SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, AUGUST 1, 1902

Carrie Nation has joined Dowie's "Zion" colony near Chicago. She acted in becoming a follower and should have started a colony of her own and with a fresher idea. There are numerous female cranks over the land who would have financially and otherwise assisted her in the effort to promulgate such a scheme as "The Daughters of Eve" colony, or some fanaticism of that nature, which would prove popular and be profitable so long as there was a productive outside containing the necessary Adams. Carrie has lost her originality.

The live Portland Evening Journal has been sold to C. S. Jackson, of the Pendleton East Oregonian, who announces that "the Journal in hand and heart will stand for the people, be truly democratic and free from political entanglements and machinations, believing in the principles that promise the greatest good to the greatest number—to all men, regardless of race, creed or previous condition of servitude." In his announcement, Mr. Jackson says that "Portland capital is behind the Journal, and that the fund is ample for all purposes."

Emperor William at least recognized J. Pierpont Morgan as a person of some consequence or he would not have called on the American during the latter's recent visit in Germany. None doubts that the fertile-brained Croesus Morgan is a bigger man in every way than any European monarch.

The public must be getting extremely tired of strikes, and especially so when Chicago business men are losing a million dollars a day while railroad companies and striking freight handlers are haggling over a difference of a half-cent.

HOI FOR NEWPORT.

Oregon's Favorite Seaside Resort. "Recognizing the advantages of Newport as a summer resort over other seaside resorts in the north-west, and to make it possible for all who desire to do so to spend their vacation by the ocean waves, the Southern Pacific Company, in connection with the Corvallis & Eastern Railroad, will place on sale, effective June 15th, round-trip tickets from all points in Oregon on the Southern Pacific to Newport, good for return until October 10th, at specially reduced rates. For full information please inquire of your local agent.

Improvements at Munkers.

Merchant E. Smith, of Munkers, has about completed his new store building, and has added new goods to his stock, and now has a very neat store. He has also made numerous improvements in the living rooms. Mr. Munkers is now hauling lumber and will soon begin the construction of a new residence just this side of Munkers station, and Thos. Quigley will erect a new residence just opposite J. A. Arnold's place, all of which will add to the commercial importance of Munkers, making it quite a village.

An Albany Wedding.

Dr. Wayne L. Bridgeford, of Olympia, formerly of Scio and Albany, and Miss Adalene M. Chamberlain, of Albany, were married at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Chamberlain, at Albany, Saturday, July 26, 1902. Rev. W. W. Davis, officiating. They will make their home in Olympia.

Building a New Residence.

Dr. Brown has the frame up for his fine new residence in South Scio, and from outward appearances it promises to be about as nice a residence as the city limits contains. To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All Druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box, 25c.

PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Nellie Barnes is visiting relatives at Eugene this week. Julius Pines, of Salem, was in Scio during the past week. G. W. Phillips was a county seat visitor Tuesday of this week. Rev. T. D. Titus, of Seaside, was in Scio the first of the week. W. A. Aldrich, of Spokane, was here yesterday looking after the fax interests. J. A. Blyden and daughter Eva, are visiting with relatives at Halsey this week. Dr. Conick and "Tip" Humprey, of Jefferson, were here visitors Monday evening. Harvey E. Lonsbury, traveling freight agent for the R. F. Co., was in Scio Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cole and the children are in Scio this week, visiting with relatives and friends. Mrs. Hannah, of Lebanon, is visiting in Scio the first week of the year. Mr. Wm. Blyden and family. Mrs. A. W. Hagey is visiting with friends at Corvallis this week, having returned home with Mrs. Dille. Miss Flo Myers is home from Portland this week on a short vacation visiting with relatives and friends. Prof. Goddes was here last week, packing up his household goods preparatory to moving to his farm near Mill City. Ed Rodgers of Lebanon, came down last week and spent Sunday with his son, Geo. Rodgers, who lives east of Scio.

Mrs. M. E. Woodhouse will take up the duties of agent at West Scio today. She has been on a vacation for the past two months. R. D. Calavan, of Lafayette, was here the first of the week, visiting with his mother, "Grandma" Calavan, and numerous friends. Mrs. Dille and the children who were visiting Scio relatives and friends at Corvallis, Saturday last. Mrs. F. Deane and son, of Rockland, Cal., are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Blyden. They will remain several days. V. B. Coon left Tuesday for several California points, going first to San Francisco. He is in search of a location, but is yet undecided where he will stop. Elmer Graves, who was here from Prineville a few weeks ago with a band of horse thieves, has again returned to the valley, this time with 100 head of fine horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carson, of Lacon, Ia., are visiting relatives in Jordan this week, the guest of Mrs. Nancy Blyden, sister of Mrs. Carson. They will be here some time. Why Go East. Over the sun-burned, sage brush and alkali plains when you may as well take a delightful, cool and comfortable ride through the heart of the Rocky Mountains in view of the grandest scenery on the American continent? This you can do by traveling on the Rio Grande System, the far famed "Globe Line of the World," the only transcontinental line passing through Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Colorado Springs and Denver enroute to eastern points. Three daily express trains make close connections with all trains east and west and afford a choice of five distinct routes of travel. The equipment of these trains is the best, including free reclining chair cars, standard and tourist sleepers, a perfect dining car service, and also personally conducted excursion cars, each in charge of a competent guide whose business it is to look after the comfort of his guests. No more pleasant and inexpensive means of crossing the continent can be found than is provided by these excursions. For additional details address, J. D. MANSFIELD, Gen'l. Agt., Rio Grande Lines, 124 Third St., Portland, Or.

The situation is unchanged at the Munkers warehouse, and the building is still guarded by two men who are employed by the railroad and are near who is looking after the interests of Howell Bros. It is getting about time that the matter up if it is intended to operate the business the present season, as the harvest is at hand, and those having grain for sale will soon be hunting a place to store it.

When Capt. Lawton began his negotiations with her last fall he went to her house one cold day late in October and found her coming down the road with a half bushel of potatoes on her back. She had carried them from the field a half mile away, but did not seem weary. While the visitor talked to her she prepared her evening meal in the open as she had done all her life. In recent years it has been almost impossible to get any information from the old woman, because she is exceedingly reticent in conversation about herself. Capt. Lawton, however, has been able to get statements from her regarding the sinking of Buffalo in the war of 1812-13, when Bull's regulars and savages laid Buffalo and Black Hawk in slaves and put to death most of the inhabitants who had not fled. She has outlived six husbands, and her descendants are so numerous that it is difficult to learn the exact number.

For sale—A Buffalo Pitts thresher, 324X8, in good condition, with rubber belting complete. Inquire of J. T. Brock, Scio, Oregon. The Palace restaurant has been reorganized under new management, and is now the leading restaurant in Albany. Don't forget this when in the city and hungry. A drive of 6,000,000 feet of logs arrived at Colburn Thursday evening for the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company. The drive came from the upper McKenzie river. L. N. Liggitt has retired from the Prineville Review, having sold the paper to William Holder. The paper which has been democratic will hereafter be republican. This means that it will be a candidate for a large number of land notices being run in the papers of Crook county.

"There is a man out in the waiting room," said the great man's secretary. "I think he's a bum actor." "Why do you think so?" "He says he's anxious to get an audience."—Philadelphia Press. Buynon—"Harding tells me he is suffering from an operation." Sawyer—"I hadn't heard of it. Surgical operations?" Buynon—"No, this was a financial operation. Gibbons borrowed ten dollars of him yesterday."—Boston Times. Mrs. Mann—"What a man you are, Joseph. You always take the girl's robe every time I see her." "Well, why shouldn't I? Doesn't she sympathize with me when you and I have words?"—Boston Transcript. Sue—"Pauline's father is quite a gent." Belle—"In what way?" "Woman," said the Sentimental Person, "is the holiday in the life of man." "Yes," remarked the Coarsely Sarcastic Individual, "and I have noticed that after a man takes that kind of a holiday he has a hustle all the rest of his life."—Baltimore American. "I wish you and May would become friends again," said the would-be peacemaker. "Well," said Fay, "if she'll make up, I will." "I told her you had said that, and she said: 'The idea! It's easy for her. I never saw when she was a child, what she made up!'"—Philadelphia Press.

CLAIMS SHE IS 130. Investigating Old Squaw of the Pacific Coast at the Pan-American Exposition. Nancy Johnson, a member of the Turpie clan, descendant of Indiana, has lived in three centuries, and daily at the Pan-American exposition her blood relatives and fellow pagan worshippers beneath the Great Spirit by dance that has life more prolonged for many moons to come. It is claimed that she is now 130 years old, and the fact that in spite of her age she is able to eat the sweetest of the ground she began to eat when she was a child, and put to rest 100 years ago. Mrs. Johnson's home is on the Tonawanda reservation, near Akron, about 32 miles from Buffalo. There she lives in a little hut by herself and attends to all her wants, or did until last spring. Up to that time she had enjoyed the best of health and a wonderfully clear memory, considering her years. But as soon as the snow left the ground she began to decline, and now she is feeble and somewhat childish, but still is able to recall incidents that are foreign to her attention. When Capt. Lawton began his negotiations with her last fall he went to her house one cold day late in October and found her coming down the road with a half bushel of potatoes on her back. She had carried them from the field a half mile away, but did not seem weary. While the visitor talked to her she prepared her evening meal in the open as she had done all her life. In recent years it has been almost impossible to get any information from the old woman, because she is exceedingly reticent in conversation about herself. Capt. General Observations. One pointer makes the whole home blue. Of two evils shows a remedy for both. Jackdaws is the pecking vet of nature. Better a long wait than a temporary loss. Lovers quarrelers the clean battles of life. Don't angle for the affections of the sentimentalists. If you can't get rid of his attentions likewise, marry him. It takes all kinds of people to make a world, but it takes a woman to keep it in order.—Gleanings Commercial Tribune.
