Searching for Nutcrackers.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 27.—According to advice received from Honolulu, the British cruiser Sherwater has left here for Pitcairn and other southeast islands, and will make a search for the nutcrackers who left the ship Lester Castle after shooting the captain and killing Second Mate Dixon.
The nutcracker occurred 300 miles from Pitcairn and it was believed that the nutcrackers might reach that island, if they did not perish at sea.

New Margherita, Russian Turkestan, reports that the earthquake at Andijan killed 2,500 people in and near that been discovered oozing from the banks of the Coon River, near Grant City, in Sac County. A quart of the Needs of the Army.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 24.—The fifty-fourth annual dinner of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, which was held here tonight, was made notable because of the attendance of several men distinguished in war and peace. The guests of honor were:
Governor Nash, Adjutant-General Corbin, General S. B. M. Young and General A. R. Chaffee, U. S. A.; John G. Milburn, of Buffalo, and Senator Hanna. These occupied the platform table, at which also sat Tom L. Johnson, Myron T. Herrick and others.
The first speaker was Governor Nash, who referred to the growth of the State of Ohio, and especially of the City of Cleveland. The next speaker was Adjutant-General Corbin, who spoke to the toast, "The Army and Its Needs." Major-General Corbin said in part:
"We have much that is satisfactory; our officers and men are of the best—sober, brave and intelligent.
We are fortunate in having a permanent military establishment of volunteers. What is known as the regular Army is in the highest sense a volunteer army, every officer and man taking service of his own volition.
But perfection of organization is demanded—a harmonious and intelligent method of coordination and direction. Laws for the administration of the army have been drafted on the statute books in many parts without a continuity of legislative thought, so that, starting out with the Constitutional provision that the President shall command the Army and Navy, ren soon overtake conditions which baffle and bother those charged with responsibilities connected therewith."

President Too Busy to Play Santa Claus at Oyster Bay.

New York, Dec. 26.—For the second time in 15 years, says a Press dispatch from Oyster Bay, President Roosevelt did not act as Kris Kringle in person at the Cove school, where his children were taught prior to his elevation to the head of the Nation.
Last year the President could not spare the time to come here, and this year events have been pressing too fast about him to admit of his coming.
Some days ago Mr. Roosevelt sent a little slip of paper bearing his autograph, which enabled the principal to deal more liberally with her charge than she had been able to do before. The sleds, games and dolls were more costly than usual and the candies in greater quantity. There were two trees instead of one, and Miss Provost, the principal, read a letter from President Roosevelt telling the boys and girls how sorry he was that he could not be with them.
A telegram was sent to the President telling him how much the children appreciated his gifts and wishing him many more years in his present position.

Pittsburg, Kans., Dec. 27.—Montgomery Godley, a Negro, was taken from the jail today and lynched by a mob, because early this morning he shot and killed Milton Hinkley, a police man, while the officer was trying to protect himself from a crowd of angry Negroes. The Negro jerked the officers pistol from its scabbard and shot the officer with it from behind. Two hours later a mob pathered and took the Negro from the city jail, where he had been taken after he was caught, and hanged him to a telephone pole. As he was choking to death one of the members of the mob cut his throat and ended his suffering.
