How To Secure Happiness.

Happiness is a matter of comparison. Perfect, unalloyed happiness is not found on earth. The ideas of what constitutes happiness are as various as people are. One man thinks a cottage, a cow and a pig would make him "happy as a king." Another imagines that a good farm, well stocked, and with comfortable buildings would satisfy his desires. Still another thinks if he could command only $50,000 his happiness would be complete. The invalid wishes for health alone. Some set their hearts on power, or position. Girls often sigh for beauty. Too many think that happiness lies in possessing wealth. It lies in none of these things. The man who wishes for a cottage, cow and pig, would soon wish for a larger house and more cows and more pigs, did he obtain his wish. He who thought $50,000 would satisfy him would quickly see that he could use $200,000. Happiness does not rise from any of these sources. Wealth and power give us happiness only when the heart is right. Happiness must come from within.

A clear conscience is the first need. We must know that we have wronged none, we must have kindly feelings toward our brother man, we must do good where we may. We must cheerfully endure that which is to be borne, and as cheerfully turn to and help that which can't be helped. We must make the best of what comes to us and not repine over what we cannot have. In a cheerful disposition and a clear conscience lies the main points. In making happiness for those about us we shall find most of our own. Try each day to make everyone with whom you have to do, happier for your being there, and you will find that you do not have to seek happiness for yourself. Many come daily in your way. There are young and old, rich and poor, glad and sorrowing; have a smile or kind word, and lend a helping hand when you can. Be just to all. You need not then think about your own happiness and will possess most that can belong to one. In a word be unselfish and you will be happy.—Ex.

Wants To Help Others.

"I had stomach trouble all my life," say Edw. Mehler, proprietor of the Union Bottling Works, Erie, Pa., and tried all kinds of remedies went to several doctors and spent considerable money trying to get a moments peace. Finally I read of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have been taking it to my great satisfaction. I never found its equal for stomach trouble and gladly recommend it in hope that I may help other sufferers. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. You don't have to diet. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. Peery & Peery.

A Family Jar.

"Eve," growled Adam, "these biscuits are fierce!"

"Don't you like them, dear?"

"Like 'em! Huh! Not half like moth—ahem! they're bum—very bum! I wish you'd buy a cook book!"

"They say a man's soul is in his stomach, and I believe it!"

"Eve," and Adam glared, "you're the most exasperating woman I ever saw! By jing, I wish I had my rib back!"

"There you go—throwing that in my face again! Who asked for your old rib, anyway? Weren't you just as lonesome as you could be until I came?"

"And I wish I'd been satisfied to let it go at that! Another case of 'When lonesomeness is bliss 'tis folly to get married!'"

"Boo-hoo!"

"Here, now——"

"Boo-hoo-oo!"

"Aw say! Darn it, Eve——"

Boo-hoo! I w-wish I w-w-was de-e-ead!"

"Gosh-blame it all, Eve, I was just jokin'! Don't do that! Honest—the biscuits are the best ever—and I'd eat 'em if they were like cobblestones! I'm a chump and a fool and——"

And a benevolent old Boomptagosaurus looked on with a fatherly smile while the reconciliation took place.

"Egobulus!" he ejaculated, "the woman wins with the tears of defeat!"

And she continues to do so even to this day.

At Lebanon Thursday night of last week, G. M. Westfall, the well known liveryman, was at work in his stables and had hold of a team, when he suddenly dropped dead beside the horses. He had been in poor health, but had been feeling better lately. He was about fifty years of age and leaves a wife and two daughters.

New York Life suggested that Washington's birthday be commemorated by a grand civil and military parade in the national capital, made up as follows:

I.—The members of both Houses of Congress in sackcloth and ashes, and walking barefoot.

II.—Captives from the Philippines, gagged and manacled—symbolizing American pacification and benevolent assimilation of the Orient.

III.—Sons of the Spanish War Veterans with a cart-load of medals.

IV.—Members of the Boards of Boodle men of New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, guarded by secret service men.

V.—John Doe on a float.

VI.—Historian Maclay posed as Ajax.

VII.—Grand Conclave or commandery of the Infernal Order of Yellow Journalists, "the Devils Own."

VIII.—Senator Tillman escorting Booker T. Washington.

IX.—Hot Air Chapter of the Amalgamated Order of Get Rich Quick Promoters in Black Marias—typifying Prosperity.

Bird-Shot For Tiger.

No use to hunt tigers with bird-shot. It doesn't hurt the tiger any and it's awfully risky for you.

Consumption is a tiger among diseases. It is stealthy —but once started it rapidly eats up the flesh and destroys the life. No use to go hunting it with ordinary food and medicine. That's only bird-shot. It still advances. Good heavy charges of Scott's Emulsion will stop the advance. The disease feels that.

Scott's Emulsion makes the body strong to resist. It soothes and toughens the lungs and sustains the strength until the disease wears itself out.

A Close Call.

Noon comes at 12:27 legal standard time in Akron, Ohio, according to a decision just handed down by the supreme court. Thomas Mier took out a fire insurance policy on his saloon at 11:30 standard time, five years ago, the policy being dated at noon that day. At the very minute he was getting the policy the saloon caught fire and was burned. Ohio law makes standard time legal time and the company refused to pay the insurance on Meir's saloon. The case was fought through the supreme court, which decided that noon meant the time the sun passed the meridian at Akron, which is at 11:27, standard time. The court ordered the insurance company to pay.

A Sample of Cow Profits.

From 10 head of cows milked by Cal Yates on his farm a few miles east of Corvallis, the net profit during the past twelve months was $400. This includes five head of male calves sold, but does not include five head of fine heifer yearlings which Mr. Yates has to show for additional profit. Mr. Yates has his own seperator and the butter fat was marketed at Oakville. The milking industry was only incidental in the farm work, and no specialty was made of it. The $400 is net profit, all expense of feed being deducted. What pays better than dairy farming?—Times.

Imports And Exports.

The manufacturers of the country are now importing more than a million dollars worth of material for their workshops every day in the year, and are exporting more than a million dollars worth of their finished product each day. The imports of manufacturers' materials in the eight months ending with February 1902, were, according to a statement just issued by the treasury bureau of statistics, $270,202,774, and the exports of finished manufacturers during the same period were 357,907,430. Thus, in 243 days of the fiscal year the manufacturers have imported $270,000,000 worth of material and exported $257,000,000 worth of their finished product, thus averaging more than $1,000,000 of both imports and exports for every day. The importation of manufacturers' materials has beeen greater in the eight months just ended than in the corresponding period of any preceeding year.

He Kept His Leg.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan Hartford Conn. scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, but he writes "I use one bottle of Electric Bitters and 1 1-2 boxes of Bucken Arnica Salve and leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitter has no rival on earth. Try them. Peery & Peery will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

Going in the Hole.

The present indebtedness of the city of Woodburn is $1891.93. The 10-mill levy will bring in about $1130. The cost of running the city for the fiscal year ending April 1, 1903, is estimated at about $1500. The city will be in debt at the end of the fiscal year about $1961.93 less fines and licenses that may come in.—Independent.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.
