The amount of produce handled by our merchants could be a great surprise to most of our readers. At one time during the week, Hibler & Gill had on hand over one thousand dozens of eggs. Almost all of our people do not know of the great amount of business our own merchants transact.

The warm spring days again brings out the old worn-out rumors about the probability of the S. P. R. Co. extending their line through Scio and out through the Richardson Gap to Lebanon. The probabilities are that the S. P. officials have never formed any such plans. The way to secure the road would be for the

the public schools, was placed under arrest Tuesday forenoon; upon a warrant issued out of the court of Recorder Van Winkle acting as Justice of the Peace, by Chief of Police McClain. The information is signed by C. H. Stewart, and charges the defendant with the crime of "willfully, unlawfully, maliciously and feloniously setting fire to the residence of Dana Barmester in the night time on April 29, at Albany."

The defendant appeared in person and with her attorneys, Judge Howarth, J. K. Weatherford and L. M. Carl and the state by District Attorney Hart and Gill Hill, and waiting examination, was placed under $1,000 bonds, furnished promptly by the defendant assigning first class securities as bonds, when she was released from custody.

A Starting Text.

To save a life, Dr. T. G. Merritt, of No. Monocopy, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes, "My patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles, so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in 14 months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only see at E. C. Peery.

An attempt to burn the residence occupied by Mrs. Minnie Munkers caused much excitement last Thursday evening and a great deal of comment since. A. S. Hart discovered the fire at 8:20. As he reached the front gate Mrs. Munkers was there and told him the house was on fire, and he gave the alarm. In the meantime a fire over the hill between the parlor and sitting room under the portiers, set in some paper and rubbish, was extinguished. Then another fire was discovered in the sitting room under the book case, and extinguished. Going further back, the woodbox in the kitchen was found in flames, and was thrown out of doors. Back of this in the pantry, with the door closed, was a smoldering fire, some rubbish, only extinguished. Another fire was discovered in a sideboard, still another fire was found up stairs smoldering, and under the stairway was considerable kerosene. Seven places in all. On part of them kerosene had been poured. All the back doors were locked and windows were permitting no draft, or the house would have burned. Some peculiar things: Two oil paintings had been taken down, and were against the wall of the parlor, one of the wires of the telephone had been pulled out, the clothes on the down stairs bed were off the bed in a pile, in the barn was found a basket of china ware, each piece wrapped in paper, and a box of bric-a-brac, a valuable rug, sofa pillows and a few other things. Mrs. Munkers stated that she had been at the post office and had just gotten home, that she had $100 in gold under the stairway, which was gone. Her daughter Veda was at the W. C. T. U. hall taking lessons with the physical culture class. That she was getting ready to move. The residence was placed in charge of Chief of Police McClain Friday morning and the case is being thoroughly investigated. The house was insured in one of S. N. Steels & Co's companies for $600, but they at once cancelled the policy after learning of the loss.
