According to Alaska papers Francis M. Rumbaugh and Myrtle Berry, who skipped out from Sweet Home several weeks ago, met with justice in Alaska. Mrs. E. J. Rumbaugh, the injured wife, followed them and appeared at the right time. Warrants were issued for their arrest at Ketchikan on the charge of lewd cohabitation, and they were brought back to that place from Skagway, where they had fled. Under the preliminary examination they were held, and upon the case being called both plead guilty, the evidence being so strong that a defense would be useless. They were living under the name of Francis Marion and wife, Rumbaugh was sentenced to fifteen months in jail and Miss Berry to six months.
