MODESTY AND FLOWERS.

I wandered in the fields one summer's day,
Flower hunting. All along the changing way
Coarse beauties beckoned impudently; and
A gaudy, flaunting thistle struck my hand.

But tender, sweet and lowly on the ground,
With down-dropped head, hung modestly, I found,
Hid by the bramble and roughened stone,
A queen-flower blooming silent and alone.

'Tis so in life. The gaudy sunflower grows
By every wayside, and its odor throws
To every wind and arrogantly towers—
But you must hunt to find the sweetest flowers.

Oregon is at last to have a National Park at Crater Lake. As the bill passed Congress it withdraws from settlement, occupancy or sale a tract of 249 square miles, including and surrounding Crater Lake, to be known as Crater Lake National Park. The park will be under the control of the Secretary of the Interior, who will see to its protection, both from fire and trespassers. Lumbering and other enterprises are prohibited within the Park, although mineral locations may be made under the law. It is alleged however, that no minerals exist within the park. The order of Secretary Hitchcock formally withdrawing from entry the lands to be embraced in the park will follow closely the signing of the bill by the President.

A minister down in Missouri found his people to poor to purchase hymn books and being offered the same books free by a patent medicine house provided they be allowed to insert their advertisements, ordered three dozen for the congregation. He was elated upon receiving them to find no "ads" in them. The next Sunday he distributed the books telling his brethren his good fortune and requested they sing 150. His chagrin may be imagined when they sang as follows: "Hark the heavenly angels sing; Johnson's pills are just the thing; the angelic voice meek and mild—two for men and one for child."

Mr. Bingham of Salem is allowed $900 for recovering $8900 insurance money for the burning of a Reform School building. He is a good lawyer and entitled to the fee. But the Attorney-General had submitted an opinion that recovery was doubtful, and that is why Mr. Bingham was employed on a contingent fee. This merely illustrates what we have before written, that the Attorney-General's office is not only useless but a positive detriment.

R. C. Judson has just received direct from H. B. Miller, who is now in China, a variety of forage plant seeds adapted to the arid districts there. Mr. Judson will plant these seeds on the high places in eastern Oregon as an experiment. The colonel thinks if the exclusion act don't pass congress before the seeds come up he will have no trouble in raising a fair crop this year.

The republican platform declared for flat salaries—that is, against the fee system. The democrats did the same thing. The Governor-elect made his canvass on this issue. With all these concurring the question would seem to be taken out of the realm of debate. But it is still debated. It is time to remove the previous question.

Some heated debates have been had whether Cuban reciprocity was in the interest of the sugar trust. As Mr. Havermeyer, of the trust, has contributed $2500 in aid of the reciprocity bill we may assume that he knows what he wants, and that his contribution was not for eleymosynary purposes.

The state treasurer is supposed to keep the state funds in the vaults. But he always keeps them in the banks and gets the interest on them himself. It is a public benefit to keep the money in solvent banks, because they are not then withdrawn from circulation. But the state ought to get the interest. A law providing this would be sensible.

Morgan having monopolized the Atlantic is now negotiating with the Japs to begin operations in the Pacific. He has an option on Senator Mitchell's railroad to the planet Mars, and will defeat the completion of any more Martian canals.

If the United States does not utilize the Nicaragua route a private company will put the canal through at that point, and it will command the trade of this country on account of its nearness and saving of time in reaching the Pacific.

A new town will be built on Martinique to take the place of St. Pierre though not on the old site. The irrepressible boomer will be setting forth its merits as the world's most famous volcanic resort and stimulant to jaded nerves.

Although England is now at peace the estimate of the treasury deficit as revised for the coming year is $120,000,000. Uncle Sam would certainly feel uncomfortable if running behind at that rate.

We give freely of glory and honor to a man when we consider he deserves it. But if we were asked to give him $2 . . . .

"Pride goes before a fall." And when the fall comes you'll usually find Pride underneath the wreck.

Oakville Farmer Bankrupt.

John J. Cale, a farmer of Oakville, Linn county, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States district court. He recites there are liabilities to the extent of $3653.35, which he is unable to pay. There are preferred creditor's claims to the amount of $2593.40, while the general creditors' claims aggregate $1011.95. He has personal property listed at $307.75, and a good deal of it is listed as "old." The petitioner has two pieces of land, one 40 acre tract being worth $1800 and covered by a mortgage, and another piece of land comprising 40 acres worth $1100, which he serves as a homestead. This is also covered by mortgage.

Getting Pretty Old.

There is an old couple living between Waterloo and Sodaville by the names of M. L. and Mary Zeigler, who are probably the oldest couple in Linn county. Mr. Zeigler says his wife is 95 years old this month and he will be 95 years old the 7th of December. They have been married 74 years. He was born in Illinois and married in Ohio. They came from Kansas to Oregon and have been living at their present place for about ten years. Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler are both in good health and get around and do most of their own work around the house. Mr. Zeigler says that he and his wife do not agree about their ages. She thinks they are not as old as he claims by about five years, but let that be as it may, they are very old. About the only inconvenience they have is their hearing and eyesight are bad. Mr. Zeigler says he has not signed his name for over 75 years.—Express-Advance.

Saved From An Awful Fate.

Everybody said I had consumption writes Mrs A M Shields, of Chambersburg Pa., I was so low after six months of sickness, caused by hay fever and asthma, that few thought I could get well but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, used it, and was completely cured. For desperate throat and lung diseases its the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for colds, coughs and bronchial affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Peery & Peery's.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mountain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and then stopping for a short rest in some quiet pool. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop rapidly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

Life is like a pack of cards. Childrens best cards are hearts; youth is captured by diamonds; middle age is conquered by a club, while old age is raked in by the insatiable spade. What's trump?

There are 23,000 immigrants on the Atlantic liners due to arrive this week, and they bring the total of the month up to 85,000, breaking all records for any month in the last twenty years. The majority of the arrivals are from Austria, Hungary, Italy and Russia.

MAIL IN A WHEELBARROW.

Queer Conveyance That Is Used by an Old Woman Carrier in Iowa.

Four times daily for 21 years, summer and winter, in fair weather and foul, Lucinda Annie Robbertson has trundled a wheelbarrow bearing the United States mail form the post office at Pleasantville, Ia., to the railroad, a mile away. She took the job when her husband, who had the contract to carry the mail, fell ill and because she couldn't carry the load she introduced the wheelbarrow, says the New York Sun.

When her husband became a confirmed invalid she kept the contract for him and nursed him, too, and at his death the government wouldn't take the job away from her. It is worth just $100 a year and it is almost all her living.

She is now 71, but she vows she'll carry the mail till she dies.

"But some days," she says, "it seems as though I could never drag myself and that old barrow another step."

Virulent Cancer Cured.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G W Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with what good doctors pronounced incurable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and Applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish.
