We have the top prices on Mohair. Don't sell until you get our prices. Wesely Bros.

Fred Jones accepted a position as messenger boy for the telephone company April 1st.

As usual we are paying a good deal more for produce than our competitors. Hibler & Gill.

Fred Ficklin, of Albany, and Byron Gill, of Corvallis, were visiting relatives and friends in Scio over Sunday.

The telephone office in this city during the month of March took in over $90. What city the size of Scio can beat it?

The high wind Monday tore down an electric light pole on Main street which in falling narrowly missed a team tied close by.

The delegates elected on the Republican convention were South Scio Fred Jones, J. N. Morris and G. F. Coffey, north Scio, Dr. A. G. Prill and A. W. Hagey.

Miss Dullie Daley went to Albany Tuesday where she has accepted a position in Marvin Turner's confectionery and oyster parlors.

We will have plenty of choice new goods in a short time, and goods too that are not bought at retail prices. Hibler & Gill.

The telephone line to Jordan, is an assured fact. Dr. Prill has let the contract for the poles to Mr. Trask, of Jordan, and they are to be up some time in May.

Bring your meat in immediately. We want to take care of the hams and shoulders properly, so don't delay it but bring it right in.

HIBLER & GILL.

You know when Ross Hibler says he will guarantee his price for mohair that it is so, and that when you sell to him you are sure of getting the very highest price paid.

Now is the time to improve your resident property. Make your home attractive as neat and well kept homes are sure to attract the attention of the many new comers.

If you do not place your order very soon for your cemetery work you will be too late to have it attended to before decoration day. Call on M. N. Richardson for designs and samples.

The entertainment given in the assembly hall of the school building last Friday evening by the Christian Endeavor Society was not as well attended as it should have been. Those who attended report a pleasant time.

Don't forget that you must place the order for your cemetery work very soon if you want it up by Decoration Day, or better to see the designs and samples that M. N. Richardson has before you go elsewhere.

T. J. Munkers is thoroughly remodeling his bank building inside, and when completed will present a very nice appearance. New iron railing will be placed around the counter and two painted glass doors will lead to the consultation room, besides numerous other repairs.

The old city water tower was torn down the first of the week, and the new one is about completed. All that remains to do is to paint the tank and woodwork. The tower delivered at Scio cost the city $501.34, and the cost of erecting it and tearing down the old one was about $100. Numerous other repairs will be made around the light plant, including a new pump house.

The County Concert Company are billed to give their moving picture illustrated concert at the city hall Tuesday evening April 7th. They use an Edison machine of latest pattern with calcium light and about 2500 feet of picture films and gear-ance a picture class and bright. Their illustrated songs include some of Chas. K. Harris latest hits. Guitars and banjo specialties will be rendered during the evening. Admission 25 and 12 cents.

The monument and stone curbing recently ordered by H. Shelton has been placed at and around the graves of Harvey and Caroline Shelton, two of Oregon's early pioneers. It was placed by M. N. Richardson of the Blasing Granite Co., of Portland, Oregon, and is evidence of skilled workmanship and satisfactory in every manner and Mr. Richardson has also recently erected a neat monument at the grave of Frank Miller, and parties desiring monuments are requested to inspect this work.

H. W. Corbett Dead.

PORTLAND, March 31.—Hon. H. W. Corbett died suddenly at 6:45 this morning. He was in his usual health yesterday.

A Southern Oregon man may be given his place on the fair board.

Mr. Corbett was Portland's leading citizen for many years, a leader in every enterprise that went to the upbuilding of the city. He was born in Massachusetts in Feb. 1827 and came to Portland in 1851, engaging in the hardware business, developing a large wholesale business.

Mr. Corbett became interested in the city, the First National Bank, Oregonian, and other large properties. He was U. S. Senator for one term and in recent years was again a candidate. Mr. Corbett was at the head of the Lewis and Clark exposition until a few days ago when he resigned. His loss is a great one to Portland.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia as follows: I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow eyes sunken tongue coated pain continuously in back and sides no appetite growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued there use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them, only 50 cents, guaranteed at E. C. Peery's drug store.

Notice to Dog Owners.

You are hereby notified that the license on dogs is now due and you are requested to call on the Recorder and settle the same.

J. A. BLYDEN, City Marshal.

A Thoughtful Man.
