Mrs. R. F. Ashby, a former resident of this place but now of Albany, is seriously ill at her home in the latter place and is not expected to recover. She has requested that in case of her death, which can only be a matter of a few days as she is afflicted with cancer, to be buried in the Masonic cemetery of this place where two of her children are buried.

The latter part of this week we expect to start in type setting on our descriptive pamphlet, although we have not yet got up the necessary funds for the purpose. We do not think that all have subscribed that will, and we hope in a few days to have up the necessary amount. It will take at the least $150 and the more the better pamphlet we can issue. We have now 231.50. This is a matter in which everyone should help as it benefits the entire community.

From the Oregonian.
 Scio, Or., April 9, 1903.—Dear Mr. Editor:—I just red with much interest your asking who wrote that poem on "Government Devils To Lazie to Draw Their Pay," which a fellow back in Baltimore claims, and I want to tell you I wrote that. I know a lot of plagiarists (with which this country seems to be full of just now) who are trying to pull from me how my long lost lawells, but I come to the front in time to save my rep. I will send my second edition of that new Spring poem soon.

Your truly,
 TILLIE.
 P. S.—You see I am living at Scio now.
