SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, OCTOBER 3, 1902

The very best and largest fair ever held in the Pacific Northwest was ended last Saturday evening. It so far outclassed previous fairs that it will be some years before it can be surpassed, and then can it only be done by increasing the size of the different departments. Such a high class of racing horses may not meet again for years on any track in the Northwest. There were three runners that hold world's records, and the harness horses were of the best. The cattle on exhibition were the results of intelligent breeding on improved lines, and are worthy to compete in any show ring, and some will be taken East this fall to compete with stock from all over the world. That they will do Fregon credit goes without saying. The sheep, goats and swine are not below the scale, and are of the very best breeds and strains obtainable. Many sales of stock went far beyond the borders of our state, and such sales will be very numerous in the near future. Taken as a whole, the Oregon state fair will be hard to beat in the near future.—Rural Spirit.

The Oregon hop crop is about all in and will amount to about 85,000 bales, 25,000 of which have been contracted, leaving 60,000 bales in the growers' hands for which they will receive from 20 to 22 cents per pound. The weather for picking has been ideal and the crop is one of the cleanest and best ever grown in the state. The 25,000 bales contracted at from 16 to 12 cents and the 60,000 bales worth 20 to 22 cents per pound will bring Oregon hopgrowers in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. The acreage of hops in Oregon is about 17,000 making the average gross receipts about $175 per acre. The cost of growing and marketing the crop is about $60 per acre leaving an average net profit of $115 per acre to the grower. It pays to grow hops in a good year.

The sum of gold in the United States Treasury exceeds that of any previous time in the history of the country, and with one possible exception it exceeds that of any country at any time in the history of the world. The single exception is that of Russia, about eight years ago, when the country was preparing to resume gold payments. At that time Russia is said to have had in its treasury $589,000,000 in gold. Last week the vaults of the United States treasury contained $573,936,194 an increase since July 1, 1901, of $79,087 897. This stock of gold is now being added to at the rate of about $200,000 or $300,000 a day, with no immediate prospect of cessation in the rate of deposits.

A farmer doesn't have to solicit patronage from anyone, remarks an exchange. He does not have to enter into competition and strife with his neighbors like a merchant. He doesn't have to depend on his collections reluctantly doled out as the editors do. In fact he can be the most independent man on God's green earth if he manages his business in a business way. He has more time and opportunity for cultivating his mind. He has fewer allurements for corrupting his morals and his occupation is more conducive to the highest development of his physical power than any other.

A test of the well sunk by the state penitentiary has been made and the result is quite satisfactory. The test was conducted by H. V. Gates, of Hillsboro, in the presence of the members of the state board. In the trial Friday water was pumped through a 4½ inch pipe at the rate of 72,000 gallons every hour.

Telephone companies of the West are now patterning after the system of rural telephone lines which are in vogue in the East. They propose now to run lines from the cities and towns into the country where such lines are wanted, at the expense of the user, charging a monthly rental of 50 cents. In the East this system has been in use for some time and meets with approval. It is of great advantage to the farmers and they are not slow in taking advantage of it.

The Southern Pacific surveyors have completed plans for a tunnel 34,809 feet long, through the Sierras. It will cost $11,0.6,000 and will cut down the summit grade 1,560 feet, and do away with all but 5 miles of 42 miles of snow sheds. It will also shorten the company's transcontinental line. This is said to be part of Harriman's plan to modernize the great railway system.

The American Writing Paper Co., of Boston, Mass., has just received a contract from the Government for the supplying of 18,000 tons of paper for stamped envelopes. It will take the company four years to complete this contract.

The Shasta Route.

In going over the famous "Shasta Route" of the Southern Pacific Co., the traveler ever finds something new to excite his admiration and interest. Starting at Portland one traverses the whole length of the Willamette Valley, the gem of the Northwest. Mt. Hood, Mt. Jefferson, and the Three Sisters and other snow-capped peaks are kept in sight for hours. The prunes, peaches, apples and other fruits are a delight in themselves. The crossing of the great mountain barrier between Oregon and California reveals the grandest mountain scenery in the United States. The wonderful array of towering mountains, and gorges into which we gaze from dizzy heights, forest clad mountain slopes streching up to the line of perpetual snow, and the foaming mauntain streams dashing fiercely down deep canons, now and hen stopping for a short rest in ome quiet poll. After a days enjoyment of old Mt. Shasta, the finest peak on the continent, we drop raridly down the canon of the Sacramento to the broad plains of the Sacramento Valley in California, and thence through vineyards and orchards to San Francisco.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach, and by transforming your food into the kind of pure rich red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Crasfill, of Troy, I. T. writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the very worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. E. C. Peery.

Produce is still high, and notwithstanding I am selling everything but groceries without profit, I am still paying the very highest price for produce, as I always have done. Don't forget that you save about 50 per cent by trading with me now. Ross E. Hibler.

If anybody doubted that Ross Hibler would sell his stock of goods down at cost we guess they will give up the idea if they will go into his place any time these days and see the way people buy goods. He seems to be wrapping them up by the wagon load.

The Brownsville Times says: The Gentry hop yard has gained quite a reputation this season for things not calculated to elevate society. First was a fight between two young men, followed soon after by an assault with intent to kill, and later by a fight between two women. The proprietors of the yard should have the sheriff on hand next year if they are powerless to keep order themselves.

In the Linn county exhibit at the state fair there were 647 varieties presented, while in the Washington county exhibit, given the first prize, there were a few less than 400 varieties. The individual exhibits in the Linn county exhibit received many more blue ribbons than the Washington exhibit, and yet the Linn county exhibit had to take second place, probably because Linn county had already received first place twice in succession.—Democrat.

Why Go East

over the sun-burned, sage brush and alkali plains when you may just as well take a delightful, cool and comfortable ride through the heart of the Rocky Mountains in view of the grandest scenery on the American continent?

This you can do by traveling on the Rio Grande System, the far famed "Scenic Line of the World," the only transcontinental line passing through Salt Lake City, Glenwood Springs, Leadville, Colorado Springs and Denver enroute to eastern points.

Three daily express trains make close connections with all trains east and west and afford a choice of five distinct routes of travel. The equipment of these trains is the best, including free reclining chair cars, standard and tourist sleepers, a perfect dining car service, and also personally conducted excursion cars, each in charge of a competent guide whose business is to look after the comfort of his guests. No more pleasant and inexpensive means of crossing the continent can be found than is provided by these excursions.

Things We Like Best

Often Disagree With Us

Because we overeat of them. Indigestion follows. But there's a way to escape such consequences. A dose of a good digestant like Kodol will relive you at once. Your stomach is simply too weak to digest what you eat. That's all indigestion is. Kodol digests the food without the stomach's aid. Thus the stomach rests while the body is strengthened by wholesome food. Dieting is unnecessary. Kodol digests any kind of good food. Strengthens and invigorates.

Kodol Makes Rich Red Blood.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendenne, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.

I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not sick a bit. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fleshier than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day. MRS. RICHARD JONES.
