THE BAND PICNIC.

A Fine Day and a Splendid Time For Everybody.

Last Friday was an ideal picnic day, and we had an ideal picnic on last Friday. The sun peaked down hot and made the stand keepers wear a smile as broad as a bushel basket.

The morning program consisting of music and literary selections was well rendered, and the large crowd present greatly appreciated every number. The slight of hand performance by Prof. Clark was something new to be seen at a picnic and was greatly appreciated.

In the afternoon there were races galore and a base ball game that would do honor to the old-time players. The game was between a nine from Lebanon and the home team, and was won by the latter in a score of twenty one to seven.

The bicycle races were won by the Kiddle brothers, of Independence they being the only two to enter, and they were limited to time in making the two laps.

The horse races took place in the late afternoon. The first race was a sweepstakes, and the second or pony race by a horse from Marion county. A pony race was made up between some local horses, and the first heat resulted in a tie, but in the final heat was won by a pony belonging to one of the Hessler boys. It was about the best race of the season.

The band boys furnished all kinds of music, and everybody turned themselves loose and had a genuine old-fashioned good time.

A dance was given in the evening, which was quite well attended, and everybody seemed to greatly enjoy the days outing.

The attendance was very large, considering the fact that most everybody was very busy putting away their hay crops.

The band boys wish to extend their hearty thanks to T. J. Munkers for the use of the grounds, to E. Shelton and A. J. Johnson, and the ladies who so untiringly assisted them in every way possible in making the picnic a success, and to the public in general for their generous patronage.

Something over $125 was raised by the band, which will be used in purchasing new instruments and music and putting the band in better shape to furnish music for public occasions.

Property of the Agricultural College.

In his annual report to the Governor, read at Wednesday's meeting of the board of regents of the Agricultural College, President Weatherford recited the various properties owned by the college, and placed a value thereon. The total value according to those figures, is $197,270.

The various valuations are as follows:
Farm, 184 3/4 acres, $25,000.
Administration building, $25,000.
Agricultural hall, $42,000.
Mechanical hall, $25,000.
Cathedral hall, $15,000.
Armory, $10,000.
Alpha hall, $4,000.
Horticultural building, $2,500.
Chemical building, $4,000.
Power house, $4,000.
Heating plant, $20,000.
Water plant, $2,000.
Lighting plant, $3,000.
Mechanical hall plant, $12,000.
Cronquist building, $500.
Farm machinery barns, $2,500.
Blacksmith shop, $300.
Chemical plant, $4,000.
Agricultural plant, $1,500.
Printing house, $2,500.
Power house machinery, $1,000.
Photo and Stereology, $1,000.
Livestock, $1,500.
Library, 3270 volumes, $4,270.
Total, $167,270.

A Small War.

There is a live dispute as to who is entitled to the possession of the warehouse at Philomath. It has been operated by G. A. Westgate, of this city, under a license to E. E. The property is claimed by E. M. and E. G. Howell, of Oregon City, under a deed from a receiver.

John M. Somers, formerly of this city, representing them went to the warehouse Sunday last week and took possession by force. A demand was made for it by Mr. Westgate's agent, B. F. Felger, which was refused. On Wednesday Mr. Westgate, Con Sullivan and a few others went to the place on a special train and the posse put Mr. Somers out of the building and the property is now being guarded by armed men.—Democrat.

Broke an Arm.

The four-year old son of Wm. Murphy, section foreman on the C. & E. railroad, at Munkers, met with quite a serious accident Friday last week, and one that may cost him his arm. While at play on the high platform he fell to the ground, breaking both bones of his arm near the wrist and breaking the large bone near the elbow, the bone being forced downward and out through the flesh about two inches, making an ugly wound. Dr. Frill was summoned from here and Dr. Davis from Albany, the latter coming out on a gasoline car, and the fracture was reduced, although the result is not easy to forecast.

A Valuable Present.

Hon. Jaff Myers presented the Masonic lodge, of this city, of which he is a member, with a gavel made of maple which was cut from a tree planted by George Washington, in front of his residence in 1792, and the handle is of ash, from a tree planted about the same time. On the gavel there is engraved a picture of the Washington home which stands yet just as it was at the death of the father of our country. It is a very fine present, and one greatly appreciated by the member of the lodge.

Flax Pullers Wanted.

The flax crop is now ready to pull, and I want to employ 100 flax pullers. Will contract by the acre or pay by the day. Apply at once to F. R. DRURY, Manager, Seilo, Oregon.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Boise transacted the following business at an adjourned term of court Friday.

Joseph S. Ames vs Mary E. Ames. Continued.
Clydes H. Warnock et al vs Mary E. Green et al, receivership. Receiver discharged.
L. J. Ferguson vs Fred Ferguson. Divorce. Granted.

A. L. Hartman vs Samuel R. Hartman. Partition confirmed.
J. W. Roselle et al vs J. S. Mahon et al, set aside deed. Continued.
William Coy vs Hattie V. Coy. Granted.

John J. Craft vs S. L. Craft. Granted.
Hiram Warner vs J. N. Perkins et al, to quit title. Demurrer overruled and case continued.

R. H. Montague vs M. L. Pipes et al. Judgment by default.
R. F. Pomroy vs City of Albany. Writ of review. Judgment by J. S. Van Winkle's court affirmed.

A new suit, is D. H. James vs I. E. Rich et al, to quit title. Watson & Swan attorneys for the plaintiff.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by the board of directors of school district No. 23, up to 1 o'clock p. m., Monday, August 4, 1902, for doing the carpenter work and putting in the construction of a school building in said district. Plans and specifications may be seen at the residence of W. M. Glines. All material will be furnished by the district. Bids will be opened at a meeting of the board of directors to be held at the old school building on Monday, August 4, 1902. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the board of directors of school district No. 23.
Dated this 21st day of July, 1902.
C. T. Goin, Clerk.

Without a Principal.

The school board is wrestling with quite a serious problem right at the present time, Prof. Giddler having notified them that he was about to accept a position at $90 per month for a nine months school—they having been able to offer him only six months at a lesser salary. The board is endeavoring to secure a principal, they having engaged Mrs. Frill to take the same position who has accepted in the schools, that of vice-principal, and Miss Paragh will have charge of the primary department.

Our Job Press Busy.

Our job press has been quite busy during the past week, as we are printing the minutes of the meeting of the Central Baptist association, which convened in this city last month. It will make a pamphlet of about forty pages. Aside from this we have about all the commercial work that we can find time to turn out. Our office is well stocked with new and up-to-date type, and we do not take a back seat for any of them in turning out first-class work.

Died of Diphtheria.

Wednesday Mrs. W. E. Savage received a telephone message from Lebanon announcing the death of Albert Savage, brother of Mr. Savage, which occurred at the family home Tuesday, and the remains were buried the same evening, his death being caused by diphtheria. There are several cases up in that section yet, and our people will do well to keep away from that locality until the disease is stamped out.

The Jefferson Bank.

The bank of Jefferson is now an assured fact, and will be opened for business as soon as the interior of the building can be fitted up. Part of the furniture is in and the vault and lower ledger room will soon be in place. A general banking business will be conducted, money loaned, collections made.

About Fifty Tons of Hay.

Wm. Irons has just completed the job of putting up his winter hay in his new stock barn, in this city. He has moved away about fifty tons of fine hay, and is going to have use for ever straw of it, too. "Bill" if getting ready to have some fine seed cattle next winter, and he'll have 'em, too, unless we miss our guess.

Pulling Fibre Flax.

Tuesday morning's crew was set to work pulling a field of flax south of town, and before many days flax harvest will be in full blaze. The straw is very fine in quality, and there is every hope that the company will be able to make a very fine lot of fibre out of it.

Purchased a Threshing Outfit.

The farmers in the vicinity of Munkers have procured a threshing outfit and will do their own harvesting the present season. There are twelve of them interested in the purchase, and they will have some other crops to thresh, making a very good run.

Preparing to Move His Store.

G. F. Kowales is quite busy these days, packing up his stock of goods, preparatory to moving to Moro, in eastern Oregon. These people have made many friends during their residence in this city, who wish them all kinds of success in their new home.

Electric Toys.

The aged parent and grandparent who accompany the children to the Pan-American exposition will have memories of their playthings aroused by the display of electric toys shown there. Their thoughts will fly back to those days when the jackknife toy delighted their hearts, and looking ahead to read the news to come, they will marvel at the possibilities for enjoyment offered the children of today. Even in ignorance of the inventions of modern times, they were happy in their childhood, which is evidence that such great exhibitions as the Pan-American is designed to perform a magnificent service in portraying the progress of a century.—Exposition Bulletin.

Building a New Barn.

Judge Duncanson is erecting a large new barn on his farm east of Seilo, G. W. Taylor, of Albany, was over the first of the week with a wagon load of lumber raising the frame, and the finishing touches are being applied by the Judge and his men.

Shipping Chair Wood.

A carload of chair wood is being shipped about every day from West Seilo to the chair factory at Albany. This factory uses a large lot of oak and ash timber each year, and it is the source of wintering a good many dollars among the people living in the Southern bottom county.

Will Go to Southern Oregon.

R. I. Shaw and E. S. Coffey, getting ready to set out for a trip to Southern Oregon, to be gone several weeks. They are looking for locations, so they say, but we are of the opinion they are just out for a summer outing.

Shipped Two Carloads.

Ross E. Hibler shipped two carloads of wood the first of the week, which he had purchased from the woodgrowers and farmers in this section. He paid the top price for all of it, and besides it's a fine lot of wood.

Lost A Necklace.

Miss Ross Boyonovsky had the misfortune to lose her gold necklace while attending the picnic in this city. It was a fine necklace, and she is looking for it. Anyone finding the same and leaving it at this office will be rewarded.

Lost His Lines.

Lost, on the road between Seilo and Seilo, a new set of lines for work horses, Friday, July 15, 1902. Finder will please return to D. BRENNEK, Stayton, Oregon.

Will Build a New School House.

The people in school district No. 23 are advertising for bids for the construction of a new school building. See the notice in another column.

Hazlewood Ice Cream.

E. H. Mandling is right up with the times. He keeps the famous Ice Cream, shipped here from Portland. It is very fine in quality, too.

Painting the Flax Mills.

Painters are at work this week, and are painting the outside of the flax mills.

JAPAN'S INTEGRITY.

How People Are Proud to Serve Their Government for a Lifetime.

The modern Japan which Marquis Ito's policy has brought forth was made possible by the religious devotion of nobles and coolies to the emperor, which made the imperial wishes law; by the intense patriotism and the official integrity of the retainers of the Dynasty, who have become the officers of the army and navy and members of the civil service, writes Frederick Palmer, in Scribner's. As an occidental, I should place integrity as the first cause.

When you have official servants so proud that even the postman will not accept a Christmas present, a statesman knows that, whatever his errors of construction may be, the timbers are sound. As long as men become policemen on less than a cent's pay for the honor of serving the government, it will never lack for first-class ability to fill its offices. Japan may well reverence her old military aristocracy, with its false patriotism.
