Emperor William's new American built yacht "Meteor" sailed from New York to Germany last week.

Kentucky feudists seem bent on verifying General Funston's assertion that there is as much war in that state as there is in the Philippines.

Cattle outnumber all other domestic animals in the United States, with hogs second, and sheep a close third. Horses, mules and goats follow in order.

The average milk product in the United states is 424 gallons per yea for each cow. The average price per pound for the 518,000,000 pounds of butter fat sold last year was 17 cents, and the 15,000,000 pounds of cheese went at 9 cents a pound.

After a long investigation the the grand jury of St. Louis, Mo., has decided that the city has the most corrupt and disgraceful administration in the country.

Now that a step has been taken toward consular reform it should be followed quickly by others to put the service squarely on a merit basis.

Germany's exports fell off five per cent in the last year, and her imports six per cent, leaving a balance of trade against her of nearly $300,000,000. Imports from the United States increased while exports to this country decreased, so that we are getting the best of the money end of he trade between the two countries.

An editor, writing in one of the prominent magazines of the country seriously answers the question, "Can a newspaper editor be an honest man?" and answers it in the negative.

A profesor of the University of Chicago says that he saw in a small town east of the river Jordan in the Holy Land, a wind-mill which had been made in Batavia, Illinois.

Health authorities all over the country report that while modern sanitary methods have to some degree checked the ravages of most diseases, the number of deaths from cancer is on the increase.

Our Philosopher's Corner.

A true genetleman does not have to boast he was born one.

The man born with a silver spoon in his mouth usually swallows the spoon.

The reason why some people have money to burn is because they don't burn it.

Poverty is usually a crime resulting from laziness and punishable by hard labor.

Don't hold a man responsible for his fool kin. You have troubles of that kind of your own.

Methuselah lived 969 years, but mind you, that was before patent medicine was invented.

The man who boasts that he can drink or let it alone is not apt to let it alone the most.

There are plenty of self made men who must have obtained the material at a bargain store.

Character is what you are and a reputation is just what people think you are.

There are some wise fathers in this town who may someday know as much as their sons.

The man who buys a vote is as mean as the man who sells it, but he is not near as cheap.

The only thing good about the lives of some men is that they are a warning to others.

Any man who is mean enough to traduce and abuse the land that produced and feeds him has not got as much gratefulness as the beasts of the fields.

Where and How Pansies Grow Best.

Give them if possible a place where they will be sheltered from the hot afternoon sun. Cut off the old flowers as they fade, and keep the ground mellow and free from weeds. They will bloom well until the hot days of midsummer. Then their flowers will be small and there will not be many of them. It is a good plan to cut the old plants back at that time and allow them renew themselves for autumn.—May Ladies' Home Journal.

Cassidy—Man ye're drunk Casey —'Tis a lie ye're spakin', Cassidy. Ye'd not dare to say that to me iv Oi was sober. Cassidy—Iv ye wuz sober ye'd hav sinse enough to know ye wuz drunk.—Ex.

Little Sermons.

I believe in the sunshine; friendship; calm sleep; beautiful thoughts. —Hubbard.

Hate is a destructive force. To hate is simply to tear yourself and your spirit to pieces.

The most delicate and the most sensible of all pleasures consists in promoting the pleasures of others.—Bruyere.

Good will builds up stronger and stronger. It draws to you healthy and constructive elements from all with whom you come in contact.—Prentice Mulford.

I believe the best way to prepare for a future life is to be kind, live one day at a time, and do the work you can do the best, doing it as well as you can.—Hubbard.

Beautiful is the activity which works for good, and beautiful the stillness which await for good; blessed the self-forgetfulness of the other.—Robert Collyer.

"To love some one more dearly ev'ry day,
To help a wand'ring child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls.
To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To do my best from dawn of day till night,
To keep my heart fit for His holy light,
And answer when He calls.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Capp Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constan speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over worked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Peery & Peery.

The Sentimental Symbolism of Colors.

Red, for courage and intense love. Its emblem is the ruby.

White, for youth, freshness and innocence; represented by pearls and diamonds.

Yellow—the topaz—wisdom and glory, but jealousy, too, except for the November born.

Violet means dignity, and the amethyst is highly prized as an amulet to keep friendship and love.

Green symbolizes hope, joy, youth and is represented by the emerald, which is fabled to change color if the love changes.

Blue means constancy, truth and friendship, and is represented by the sapphire, although the "forget-me-not" stone, the turvuoise, and even turquoise-matrix, have claims for recognition.—May Ladies' Home Journal.

Politics hez changed mightily in dis country," says the old time colored voter. "Hit's all diffunt now fum what hit use ter be." "You think so?" "I know so?" W'y de time wuz wen Marse Bill would make up his min' dat he wanted an office, en he'd shoulder his shotgun en walk right in de middle er de crowd, en say: 'Boys, dat's de office yander, ain't it?' 'Yes,' dey'd make answer, 'dat sho' is it!' 'Well Im done 'lected ter dat office, ain't I?' En dey'd all speak up, ez one man, 'Cose you is 'lected ter it! Go 'long in dar, en hang yo' hat up, en en shet de do!' What you stan'in' roun' hesh fer, anyhow? Go 'long in, whar' you b'long!' "—Atlanta Constitution.

You Can Lead a Horse
to water but you can't make him drink.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry all over. Thought a thin body was naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use it's food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

Ideas for the Kitchen.

Use a pancake lifter to place cookies on the tin, and to remove them when they are baked.

Cold boiled potatoes are more appetizing if a little flour is sprinkled over them while frying.

It saves strength in beating bread to use a spoon with a perforated bowl. Cost, 10 cents.

Put wornout pie tins in the sink cupboard and use them to set crockery kettle in.

Rub a little butter on the fingers and on the knife when seeding raisins to avoid the stickiness.

If there is not batter enough to fill the gem pan put cold water in the empty space before setting the pan in the oven.

Crockery ornamented with gilt bands or figures should be washed quickly and drained dry, never wiped even with a soft cloth.

Rub the inner casing of windows that shove up and down hard with a little hard soap; serve bureau drawers in the same way.

Use cheap varnish to attach labels to maple syrup cans, to cans of tea and coffee, to boxes of spices, starch, etc., and all glass bottles. Never leave a glass bottle without a label.

To clean a kettle in which onions or other rank vegetables have been cooked, rub with cloth dipped in hot, strong soda water, then wash in soapy water.

When black spots appear on doughnuts, drop a slice of raw potato into the fat and leave it while the next relay is frying and repeat.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

"I notice," said the colored parson, hesitating on the margin of mill-pond, "dat dey is two big alligators sunnin' deyse'f on a log over yander. How many canderdates is dey fer baptizin'?"

"Thirteen."

"Dat's a onlucky number; en 'sides dat de weather's sorter airish, en I des ain't willin' ter take de responsibility er givin' de Lawd's people pneumonia. Receive de benediction!"
