Found Dead.

Andy C. Rowlind, who has been chopping wood on a place two and a half miles east of Albany on the Salem road, near the Cooper place disappeared on Monday of last Week and it was several days before his absence caused alarm among the neighbors. Tuesday forenoon Chas. Darcey and another man residing near went into fields to hunt for him, resulting in their finding his body near where he had been chopping. He was lying on his back, with his arms across his breast, and it looked very much as if he had laid down and after wards died of heart failure.

Rowling came to Albany from Astoria where he was one time a nightwatchman, ten or fifteen years ago, among other things he had run the Lyon Street fish market awhile. He was about seventy years of age, was a batchelor, and is said to have been an Indian war veteran.—Democrat.

Sheriff Withers is Dead.

Eugene, Feb. 7.—Sheriff W. W. Withers, who was shot last Thursday night by Elliott Lyons near Walton in Lane county while he was endeavoring to arrest Lyons for horse stealing, died at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at Geo Hale's farm about six miles east of the place where he was shot. He was removed that far towards home when his condition became so critical the doctors who were attending him concluded to keep him there. This point is about 25 miles west of Eugene and is well up in the coast range of mountains.

Mrs. Withers arrived at the bedside of her husband shortly before he died. He was still conscious when she arrived, but soon became unconscious and remained so until he died. The bullet passed through his neck and lodged in the cartilage between the vertebrae, and the surgeons state that there was no show or his recovery from the very first. Deputies have been out in all directions looking for Lyons, but no trace of him has been found. There is no clew to the direction he took or to his movements in any way.

The city of Eugene is wild with excitement and if Lyons should be caught it would be a difficult matter to keep the infuriated citizens from making dulck work of him. There is small prospects of Lyons ever being taken alive and he is a desperate man and will not be taken alive.

It is now reported that the condition of Senator Mitchell is very serious and fears are entertained according to some reports that he may not recover, but he is a man of strong constitution and will probably pull through.

Fred Fisk has been sworn in as acting sheriff of Lane county. Like Withers he is a very popular young man.
