Boers Granted Self-Government.

Following is a synopsis of Balfour's statement in the House of Commons of the terms of peace between the Boers and England: The burling forces lay down their arms and hand over all their rifles, guns and munitions of war in their possession or under their control. All prisoners are to be brought back as soon as possible to South Africa, without loss of liberty or property. No action is to be taken against prisoners except where they are guilty of breaches of the rules of war. Dutch is to be taught in the schools, if desired by the parents, and used in the courts if necessary. Rifles are allowed for protection. Military occupation is to be withdrawn as soon as possible, and self-government substituted. There is to be no tax on the Transvaal to pay the cost of the war. The sum of $15,000,000 is to be provided for restocking the inner farms. Rebels are liable for trial, according to the law of the colony to which they belong. The rank and file will be disfranchised for life.

Five Calves at a Birth.

Indiana possesses the most wonderful cow living. This cow is a Shorthorn, eleven years old. Up to date she has given birth to twenty-two calves. At three years old in 1893 she gave birth to one calf; in 1894 she had triplets; in 1895 she gave birth to five calves and raised two; in 1896, to four, raising three; in 1897 to four, raising one; in 1898, to five, raising one. All these calves were perfectly developed in every way and of both sexes.

Now is the time to place your orders for cemetery work so that it can be put up before Decoration-day. M. N. Richardson is prepared to furnish estimates on all kinds of monument work. See him before placing your orders.

S. M. Daniel, of Monmouth, was in town the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. May were at the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hibler were county seat visitors Wednesday.

Wm. Calvert, of Portland, was up this way the first of the week.

Quite a delegation of one people attended the picnic at Lebanon Friday last.

We, as usual, pay the highest price for all kinds of produce. Blacksmiths.

I purchased a lot of land a few days ago, and have plenty of fine land on hand. Ross E. Hibler.

H. A. Johnson, of Salem, was up this way over Sunday, shaking hands with old-time friends.

Rev. Sperry conducted services at the Baptist church in this city last Sunday, Morning and evening.

County surveyor Higgs, of Albany was in town the first of the week, raising some lines for S. M. Daniel.

W. A. Ewing left Saturday last for Gold Hill, Jackson county, called there by the death of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ireland.

A. W. Hagen has just received a new assortment of clocks, which he is selling at astonishingly low prices. Call and see them.

Mrs. M. Barnett, of McKinney, Texas, has been visiting friends in Scio the past week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morris.

For sale—A Buffalo Pitts-Crocker, $24.00, in good condition, with rubber belting complete. Inquire of J. T. Brock, Scio, Oregon.

Wanted—Those owing us to call and settle their accounts at once. We must close our standing accounts. Peery & Peery.

P. H. McDonald went to Portland the first of the week as a delegate to the grand lodge of Masons, which convenes there this week.

Woody Bros. have part of their goods displayed and more on the road. They opened their doors to the public the first of the week.

R. Shelton was at the county seat the latter part of last week, he being one of the board selected to make the official count of the election returns.

Ernest Long has purchased the interest of E. D. Walter in the Jefferson meat market, and is now sole proprietor of that business. Mr. Long is an energetic young man and a first-class butcher and is deserving of the liberal patronage that will be given him by our people.—Jefferson Review.

Ross E. Hibler is still keeping up his reputation of shipping more produce such as chickens, eggs and butter than any other merchant in the valley. He ships about 1000 pounds of butter a week, and about as many dozen eggs. Of course he pays the top price for this produce, and that is the reason he gets so much of it.

The boys had a heap of fun watching the payment of an election bet Wednesday evening. Earl Apperley and G. B. Hoyt had bet on Governor H. H. Hays' victory, but by losing Earl down first street in an "Irish buggy," the boys having a picnic on his back reading, "I'm a sucker as a soft-boiled American." They were accompanied by a boss and snore drum and a number of small boys.—Jefferson Review.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carl died at her home in Point View, near Portland, Saturday, June 7, aged 68 years, and the remains were brought to this city for burial, and the funeral took place Tuesday, June 10, conducted by Rev. Sperry, of Brownsville, and the remains were laid away at the Franklin Datto cemetery. Mrs. Carl was quite well known hereabouts, herself and family having resided near here for a good many years. A little over a year ago they moved to Portland, where they have since resided. She leaves a husband and seven children, who mourn the loss of a kind and loving parent and wife, besides a host of friends here who deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives.

Friday last the Scio camp, W. O. W., assisted by the members of the camp from Stayton, unveiled the monument erected by the order, near the grave of A. D. Woodruff, at Franklin Datto cemetery. The ceremony was very pretty, and was performed in the presence of a large circle of friends of his and crowd. The Woodruffs of the World erect a great monument over the graves of each member of the time of their demise, and this feature alone is worth the cost of membership. It shows that the member's last resting place is to be forgotten, and by marking his grave, it is to be restored to him, and his grave decorated with beautiful flowers as a token of the esteem he was held in during his life.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ireland, former residents of this city, will be glad to learn of the death of both of them which occurred in Jackson county during the last few days of May, their being one of the most sudden deaths on record. Mr. Ireland was taken ill with pneumonia, and being afflicted with the asthma he had long suffered from, he was taken suddenly a few days later, and death soon claimed her, leaving five children to mourn their demise. Two of the children are married, and one of them will probably not recover. Those people have a host of friends hereabouts who deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives, in their sad loss—the extent of which cannot be measured without first having undergone a similar loss. We cannot easily realize the pain which the death of two loving parents at the same time will cause in the hearts of children, and no words can express the grief of a few short weeks' past few would make good the loss.

eph and Ben Polidexter, of this city.

Robert Strain and his son, Robert Jr., born old-time residents of this neck of the woods, but now of Minnesota, arrived in Scio Monday evening and are visiting friends hereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hibler, Mrs. R. W. Gill and Mrs. F. Morris, drove to Salem Sunday last to visit with father and see the people who were there on the conductors excursion.

Ellis Ewing was down from Larsted the first of the week, renewing acquaintances and seeing the sights. He says he enjoys the life on a farm, and keeps himself employed in fishing.

The Scio cornet band are thinking very strongly of getting new uniforms and putting on a little style. They are getting right down to business, and are producing some good music, and at the same time are getting better every day.

W. H. Stum returned to Portland the first of the week, where he expects to find employment for himself and team. This is his second trip, the first time there was a strike declared about the time he arrived and there was "nothing doing."

The city council suspended the ordinance at the last meeting, which allows the bachelors population the privilege of roaming the streets during the day time—between the hours of six in the morning and eight in the evening, until July 1st.

W. A. Ewing returned from southern Oregon yesterday accompanied by two children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Will Ireland, who will make their home here for the time being. One of them is just recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

Miss Ellen Shore, who is stopping with Mrs. Shaw, nee Miss Pearl Johnson, was home the first of the week, having accompanied the remains of her father, Mr. and Mrs. Shaw to this city for burial, his death having occurred a few hours after birth.

About sixty of the residents of Scio, the same being members of the Union society, went up to Niagara yesterday on an excursion. Manager Stone of the C. & P. railroad gave them a very low rate and furnished them a car by themselves, and they had a very enjoyable time.

CORRESPONDENCE

Gantiam and Vicinity.

Several of the neighbors went to the Lebanon picnic of last week. They report a fine time.

"Doc" Turner is visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Flora Heart, of Crabtree, the past week.

James Brittonshaw and family, of Lebanon, visited with his sister, Mrs. J. P. Crabtree, over Sunday.

G. W. Morrow, wife and daughter, Miss Katy Paul, and Miss McKnight of Scio were callers on S. W. Gaines Sunday for the purpose of securing gooseberries for canning purposes.

S. W. Gaines is behind 21 orders every other day on strawberries, as the crop is good and his patch is too small to supply all.

Mrs. Lizzie Alvarez, of Seattle, is expected to arrive at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. W. Gaines, on the 11th inst.

The writer had a chat with Ed Young the other day, and found him cheerful and hoping that he would be able to be up in two or three weeks longer.

The basket social at the Santiam Grange hall Wednesday night was a success, the baskets selling well and every thing went off harmoniously.

Mrs. A. B. Baker and Mrs. Wm. Blyen, of Scio, were out Friday evening to secure strawberries of S. W. Gaines.

Mrs. A. H. McCharty and daughter of Salem, were out to visit the gooseberry patch of S. W. Gaines, the first they had been able to find this side of Salem.

Mrs. Annie Gaines and Miss Inez Gaines were callers on their uncle Monday to secure vegetables for the men working for the Star Mill & Flour Company, a large crew.

G. A. and John Griffin are out running the sheep shearing to its full capacity.

CONVICTS ESCAPED.

Kill Three Prison Guards and Wound Frank Ingram a Life-Taker.

SALEM, June 9.—Two desperate prisoners, Harry Tracey and David Merrill, serving sentences of 20 and 12 years respectively for assault and robbery from Multnomah county, made a sensational outbreak and escaped from the penitentiary this morning, after killing three guards—Frank Ferrell, a shop guard, and S. R. Jones and B. F. Tiffany, fence-men.

The prisoners had just marched into the laundry for work at 7 a. m., when Tracey suddenly appeared with a rifle and shot Guard Ferrell killing him almost instantly. Ingram, a life prisoner, attempted to take the rifle from Tracey, when Merrill shot Ingram through the leg, shattering it. The other prisoners were then fired at the point of a pistol to take a holder to the wall, when the two armed men escaped. Getting outside they shot Guard Jones dead at a distance of 150 yards. Guard Tiffany was shot and wounded. He jumped off the fence and followed the men, shooting at them, when they turned and killed him. The prisoners then escaped into the woods.

Both are considered to be dangerous men by the deputies in the sheriff's office, and it is believed they will lose their lives before giving up. It is probable they will be captured, if at all, dead.

Frank Ingram, who was wounded in the leg, was sent up for life from Lin county in 1901 for killing his brother Henry Ingram. His leg was amputated.

Useful Hints.

Clear boiling water will remove tea stains and many fruit stains. Pour the water through the stain and thus prevent it spreading over the fabric.

Ripe tomatoes will remove ink and other stains from white cloth; also from the hands.

A teaspoonful of turpentine boiled with your white clothes will aid in the whitening process.

Boiled starch is much improved by the addition of a little sperm or a little salt, or a little gum arabic dissolved.

Beeswax and salt will make your rusty buttons as clean and smooth as glass. The lump of wax in a rag and keep it for that purpose. When the buttons are hot rub them first with the wax rag, then scour with a paper or cloth sprinkled with salt.—Philadelphia Times.

Reduced Rates via S. P. Co.

The Southern Pacific will make special rates to San Francisco on the occasion of the convention of the Nurses of the Mystic Shrine, at that point in June.

Tickets will be on sale from June 25 to 30 inclusive, and will be available for stop-over in California. Full information relative to rates, routes and other conditions will be cheerfully supplied by all local agents of the Southern Pacific.

Card of Thanks.

The relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Carl wish to publicly thank all those friends and acquaintances who so kindly assisted in the funeral of the deceased, and showed their warm friendship for her by their attendance and the bestowal of kind tributes in remembrance of a once kind neighbor and friend.
