Better Come Back.

Frank Miller and family have been having hard luck since leaving Lebanon last fall. A month or two ago, at Council, Idaho, the dwelling in which they lived burned down in the night, consuming all their household goods and nearly all their clothing, the family going to a friends in their night clothes. They then moved to Prairie City, Grant county, this state, where Mr. Miller purchased a $2500 stock of drugs. About a week afterward, early this month, fire broke out in the hotel at that place and a good part of the town, including Mr. Miller's drug store, was destroyed. He carried insurance to the amount of $1000.—Lebanon E. A.

An effort is being made to improve the notorious "Elliott Lane," between this city and Lebanon, and anyone who has ever been over the road during the winter months will agree with us that it is high time that something was done in the way of improving it. A couple of the citizens of this section are circulating a petition for the improvement and asking for donations to their part in making the road possible during the greater part of the year.

Lyle, only son of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Craft, died at the home of his parents, eight miles south of this city, Saturday, May 17, aged 10 years and seven months. He had been ill for several days past with typhoid fever, but was taken with pneumonia in the latter part of the week, and Dr. Prill was called in consultation with Dr. Prill, and every possible means was taken to give him relief, but with no avail, and death claimed him. Being the only son of indigent parents he was feebly idolized both by them and his loving sisters, all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. His untimely death has cast a shadow in a home that was like sunshine and left a great grief in the heart of each inmate that time alone can gild.

The funeral services were held at Providence cemetery Sunday, conducted by Rev. Eugene, of Brownsville.

Card Of Thanks.

To each and all who so kindly gave their assistance during the sickness, death and burial of our dear son, Lyle, we wish to extend our grateful thanks.

MURDER AT JUNCTION CITY.

Saloon Man Shot Down in Cold Blood—His Place Robbed of $75.

JUNCTION CITY, MAY 20—Ben Tracy, bar-tender at the Monogram saloon, was murdered in cold blood last night, shortly after midnight. The saloon till, containing over $75 was rifled. There is a slight clew to the murderer, who is believed to be a transient. He has escaped. There is nothing to indicate that more than one man was concerned in the crime.

At the inquest it was found that Tracy was 55 years old; had a wife living in Newport, Or.; was without enemies and the only motive for the crime was robbery.

The bloody tragedy has thrown this peaceful little city into the wildest excitement.
