IRA A. PHELPS, Publisher

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, JUNE 13, 1902

Hert Peterson, of Milwaukee, Or., waded 1100 that he could hypnotize a ferocious bull in a field. The animal chased Peterson as soon as he approached. Peterson dodged for a while and was finally battered through a high board fence which he attempted to scale. He was taken to a Milwaukee hospital with three ribs broken, his shoulder dislocated and his knee badly cut. He says he will pay the bet.

Some people are so literal and exact in expression that they give pain, but the chief of the tribe was a man, told in yesterday's dispatches, who asked leave of a farmer to "hang up" in the barn overnight. "All right," said the farmer, "but don't smoke." Next morning the farmer found his guest "hanging up" by a hay rope. The guest was dead—a victim of literal expression.

Nobody expects that Senator Mays, the author of the bill, or his colleagues, will pay any attention to the popular vote for U. S. senator. The law was only passed for buncombe. Catch any of that group of gentlemen submitting the choice of Senator to the people when they can do much more effectively choosing it to a few men of their own choosing!

We read simultaneously of great strikes in Pennsylvania and of the greatest payment ever made in one month of dividends and interest by trusts euphemistically called "industrial organizations." The connection between the two things may not be traceable but it can be imagined.

It is very certain that the railroadman to beat the Nicaragua canal. Mr. Hanna is out in search of volcanos, and what he can't find he manufactures. Some of these days the Senator will find one he is not looking for. In fact he is sitting on one right now.

Oregon needs more improved breeds of live stock of all kinds, but the selection should be made by the Oregon breeder themselves, as they are better qualified to judge the kind and number of stock the country demands than anyone else.

Most of the live stock exhibitors intend taking in the entire circuit this year, showing at Salem, North Yakima, Spokane, Lewiston and Boise. They will give each place a big show, and will be a great thing for the breeding industry.

Every person in this state can give something to the Lewis and Clark fair. If they are not able to assist in the way of money, they can give their good will and moral support. The fair must, and can be a success if we will all do our part.

John F. Jewell has just been appointed United States Consul at Martinique. Either Jewell was hard up for a job or Roosevelt is something of a practical joker.

Cecil Rhodes left plenty of "dust" but nobody has yet thought of calling him "Dusty Rhodes." The American joker seems to be losing his brightness.

The Oregon state fair will be better this year than ever. This means a big fair.

New Postal Regulations.

In addition to carrying the mails to the various postoffices on the star routes the carrier on each route (except when otherwise specifically stated) will also be required to deliver mail into all boxes, and hang bags or satchels containing mail on cranes or posts that may be erected along the route under the conditions: Any person living on or near a star route herein described, and not within the expiration limits of any town, or within 90 rods of any postoffice, who desires his mail deposited at a given point on the line of the route by the carrier of said route, may provide and erect a suitable box or a crane on the roadside, located in such a manner as to be reached as conveniently as practicable by the carrier, without dismounting from the vehicle or horse, and such person shall file with the postmaster at the postoffice to which his mail is addressed (which shall be one of the two postoffices on the route on either side of and next to the box or crane) a request in writing for the delivery of his mail to the carrier on the route for delivery at the designated point at the risk of the addressee.

At the South Harrisburg precinct polls Monday a Jacksonian Democrat of 70 summers, stepped up to one of the Judges and asked for a ballot. Like our republican friend of North Harrisburg, he, too, was a little hard of hearing. The judge said, "Initials please." "A nickel!" indignantly replied the old man, "I'll be darned if I do. I never paid a cent in my life for votes! Such a thing was never heard of in Missouri, where I came from, and I'll be dog tucky if I want to do to begin!" And with this parting rebuke to his offended dignity, the old gentleman stalked out.—Harrisburg Bulletin.

Virulent Cancer Curd.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and Applied Buckle's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matches healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters 50c. Salve 25c at Peery & Peery's.

The New Legislature.

Election returns show that the next Legislature will probably stand as follows: Senate—Republican, 20; Democrats 19. House—Republican, 49; Democrats 20.

On joint ballot—Republican, 69 Democrats 20. George H. Williams will have at least 800 majority for mayor of Portland. Almost the entire Republican ticket, county and city in Multnomah county is successful.

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We felt very happy," writes R. N. Bevil, Old Town, Va., when Buckle's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scold head. It delights all who use it for cuts, corns, burns, bruises, boils, ulcers, eruptions. Infallible for piles. Only 25c at Peery & Peery's.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland and traversing the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest, Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters, the snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes stretching up to the limit of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canyons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. On a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canyons of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Oregon City, Oregon, June 9, 1902. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the State of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory, as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, M. L. Simpson, of Albany county, Linn State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 877, for the purchase of the N. W. 1/4 of sec. 28, in T. 36, N. 10, E. Range No. 4 E., and with other proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the county clerk of Linn county, at Albany, Oregon, on Monday, the 26th day of August, 1902.

Who names as witnesses: John T. Simpson and L. M. Conner of Albany, Oregon; T. H. Hanson of Astoria, Oregon; and J. E. Welch, of Missou, Oregon.

Any and all persons claiming adverse title to the above-described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 26th day of August, 1902.

Lake of Perfume.

On the Mangrove peninsula, in the Oregon sea, there are five small lakes, one of them is covered with salt crystals strong enough to allow a man and boat to cross the lake on foot; another is as round as any circle and a lovely rose color. The banks of salt crystal form a setting, while on the dried snow, to the water, which not only shows all the colors from violet to rosy red, but from which rises a perfume as of violets. Both the perfume and the color are the result of the presence of seaweeds, the violet and the pink.
