The Benefit of Change.

We are like many others. We need a change of air and then to be replaced. New scenes, new experiences, new surroundings—a change of climate, dry air instead of moisture, sunshine in place of cloud. This is sometimes essential to health. There are conditions here or here that are better than. For example, take a month or two in California. Plant yourself for a time where there are no irritations, where the hotel is beyond criticism, the landscape pleasing, and where warm sunny weather invites to walk and drive. Pure and dry air, and the increased electric fall—these of sunshine are very helpful.

You can make a trip at very little expense, and enjoy a ride over the scenic Whistler and Shasta mountains, which at this time of the year with some special views are unsurpassed. A study of the scenic beauty of the mountains is a study in itself.

Five Good Reasons.

That the Rio Grande route is the most popular one between the Pacific coast and the east is evidenced by the fact that the greater per cent of transcontinental travelers use it.
First, the scenic attractions in view are unrivaled in the world.
Second, the daily personally conducted tourist car excursions being especially adapted for ladies traveling alone or with children, affords a comfortable mode of travel at rates within reach of all.
Third, it is the only route between the East and West passing directly through Salt Lake City, or modern Zion.
Fourth, the choice of two distinct routes through the heart of the Rocky Mountains.
Fifth, the fast through trains daily between Ogden and Denver equipped with every modern convenience.
There are many other reasons why this route is the most comfortable and enjoyable in the whole country.
You can learn a great deal on the subject of through travel, and receive some very beautiful and interesting booklets, by calling on or writing to the undersigned: W. C. McBride, Gen'l Agent, or M. J. Eiche, Traveling Passenger Agent, 124 Third Street, Portland, Ore.
