.

We laid her treasured form away
Within its narrow home of clay,
And angels bore her soul on high,
With memories that will never die.

Adieu, adieu, loved one, adieu;
Earth had no dwelling place for you;
But brighter far thy home shall be
With Christ throughout eternity.

Oil for the Children.

Give them oil—cod-liver oil. It's curious to see the result.

Give it to the peevish, fretful child, and he laughs. Give it to the pale, anæmic child, and his face becomes rosy and full of health. Take a flatchested child, or a child that has stopped growing, give him the oil, and he will grow big and strong like the rest.

This is not a new scheme. It has been done for years. Of course you must use the right oil. Scott's Emulsion is the one.

Scott's Emulsion neither looks nor tastes like oil because we are so careful in making it pleasant to take.

STOPS PAIN

Athens, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901.

Ever since the first appearance of my menses they were very irregular and I suffered with great pain in my hips, back, stomach and legs, with terrible bearing down pains in the abdomen. During the past month I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught, and I passed the monthly period without pain for the first time in years.

A Sure Cure For Consumption.

An Arizona man is so positive that goat's milk is a sure cure for consumption that he will establish a mammoth goat camp in the Mongollon mountains. Two years ago the man, who is Robert Williams, of Phoenix, went to that place a confirmed consumptive, bought a small goat ranch and on a constant diet of goat milk gradually regained his health and has nearly doubled his weight in two years.
