Joseph P. Munkers and Mrs. Ella Allison, both residents of this section, were married at the residence of Ed Keene, in Salem, Thursday, June 12, Rev. O'Donohue officiating. The contracting parties have a host of friends hereabouts who wish them untold success on their matrimonial journey through life.

Sunday next—June 27—there will be an excursion from Detroit to Newport and return. The train will pass Munkers at 6:25 a. m., and will arrive at Newport at 11:30; returning train will leave at 5:30 p. m., giving six hours at the beach. The fare has been placed at the extreme low rate of $2 for the round trip. This will be a golden opportunity for the people of this section to visit the seaside. Don't miss it!

Saturday was a sort of picnic day at the C. C. Lee farm. Mr. Lee had a herd of horses which recently arrived from eastern Oregon, and were put up on a sale Saturday last, and the session was one which afforded the people of that section as well as a number from this city a good opportunity for a picnic, and they had it. People from far and near were there and all had a lunch basket, and put in the day visiting and buying horses. About forty head of fine horses were disposed of, and everything passed off as smoothly as could be asked. Mr. Lee has the reputation of selling nothing but first class horses, and everyone who knows him are ready to take his word for any horse he puts up, and for that reason he always has good luck in selling horses.

Reduced Rates via S. P. Co.
The Southern Pacific will make special rates to San Francisco on the occasion of the convention of the Order of the Mystic Shrine, at that point in June.
Tickets will be on sale from June 31 to 8th inclusive, and will be available for stop-overs in California, including Los Angeles, San Francisco, Phillips, Lark, McDonald, Francis Arnold and Otto Rahm.

Purchased a Planer.
M. D. Cameron has returned from Portland, where he purchased a new planing machine for the sawmill on Roaring river. The planer will be installed at Larwood, the terminus of the lumber flume. The company is doing a fine business, cutting 30,000 feet of lumber every ten hours, and has a fine body of timber.

Prof. Mulkey Chosen.
Governor T. T. Geer, Secretary of State F. I. Dillard and Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman, met at Ashland with the board of regents of the Southern Oregon State Normal School at their annual meeting Friday afternoon. Professor B. F. Mulkey, of Monmouth, was elected president of the school, and the election of the members of the faculty was left with the executive committee of the institution, which will meet in a few days. The people of Ashland and of southern Oregon feel themselves fortunate in the selection of the new president, and are rejoiced to learn that he will accept the position.

Ingram Pardoned.
As expected, Frank Ingram was pardoned Thursday evening by Governor Geer for his bravery during the revolt of Tracey and Merrill when they escaped. Ingram was placed in the prison on March 22, 1892, and hence has been there a little over ten years. Superintendent Lee says he has been a model prisoner. He has been in the blacksmith shop while there, and has been very proficient as a workman. When sufficiently well to leave the penitentiary he will be able to make his way in the world, and notwithstanding the loss of a leg may be depended upon to do so without the assistance of others.

Pensions For Many.
We are delighted to announce that the Indian War Veterans' Bill is now ready for the President's signature, and will probably be signed soon, it having passed the House Monday. As passed, the bill makes immediately applicable the provisions of the Blackhawk pension act. Those who will be rewarded are the surviving officers and enlisted men including marines, militia, and volunteers of military and naval service of the United States who served for 30 days and were honorably discharged under the United States military, state, territorial or provisional authorities in the Cayuse war of 1837, 1848-49, on the Pacific Coast, the Oregon and Washington Indian wars from 1851 to 1856, and numerous other Indian wars.

P. COHEN, Albany, Ore.

Died Quite Suddenly.
Sunday evening about six o'clock S. P. Munkers was notified by telephone that his brother, George W. Munkers, had died quite suddenly at Jefferson, a short time before.

He was visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ella Vaughn, in Jefferson, and had been out watching a ball game, and while returning had taken a drink of cold water from a spring, and soon after reaching the home was taken suddenly ill and died in a few minutes. He had been afflicted with catarrh of the stomach for some time, and two physicians gave it as their judgment that the water he drank had in a manner paralyzed his stomach and caused it to become ruptured, causing death.

Mr. Munkers was a native of Scio, being a son of the late Hon. T. M. Munkers, and was well and favorably known throughout the entire county. He was about thirty-eight years of age, and leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn his sudden demise. He was a member of the W. O. W., A. O. U. W., D. of H., and Twentyfive Hundred, and had insurance amounting to about six thousand dollars.

The funeral took place at Jefferson Tuesday last, conducted by the Woodmen of the World, he being a member of the camp, and a place and members from here and Stayton conducted the funeral services.

The Modern Idol.
We smile complacently at the Hottentot whose pride is centered in the tawdry ring he wears in his nose, yet how much are we raised above this savage, who who prostrate ourselves before the minted gold of the millionaire? In our absurd money worship we have reached a stage where a golden calf, instead of a royal eagle, might well be the symbol of our national spirit. We are holding the almighty dollar so close to our eyes that we are obscuring Almighty God. In our old catechism we were asked, "What is the chief end of man?" The up-to-date reply would be, "The chief end of man is to glorify gold and enjoy it forever."—Ex.

The Early Bird, Etc.
The lark was up to meet the sun and carol forth its lay; the farmer's son took down his gun and at him blazed away. The busy bee arose at five and hummed the meadows over; the farmer's wife went for his hive, and robbed him of his store. The little ant rose early, too, his labors to begin; a greedy sparrow passed that way, and took his anti-shop in. Oh birds, and bees, and ants, be wise; in proverbs, take no stock, and, like the mosscock, do not rise 'till half-past eight o'clock.

A Great Work.
R. M. Hall, telegraph editor of the Pantagraph, Bloomington, Ill., has resigned his position. He has entered the services of the Oregon Navigation Co., doing special advertising work looking to the advancement of the interests of the road. This corporation is one of the largest in the west.—National Advertiser.

This is the immigration work being organized by the Harriman lines to induce new people to come to Oregon and settle along the lines of the Southern Pacific and the Oregon Railway and Navigation Co. It is a great work, and to be undertaken and prosecuted on a magnificent scale. It will have the effect of doubling the population and business of Oregon within the next ten years.—Statesman.
